U. S. and Bethlehem Steel Fall; Secondary Offerings at Low Levels; Anglo-French Bonds Reach New Low

New York, Feb. 9. — Extreme caution was reflected in the course of prices during the day's early trading. Initial quotations showed few changes beyond factional limits but secondary offerings were mainly at low levels. United States Steel fell a point from its top price with 1 to almost 2 points for Crucible and Lackawanna Steel, and 1½ for Bethlehem Steel "rights." Other heavy features included American Woolen, Industrial Alcohol, Atlantic Gulf and West Indies and Central Leather. The trend of foreign bonds were seen in the weakness of Anglo-French 5s which broke all previous low records at 9½.

From the ease with which prices rallied it was the general opinion that the irregular declines after the opening were mainly due to short selling. Industrials, comprising the steel group and popular equipments soon rose to or above yesterday's final figures with oils. Marine pfd., Central Leather and Pittsburgh Coal. Peoples Gas lost Monthly Coangle Price of the rallway issues. Trading halted on the recovery with stagnation in the second hour. Bonds were heavy with a further recession in Anglo-French 5s.
