A Winter Without Coal

Can you imagine a situation of this serious nature? Well, we just escaped it this winter, and those who buy coal by the "hand to mouth" method may still have a taste of it before Spring comes.

The scarcity of coal this winter, due largely to a shortage of cars, will have dire results if war comes and railroads are used exclusively for Government business.

What little coal is above ground will not last long if there is a general clamor for it. Don't delay.

LITTLE LILLIAN ROMAINE FISHER CAN TALK AGAIN

This attractive little lady is the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Fisher, 238 North St., Harrisburg, Pa. Last winter she had an attack of measles, together with a very severe cold. Just at that time Druggist S. J. Wilhelm presented Mr. Fisher with a jar of the Southern "outside" treatment—Vick's VapoRub Salve, which was just then being introduced in Harrisburg, and requested that he give this preparation a thorough trial. Mr. Fisher writes— "I must say that our baby had such a cold on her chest and in her throat that she could hardly talk, and we could not get her to take anything internally. After we used Vick's VapoRub Salve on her breast and throat at night before going to bed she was entirely relieved. No family should be without this preparation. It is externally applied, and so can be used freely—it is absorbed through and penetrates the skin, and, in addition, is inhaled as a vapor. It has a hundred uses for the many minor ailments for which every mother is the doctor. Three sizes, 25c, 50c or $1.00.

Committee Reports That Last Night's Attendance Was a Recordbreaker

Last night was Chamber of Commerce night at the automobile show and hundreds of members and their friends took advantage of the special preparations for their reception among the newest things in motordom. The show committee reports the attendance for Chamber of Commerce night as being the largest in the history of Harrisburg's automobile shows.

The general trend of prices at this year's show seems to be upward and many of the exhibitors openly predict that another twelve-month will see the various cars more expensive. In view of the conditions prevailing in the field of skilled labor throughout the country, these predictions appear to carry considerable weight.

Wednesday night has been set aside as "Rotary night" by the show committee and it is expected a special musical program will be arranged for the entertainment of the visitors.

MURDER CASES MAY BE CLOSED

Special sessions of criminal court which began Monday, February 5, may close to-morrow, as there is only one more murder case to be started.

The jury in the James Frazer murder trial, heard before Additional Law Judge S. J. M. McCarrell, was charged this morning leaving courtroom No. 2, at 12.30 o'clock. Frazer is charged with stabbing Charles Smith, colored, during a fight in the Eighth ward. The Commonwealth and attorneys for the defense took up practically all morning in addressing the jury.

Eddie Marshall, alias Monroe, accused of shooting Albert Brown, colored, during an argument in a house in Sarah alley, may take the stand this afternoon in an effort to escape the electric chair.

Witnesses for the Commonwealth Charles V. Henry, that three shots were fired, but only one entered Brown's body, according to physicians who treated the victim.

The case against William C. Fickes, accused of running down and killing Joseph Husk, aged 10, near Jednota, in an auto accident, may be started this afternoon. It is the last one remaining on the list of continued trials from the January sessions, and if ended this week, will leave four murder cases for trial at the March sessions.
