Take Game Last Night From Methodist Tossers; West End Winner

The Rosewood A. C. five humbled the Methodist Club five and the West End A. C. team defeated the Y. M. H. A. quintet in two fast City Amateur contests played last night on the Arcontests played last night on the Armory floor. The former was victorious by the score of 39 to 21, while the latter came out at the long end of a 26 to 14 tally. Superior team work was the feature of the Rosewood five's play and by winning the contest it strengthened its hold on first place. The Y. M. H. A. team played way below standard and Boss scored every point for that team. The summaries:

Jasper line-up and a great game is looked for, as the locals have struck their stride and are traveling at a fast pace.

The Jasper line-up will include Marty Freidman and Barney Sedran, who are considered to be the best pair of dribblers in the game to-day. Leonard, who is filling Dave Kerr's place at center, is a New York State League player and fills in with the Jasper style of play very well, and Jack Fox, the bigguard will also be in the line-up for Saturday's game.

Shooters and spectators at yester day's shoot found much interest in the activities of Harry B. Shoop. He is one of the local crack shots who has T.P. been a big factor in putting Harris-burs on the shooting map. "Shoopy," to sake is known, was not entered in the contest. He is a target star. How ever, he never misses a shoot and lends a hand in any way possible.

Yesterday he was the official scorer and those who know what a live bird onlishoot is realize that he had a strenuous day. Tramping in mud almost to shoe top this scorer tramped up and down the field getting the scores from the several trap referees. His little for eap attracted much attention.

When the shoot was over at sundown to kicking. That he is a valuable man is the general opinion.

FAST BASKETBALL TONIGHT'S BILL

Eastern League Champs Com- Tech and Academy Fives Meet at Armory; Hassett Clashes With St. Francis College

Two scholastic basketball contests will be the bill dished out to the bas-ketball fans of Harrisburg tonight. Technical High school five will meet pasketball players, prohibiting playing of games with other teams, do not affect the games here. They cover in-dividuals who play with outside teams the Harrisburg Academy quintet, on the Armory floor and the Hassett club under assumed names. Teams are five will clash with the St. Francis College combination, on the Cathedral hall floor.

The meeting between the Technical High school and the Academy lads will be the second of the season, and in will play the Independents.

At was some shoot yesterday. G., wellington Hepler, the local crack shot, who looks after the birds, had the best lot of flyers ever offered in this city. The only disappointment was in the attendance. This was due to the fact that there were shoots in other parts of the State. This ought not to happen on February 22 with regularly organized clubs and members of the Interstate Association. Harrisburg has held State Live Bird Championship shoots for 30 years and ought to have the preference.

The will have to part with it soon for a new cup. The old trophy that has been going the rounds for 27 years will go to some shooter permanently will go to some shooter permanently him factor. On the cup will be engaged the scores of every State shoot by the Harrisburg Sportsmen's association.

Shooters and spectators who attended yesterday's shoot at Second and Division streets, had to travel through a lake of mud. Weather conditions made it nasty for walking. However, a general opinion prevailed that it would have been a small task to provide a cinder path from Second street to the clubhouse.

Charley Hummer, who won yesterday's championship at live birds, is one of the best known shooters in the State. He is not always a big winner, but he is in the shooting business for the sport and no matter what happens, goes home with a smile. He went home yesterday with the old Härrisburg trophy, and a big smile.

Miller, who bowls with the Independents of the Boyd Memorial League is coming to the front with some big scores. He was high man yesterday, bowling 176 in two games and having a total of 510.

Lieutenant Jonas H. Ingram has been retained as head coach at the Naval Academy. He will have full charge of the football team and hopes to give the Middles another winning.

Charles Shorten, the centerfielder who was with Newark and later was sent to Boston, will get a substantial increase of salary this season. He was not a holdout. He asked for what had been promised him and will get it.

ut he is in the shooting business for he sport and no matter what happens, oes home with a smile. He went ome yesterday with the old Harrisurg trophy, and a big smile.

The trophy is a priceless relic and the following Academy will battle for local honors at the Armory.

TO KEEP WELL EAT PLENTY OF "ROUGHAGE"

TO KEEP WELL EAT PLENTY OF "ROUGHAGE"

In the American Magazine Dr. Arthur R. Reynolds says:
"Roughage should form a part of every meal and the quantity should be sufficient to accomplish its purpose; naturally some people require more than others. Its use should begin in child life and continue to the end of old age.
"These elemental facts should be drilled into the mind of every child until they are understood. It is a more important item of education than the multiplication table, and one that is wholly neglected. Substantially, no one grows to maturity with any actual knowledge of the functions of the intestines or how they should be treated. The rule herein laid down, to eat roughage and plenty of it, will do the work, and just as surely as the sun will rise in the morning it will imp-prove the complexion, improve the health, overcome a universal physical fault that is the basic cause of bad complexion, as well as of other and innumerable ills.
"We must get back to first principles and eat food as nature presents it and as nature intended we should eat it. Then we can throw physic to the dogs and the desert of the human complexion will blossom as the rose."
