TWO GERMAN PLOTTERS NABBED

Charged With Feloniously Setting on Foot Military Enterprise Against England

New York, Feb. 20.—Charged with feloniously setting on foot a military enterprise against Great Britain and Ireland for the benefit of Germany, two men, described as Albert A. Sander and Charles W. Wunnberg, are under arrest here and awaiting arraignment before a United States commissioner.

According to the complaint Sander and Wunnberg hired and sent men to Great Britain to get plans of military importance which were transmitted to this country in packages and in letters written in invisible ink. From here, it is alleged, the information was disseminated to agents of the central powers, principally Germany.

Sander is president of the Central Powers War Films Exchange in this city. Wunnberg is his assistant. The charges, prepared by John C. Knox, assistant prosecutor in charge of the criminal branch of the Department of Justice, covers a period extending back to May, 1916. Counsel for the accused men denied all the charges.

Soon after the arrest in England of George Vaux Bacon, who claimed to represent American newspapers, secret service agents here began to work on the case. By means of a photograph of Bacon, they said, they were able to connect him with the operation of Sander and Wunnberg.

BILL TO AMEND REGISTRATION ACT
Would Provide For Enlargement of Privilege of Registering Before Commissioners

An amendment to the third class city registration act was introduced in the House to-day by Mr. Isherwood, McKean, providing that voters prevented by sickness or necessary absence from appearing on registration days, may go before county commissioners at any time before the election and the commissioners may enter the name on the registration list in their office.

Mr. Stadlander, Allegheny, presented a bill to establish a system of license for street and hot water installation in cities. The council in third class cities are to name the chief inspectors.

A bill to appropriate $8,000 for education of children was introduced by Mr. Walter, Franklin. The money is to be disbursed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. It was accompanied by a bill fixing $1.50 a day as the rate for care and education of such children.

Other Bills Presented
Mr. Stern, Philadelphia, establishing a State tax of $1 per year on all slot or automatic vending machines.
Mr. Ulrich, Lebanon, repealing act of 1911, making traction engines taxable as personal property.
Mr. Hess, Lancaster, placing public mauseoliums under supervision of State Department of Health.
Mr. Lauer, Allegheny, requiring street railway companies to equip cars with automatic airbrake attachments and automatic air-couplers; requiring temperature in cars to be maintained at 65 degrees between September 1 to May 1.
The House placed on the calendar the Dunn bill giving consent of the State to the government to buy land for Frankford arsenal enlargement in Philadelphia after a twenty-minute debate.

During consideration of bills on third reading so many members asked to be recorded, especially on the union printing label bill, that the speaker gave notice that the rule providing for voting only on roll calls would be enforced.
These House bills passed finally:
Providing that all printing done for the State shall be done by the union of the Allied Printing Trades, Messrs. Dell and Showalter voted "no."
The committee on Education reported with a negative recommendation on the Brady bill for compulsory military training.
The Senate resolution on the voluntary retirement bill was concurred in.
The speaker signed the food investigation resolution in the presence of the House.

Bill To Enlarge Power of Chief Clerks Passes Senate by One Vote

Senator Crow's bill authorizing the chief clerk of any department of State government to act in the capacity of chief of the department head be in capacity and in any way was passed this morning in the upper chamber by a majority of one. The bill takes the place of a joint resolution vetoed last night by Governor E. B. Brumbaugh. It is to enable the chief clerk of the Department of Printing to conduct its affairs during the present vacancy.

The hitch came because of the slim attendance. The bill was called only 25 of the 50 Senators voted in its favor. Four were cast against it. Senator Dewitt reached his desk before the clerk announced his vote in the affirmative. His vote assured the bill's passage. Later Senator Stewart changed his vote from no to yes.

Four other bills were passed by the Senate in the afternoon. These were a measure providing for civil service in police departments in cities of the third class; providing for the participation of the State National Guard in the inauguration; and one amending sections of revenue law.

The Tompkins bill providing for physical training in the public schools and establishing a bureau in the Department of Public Instruction to supervise the work, was referred back to the committee on military affairs.

Senate Opposes Federal Tax
A resolution protesting against the proposed federal tax upon the profits of corporations, partnerships and joint stock companies was introduced in the Senate to-day by Mr. Sproul and passed. It was sent to the House for concurrence.

NEW COLD STORAGE BILL
A new cold storage bill, making it mandatory upon persons who place food in warehouses to mark the place so as to prevent it being sold as fresh, was introduced by Mr. Jones in the Senate to-day. The date also is to be marked on the product, which may not be stored for more than twelve months. The time limit fixed for storing fresh goods is sixty days, after which they must be sold as storage products.

Senate Adjourns
The Senate adjourned shortly after noon to-day until next Monday evening.

News of the Schools

TECH
—Practically every seat in the fourth floor study hall was filled last night when J. W. Koons held the order the first assembly of the students for a study of drill rules. The drills will be for the purpose of preparing the Tech men for cavalry service. Mr. Koons read the preliminary of the work to the candidates. The next meeting will be held next Monday evening. Members from every class in the school were present, and there seems to be no lack of interest on the part of those who have signed up for the military club. An election of officers will take place at a later date.

—Enlarging upon the plan as previously announced relative to the concert to be given by the State College Glee Club March 5, it has been decided to have the students from the Harrisburg Academy, and the Central, Steelton and Technical high schools attend the affair. In order to accommodate the 2,000 students from the four schools, the Chestnut street auditorium will be engaged for the evening. It is proposed to have printed programs for the occasion, and a member of the faculty of each of the four schools will direct this part of the work. The event will be a general "get together" meeting for the students from Harrisburg and vicinity, and will be the first of its kind ever held. The students will not sit together as schools, but will be given the privilege of sitting anywhere in the auditorium. This idea will doubtless add to the social part of the evening's entertainment.

—The senior class held another meeting yesterday afternoon to discuss plans for the senior dance that will take place March 1. The meeting exercises this morning were for the two upper classes, and during the services plans were discussed further concerning the "hop."

—The Tech Camera Club held its semi-regular meeting in the physical laboratory this afternoon, with George L. Stark in the chair.

—Because there will be no school Thursday, the managers of the basketball team will practice for their coming concert.

—Tech students heard with pleasure Dr. Fager's announcement that there would be no school Thursday because of it being Washington's birthday.

CENTRAL
—The Argus staff will meet this evening at the home of Kenneth Downes, 1811 North Second street. Plans will be discussed for the March issue and other important business is to be settled. The members of the staff are: Marlin G. Geiger, editor-in-chief; Thomas D. Caldwell, business manager; Emory Hartman, Ross Hoffman and Arthur Gardner, assistant business managers; Paul Selsam, alumni; Harry Mell and Willard Smith, art; Kenneth Downes and Miss Sabra Clark, observations; James Carey and Miss Helen Smith, sports; Miss Nancy McCullough, social; and Miss Margaret Winegard, exchanges.

—Daniel Hammebaugh entertained the Blue and Gray orchestra last evening at his home, 1437 North Second street. The members include Blair Smith, Russell Zimmerman, Ben Kutzman, Harvey Baturin, Paul Selsam, Edwin Rockefeller, Daniel Hammebaugh and William L. Kay.

—At Bellevue Park Thursday evening, the Demosthenian Literary Society will meet at the home of Miss Mary Elizabeth Dietrich, Pentwater road.

—A special mass meeting was called by the principal yesterday in regard to the recent suspension of two of the varsity basketball men. Following this a meeting of all basketball men, scrubs, and track candidates was held under the direction of the principal, Professor Bertram W. Saul, Professor Frank G. Roth and "Ike" McCord.
