CIVIC CLUB HAS WIDE INTERESTS

Hears a Journey in Diplomacy and of Important Matters Throughout This City

The regular monthly meeting of the Harrisburg Civic Club was held in the clubhouse yesterday afternoon, the president, Mrs. William Henderson, presiding. Following routine business and reports from the various committees, Mrs. Evelyn Binz, of the State Agricultural Bureau, gave a short talk upon the need of organization and co-operation among the women in the country districts. She urged the direct purchase of food products from the producer, delivery by parcel post, thus materially reducing the high cost of living. Mrs. Binz's description of the point of view of some rural women toward a woman public speaker was both humorous and pitiful.

Cyrus E. Woods, Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, gave a most interesting account of his reception into the diplomatic life of Portugal, as envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States. Although a republic, the little country still retained much of the extreme form and ceremony due to royalty and the mystery and intrigue so characteristic of the Portuguese nature was the cause of much amusement to the outspoken American. Mr. Woods paid especial tribute to the bravery and strength of character of King Alfonso of Spain, whose country he frequently visited during his stay in Portugal.

Mrs. James I. Chamberlin called attention to the proposed exhibit of feeble-mindedness and spoke at length on the garbage and ashes nuisance in this city.

Hostesses to Authors Club Friday afternoon, February 23, the Civic Club will be hostesses to the Authors Club of which Mrs. Maurice E. Finney is president. There will be a brief sketch of the history and aims of the Authors Club given followed by tea served during a good fellowship hour. All members of both clubs are invited to be present at this meeting.

BISHOP SWENGEL'S 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Celebrates His Fifty Years in the Ministry of Evangelical Church With Banquet

BISHOP U. F. SWENGEL
The fiftieth anniversary of Bishop U. F. Swengel in the ministry of the gospel has just been celebrated in his home 75 North Eighteenth street, in this city. Mrs. Swengel arranged a banquet in honor of the event. Fifty years ago the Rev. Dr. Swengel, A. M., D. D., was licensed to preach the gospel by the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Evangelical Association; received into the itinerancy and given his first appointment in Wyoming county, Pa. He served 23 years as pastor, 14 1/2 of which were given to York Trinity and Baltimore Memorial churches. He was presiding elder 12 years, editor of S. S. Literature 3 1/2 years, and was twice elected to the office of bishop. At one time there were two Swengel brothers in the active ministry of the Central Pennsylvania Conference. Two have dropped out of account of impaired health and two are still in the active work.

The guests at the fiftieth anniversary in the home of Bishop Swengel were: Bishop H. B. Hartzler, D. D., Bishop W. M. Stantord, D. D., pastors W. S. Harris, G. F. Schaum and A. E. Hangan; Editors George Ott and W. E. Peffley, Rev. A. W. Swengel and Hon. Charles A. Shafer and Rev. E. H. Niebel, corresponding secretary. Bishop Hartzler, a conference associate for forty-eight years, gave congratulations in behalf of the guests and the Rev. A. E. Hangan, spokesman for the company, presented fifty white carnations as a token of esteem to Bishop Swengel. Reminiscences of the fifty years gone by were told and suggestions made how the work of the United Evangelical Church may be made more effective. Others present were: Mrs. U. F. Swengel, U. Clark Swengel, Miss A. C. Swengel, Mrs. A. W. Swengel, Mrs. M. A. Buck and Miss Mildred Edley. Bishop W. H. Fouke, colleague of Bishop Swengel, sent a congratulatory letter, in which he expressed regret for unavoidable absence.

Shower As a Track Meet For Pretty Bride-Elect

Miss Isabelle Adrian Ryder, whose marriage to Donald Carpenter, of Indianapolis, will be an event of the early spring, was honor guest at a shower given by Mrs. Samuel Fackler and her sister, Miss Dorothy Chubbuck, at the Fackler residence, 1332 Derry street.

The program of entertainment was cleverly arranged as a track meet, each event bringing with it appropriate gifts for the bride-elect. Linen was hemmed and supper followed.

ENTERTAIN L'ALIGLON CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Long, of Bridge street, New Cumberland, delightfully entertained the L'Aliglon club of Carlisle, at a dinner Saturday evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. John Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frederick, Mrs. Archie Long and little son, Robert. It was also the eleventh wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Long, and was altogether an enjoyable occasion.

MRS. BRUMBAUGH HOSTESS TO CLUB

Entertains Party of Philadelphia Women Today at the Executive Mansion

Over twenty members of a Philadelphia Reading Club, of which Mrs. Martin G. Brumbaugh is a member, were delightfully entertained by her at the Executive Mansion to-day, following a visit to the Capitol and an automobile drive over the city and up the beautiful river road.

Luncheon was served in the state dining room with appointments of yellow, daffodils prevailing in the artistic arrangement of spring flowers.

The club is studying Shakespeare this year and after luncheon there were readings and an interesting discussion of "Hamlet," in which the mistress of the mansion took a prominent part.

The party included: Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Byler, Mrs. Crandall, Mrs. Coover, Mrs. Chickering, Mrs. Gay, Mrs. Gracey, Mrs. Gresimer, Mrs. Huriburt, Mrs. Hoar, Mrs. Jobson, Mrs. Kendig, Miss Kirk, Miss Montgomery, Miss Phillips, Miss Platt, Mrs. Little, Mrs. Newcomb, Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. Sartain, Mrs. Scarlett, Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Wheeler.

Meet Mr. and Mrs. Woods Most Informally at Tea

The Bishop of Harrisburg and Mrs. James Henry Darlington invited some friends to meet Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus E. Woods informally at tea yesterday afternoon, at their residence, 321 North Front street, following a lecture given before the Civic Club by Mr. Woods.

The tea table set in the wonderfully attractive baronial hall of the See House was presided over by Mrs. William Henderson and Mrs. John W. Reilly, assisted by Miss Myrvinne Lenson and Miss Eleanor Darlington. Pale tulips were used in decorating.

Little Miss Gaffney Has a Birthday Party

Miss Elizabeth Gaffney was given a delightful birthday party at her home, 1150 Mulberry street, by her mother, Mrs. James P. Gaffney, Saturday afternoon in celebration of her tenth birthday.

The little guests enjoyed music and games. Prizes for the peanut hunt were awarded to Paul Wiesman, Alice Derrickson, Dorothy La Tour and Frederic Martin. The prize winners in the donkey game were Paul Wiesman, Helena Martin, Margaret Gaffney and Frederic Martin.

MRS. FORDNEY'S BIRTHDAY IS HAPPILY CELEBRATED

A birthday surprise was given Mrs. John Fordney, at her home, 1670 Green street, on Monday, February 19. The decorations were pink and yellow with roses and ferns. The centerpiece was fruit piled high, topped with a miniature cherry tree.

Takes a Prominent Part In "The Pied Piper"

MISS GERTRUDE WILSON

Miss Gertrude Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harris B. Wilson, 934 North Second street, and a freshman of State College, where she is taking a course in Domestic Arts and Sciences, was prominently identified with a college play Saturday evening. Students of the college, under the direction of the Y. W. C. A. and the T. M. C. A., presented Josephine Preston Peabody's prize play, "The Piper," in the college auditorium to a capacity audience, so enthusiastic at times that it seemed almost impossible for the characters to go on with their parts.

Miss Wilson, who took the part of "Barbara," daughter of Jacobus of Hameln town, was in the limelight once before when last year she played the leading part in the Central High Senior class play of Julius Caesar.

MEN'S CLASS SUPPER

"Our Inheritance as Lutheran Men" is the subject selected by the Rev. George M. Diefenderfer, Carlisle, for his address this evening at the joint supper of the Men's Organized Bible Class and Men of Zion Lutheran Church. All indications show this gathering of men to be the biggest and best of the many social functions. An interesting program has been arranged.

P. G. Diener, of Market street, left to-day for a business trip to Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. Sidney Furst, of Lock Haven, is visiting Mrs. George B. Kunkel, of Locust street.

Mrs. William T. Fegley, of Chicago, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Moses, 717 North Second street.

Mrs. Charles G. Beck, 1503 Swatara street, entertained her Sunday school class in the Christ Lutheran Church with music and refreshments, last evening.

Mrs. Harry W. Elder, of 1210 Walnut street, is home after a visit with her husband, who is in business in the western part of the State.

Mrs. Frank S. Weltmer, of 1218 Walnut street, who underwent an operation at the Polyclinic Hospital last Thursday, is making a good recovery.

Miss Carrie Holland and Miss Merle Stipe, of Royalton, were week-end guests of Miss Miriam Heilmann, of York, Pa.

Mrs. John Allen Davis, of Fairbanks, Alaska, was a recent guest of her aunt, Mrs. John C. Stine, at the Reynard, North Third street.

Mrs. William Jennings, of South Front street, was called to New Jersey yesterday by the illness of her son, Edward Jennings, a student of Peddie Institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Leib and Miss Marian Leib, of The Terraces, New Cumberland, are home after a pleasure trip to Philadelphia, where they registered at the Bellevue-Stratford.

Mrs. Pennock, of Kennett Square, is visiting at the home of her son, Richard M. Pennock, 227 North Second street.

Mrs. Harry B. Cann and children, of Detroit, Mich., are guests of Mrs. John H. Weiss, 225 North Front street.

WOMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD OF Y. M. C. A. HOLDS MEETING

Mrs. Meade D. Detweiler, secretary of the Woman's Advisory Board of the Y. M. C. A., presented an interesting report at the annual meeting held yesterday at the association. Tributes were paid to Mrs. Gilbert M. McCauley, president of the Board for many years who died in 1915, and to Miss Anna C. Weir, Mrs. E. Z. Wallower and Mrs. Charles B. Fager, who died during the past year. The present officers are Mrs. Paul A. Kunkel, president; Mrs. Edwin S. Herman, first vice-president; Mrs. George Kunkel, second vice-president; Mrs. S. W. Herman, treasurer and Mrs. Meade D. Detweiler, secretary.

The society now has eighty-five members. The Board also expressed its appreciation of the many kindnesses shown it by Homer Black, who has declined re-election to the general secretaryship of the association.

Following the business, tea was served with Mrs. A. J. Herr presiding over the tea.
