"Fast Week" for Railroads To Relieve Freight Troubles

St. Louis, Feb. 20.—What would be known as "fast week" was suggested to representatives of all railroads entering St. Louis in conference on the freight congestion situation here yesterday.

Getting Too Fat? Try This—Reduce

People who don't grow too fat are the fortunate exception. But if you find the fat accumulating or already cumbersome, you will be wise to follow this suggestion, which is endorsed by thousands of people who know.

RAILROAD RUMBLES CAR SCARCITY IS GROWING LESS

Local Plants Still Running; Railroads Looking After Harrisburg Interests

Officials of the Pennsylvania railroad and the Reading Railway said to-day that every effort possible is being made to supply cars to local industrial plants. Thus far the congestion caused by the tie up seaports has not seriously affected local manufacturers.

The greatest trouble, it is said, has been in getting cars to bring supplies to Harrisburg. Flour orders are being delayed and cars are being sent west as rapidly as they are available.

Local coal merchants have experienced difficulty in getting a supply of coal promptly.

Good News For Shapmen; More Hours For Repairs

Altoona, Feb. 20.—Pennsylvania Railroad shapmen yesterday working 65 hours a week instead of 59. They will work alternately 10 and 12 hours a day.

FOREIGN ENGINES HELD UP.—New engines enroute from the American Locomotive plant to the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company were held up in Harrisburg to-day.
