Valued Home Remedies

(Clip Out and Save.)

To End Coughs

The following formula, easily mixed at home, makes one of the quickest cough remedies obtainable, often curing the worst cough in a day. Take a teaspoonful as often as necessary.

Glycerine . . . . . 2 ounces
Whiskey (or sugar syrup) . . . . . ½ pint
Globe Pine Compound . . . . . 1 ½ ounce
("Concentrated Pine")

If sugar syrup is used instead of whiskey it can be easily made by dissolving 6 heaping teaspoonfuls of granulated sugar in ¾ cup of water. Syrup of Sarsaparilla . . . . . 1 ounce
Toris Compound . . . . . 1 ounce
Whiskey or Simple Elixir . . . . . ½ pint

How To Relieve Rheumatism

After each meal and at bedtime take a tablespoonful of the following home-made medicine, used all over the United States and noted for its remarkable results. Relief begins at once.

Syrup of Sarsaparilla . . . . . 1 ounce
Toris Compound . . . . . 1 ounce
Whiskey or Simple Elixir . . . . . ½ pint

Frost-bites, Corns, Sore Feet

Bathe the feet in warm water to which has been added two tablespoonfuls of Calabdo. This gives instant relief for itching, burning or perspiring feet; corns, callouses, sore bunions, also for frost-bites or chilblains. The Calabdo acts through the pores, removing the cause of the trouble. Its use keeps the feet in a firm, healthy condition, free from swelling and puffing.

These formulas are published by the Medical Formula Laboratories, Dayton, Ohio. The ingredients specified can be procured from any good drug store.

PERSONAL VIEWS OF MANY WRITERS

William Ellsworth, President of Century Company, Speaks to College Club

There was a decidedly literary atmosphere at the Y. W. C. A. building last evening where the College Club of Harrisburg presented to an audience which filled the auditorium William Webster Ellsworth, president of the Century Publishing Company, for a delightful evening with prominent authors and publishers.

For more than forty years Mr. Ellsworth has been identified with the Century Company and his reminiscences of distinguished authors and poets of the period before and since the Civil War were of the most intimate character. Many of these he knew personally and his analysis of their work and his narratives of personal interviews with Mark Twain, Jack London, Thomas Nelson Page and many others, including Rudyard Kipling, held the close attention of all present until the last word had been spoken. Then the speaker was given prolonged applause.

It would be difficult to imagine a more clever personal view of the great writers of this country than that presented by Mr. Ellsworth. He told modestly of the work of the publishers of the United States with special reference to the Century Company with those operations he has been closely associated. Most of his stories were absolutely new and served to enrich his narrative. He told of the best sellers of the period starting with the decade immediately preceding the Civil War and also related many instances of books that had once been rejected and later proved tremendous popular. His conclusions were those of the expert and he admitted that on at least two occasions the Century Company had made mistakes by refusing manuscripts which were afterwards accepted by other publishers and proved instantly acceptable to the reading world.

Especially interesting was his reference to Jack London, whose recent death has caused widespread regret. London had written to his publishers that there were upon his shelves plots for a least 500 stories and manuscripts for 60 novels. He told of Joseph Jefferson and the preparation of his memoirs and also indicated how frequently it was necessary for publishers to reconstruct manuscripts of authors in order that the better sections might be brought immediately and conspicuously to the attention of the reader.

Mrs. Paul Johnston, president of the College Club, introduced Mr. Ellsworth and after the lecture light refreshments were served. It was in every way a most delightful occasion and the desire was expressed generally that it might be but the beginning of a series of such literary treats.

Many in Attendance
Among those present last evening were Mrs. Frederic C. Martin, Miss Mary Smart, of Chillicothe, Ohio; Miss Etta Reimensnyder, Miss Alice Egan, Mrs. M. W. W. Ellsworth, of Boston; Mrs. Paul Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stackpole, Mrs. John B. Alister, Mrs. Philip T. Meredith, Mrs. Frederick W. Cohen, of New Jersey; Mr. and Mrs. Henderson Gilbert, Mrs. Walter P. Maguire, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ralph Morrison, Miss Frances Morrison, Mrs. Oona Scott, Dr. and Mrs. Harvey P. Smith, Mrs. John C. Stine, Miss Anne McCormick, Mrs. Walton, Miss Carolyn Walton, of Brownstone; Mrs. Robert and Mrs. William Olmsted, Mrs. William Anderson, Mrs. A. J. Herr, Mrs. George Kunkel, Mr. and Mrs. Richard V. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Lew R. Palmer, Mrs. Robert P. Stine, Mrs. Sawyer, Miss Janet Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnston, Miss Helen McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. Robert and Mrs. Charles B. Fager, Miss Caroline R. Moffitt, Mrs. Solomon Hiney, Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie, Mrs. M. W. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs, Dr. and Mrs. George Kunkel, Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones, Miss Mary Reimensnyder, of Washington, and Newell Albright.

Miss Kuhn Leaves City After Many Pleasures

Mrs. Clara Hall Kuhn, who spent the past week in Harrisburg among relatives and friends, left to-day for a visit in Carlisle, Mount Holly and Gettysburg, expecting to reach her home in Cashtown, Adams county, on Saturday.

Mrs. Kuhn, who has a country-wide reputation as the original of Mrs. Deary in Mrs. Martin's book, "Barnabette," and the play, "Erstwhile Susan," has been enjoying the sights of the city. She was taken through the Capitol, where she met many distinguished politicians of the state, and has been entertained by "the good and the great."

Essentially an optimist, Mrs. Kuhn, who will celebrate her seventieth birthday in April, says her favorite motto is "Frame your mind to joy, mirth and merriment, which bar a thousand ills and lengthen life."

Ohev Sholom Sisterhood Elects Its New Officers

The Ohev Sholom Sisterhood elected the following officers at its annual meeting yesterday afternoon in the temple: President, Mrs. Samuel Friedman; vice-president, Mrs. Joseph Nachman; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Alfred Seligman; recording secretary, Mrs. Julius Goman; treasurer, Mrs. E. Stern; new members for the month of directors, Mrs. Samuel Kades and Mrs. Otto J. Buxbaum, the retiring president.

Routine business was followed by the social hour, a feature introduced in the meetings this winter and greatly enjoyed. The sisterhood does a wide charity work throughout the city as well as having some purely cultural and social sessions.

"TIZ" FOR TIRED AND SORE FEET

Use "Tiz" for puffed-up, burning, aching, calloused feet and corns.

Why go limping around with aching puffed-up feet—feet so tired, chafed, sore and swollen you can hardly get your shoes on or off? Why don't you get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" from the drug store now and gladden your tortured feet?

"Tiz" makes your feet glow with comfort; takes down swellings and draws the soreness and misery right out of feet that chafe, smart and burn. "Tiz" instantly stops pain in corns, callouses and bunions. "Tiz" is glorious for tired, aching, sore feet. No more shoe tightness—no more foot torture.—Advertisement.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS SPENDS SOCIAL EVENING

Members of John B. Fortenbaugh's Sunday school class of the Otterbein Church met last evening at the home of Luther McLaughlin, 1311 North Third street. During a business session the following officers were elected: President, Robert Ward; vice-president, Luther McLaughlin; secretary, Alfred Litley; treasurer, Roy Murray. A social hour followed with music and refreshments.

FOR A SIX-YEAR-OLD

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Getz held a surprise party at their home in New Market, in honor of their daughter Fay's, sixth birthday. Refreshments were served to Irene Miller, Violet Smith, Margaret Willis, Louise and Helen Staley, Clarence Willis, William Miller, Robert and Harold Staley, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meyers and son, Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. David Hain, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Adams and daughter, Fay; Mr. and Mrs. Getz and daughters Esther, Rhoda, Mildred and Fay.

Central High School Notes

Much regret is felt by the student body because of the serious illness of Professor Edward G. Ross, instructor of music. The regular music classes are not being held.

Track plans are being formed and the following dates are announced for events in which Blue and Gray representatives will participate: April 27-28, at Philadelphia, interscholastic and intercollegiate; May 12, in the interscholastics at Penn State, and May 30, at Reading. Central will also be represented in the meet at Island Park during the latter part of May. Workouts for the candidates are being held twice a week under the direction of Eugene Miller and from present indications High School will have an exceptional strong track team.

Owing to the mid-year examinations which began to-day, the regular chapel service will be omitted on Friday.

The measurements for the caps and gowns for the candidates are taken yesterday, this class being the largest ever graduated from Central.

The 1917 edition of the Omnidaguan, published by the junior class of Syracuse University, is a recent addition to the school library.

Plans are being made for a record-breaking attendance at the York game Friday night. Central is leading the league and the students plan to retain it permanently and will be out in full force to see the expected downfall of the White Rose quintet.

ADDRESS TO PRESS EMPLOYEES

William Webster Ellsworth of the Century Company, who has long been a personal friend of J. Horace McCord, addressed the employees of the Mount Pleasant Press to-day to their great pleasure.
