County Commissioners Hold Taylor Matter Open

Although counsel for Jury Commissioner Samuel M. Taylor has notified County Solicitor Philip S. Moyer that he has a check for $8 refund to the county, county commissioners to-day said that handing back the money would not be considered an answer to their request of last month, asking Taylor to appear before them.

Nothing will be done, it was said to-day, until the jury commissioners appear before the commissioners.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't cat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

Herewith we announce the arrival of another spring.
The landscape may be gray with snow or bleak with leafless trees that stand outlined against a slate-colored sky.
The wind may have a Hop upon its Fast One attached to the sting of a virile young hornet.
It may be snowing or blowing, or both. These things have nothing whatsoever to do with the case.
For spring has came. It arrived with the announcement that sundry ball clubs were mobilizing and pointing in the general direction of the pink-tinted South—
In Dixle land to take their stand And slam the pill to beat the band,

DIXTEN BY DOG

In Dixie land to take their stand
And slam the pill to beat the band,
To loosen up long-frosted wings
With infield pegs and outfield flings,
Where "Coming Cobbs" are after jobs
And budding stars are thick,
But where, by May, they fade away
To let the Old Boys stick.

In Dixie land they're praised and panned, And some are held and some are canned, Where agile scribes evolve new curves With phantom dips and mystic swerves, Where one and all land on the ball And play a jam-up game, But where, by June, in Saskatoon They've faded from the frame.

They've faded from the frame.

With major league ball clubs headed South, spring can be officially written across the face of the calendar. These lines are its official heralds—"Marquard takes it easy, but says the old arm feels great"; "Rixey expects to pitch the game of his life"; "Eddie Collins faster than ever around the old bag"; "Daye Robertson faster than ever before."

Advance Dope
Advance dope, with its usual elasticity, is already beginning to swarm across the borders of the sporting page.

In the National League it is now a question of "Who'll beat out the Giants."

In the American League the main query is, "Can the Red Sox get by again?" McGraw not only has the strongest ball club on paper. Last fall, in the five closing weeks, he had by all odds the strongest ball club on the field. Until the collapse came at the finish he had a club able to run roughshod over all opposition—the main answer being twenty-six straight. The main tangle is that last May the Giants won seventeen straight on the road and then flopped from within a game of the peak to sixth place. They were the most erratic ball club that ever took the field. In two forced marches they put away forty-three victories without a defeat—and then couldr't finish any better than fourth. They ought to win—but there's a bale of temperament attached to the club and temperament is always beyond the border of the dope. But temperament also means human interest, at times, and the Giants, win or lose, are going to be almost as interesting a machine as the old Cubs.

The Red Sox Outlook

The Red Sox Degan their campaign of frightfulness in 1912. They skidded in 1913 and 1914, but, in 1915 and '16 they returned again with both barrels loaded.

The one chance for them to be stopped is a physical decay that was not in 1913 and 1914, but in 1915 and '16 they returned again with both barrels loaded.

The one chance for them to be stopped is a physical decay that was not apparent to the naked orb last year. With Speaker sold before the season opened, with Joe Wood missing, with Shora and Leonard in poor early season form, with Jack Barry hors du second base on through the stretch—they cut their way to the peak and remained there at the finish.

What have the Red Sox got? Nothing but a world of pitching strength, plenty of baseball brains and experience, a good fielding club with a scattering of dangerous hitters and an undue amount of pluck and stamina. That's about all.

They have been in three world series within five years and have ween sell.

of dangerous litters and an undue amount of pluck and stamina. That's about all.

They have been in three world series within five years and have won all three. Unless Jack Barry falls down as a leader—which he shouldn't do—the Red Sox will be hard to oust. This may be their last big year, for Hooper, Lewis, Hobby, Gardner and Barry, five of their stars, are no longer mere kids. The main answer here will be Ruth, Leonard, Mays and Shore. If these four pitchers are right the greater part of the year, there is undoubtedly enough left in the old machine to win again.

The Cubs won four years out of five; the Mackmen also won four out of five starts. A Red Sox victory for 1917 would bring their mark up to four out of six. But the Red Sox face this barrier—Tigers, Yankees, White Sox, Browns and Indians—meaning Detroit, New York, Chicago, St. Louis and Cleveland. All possess unusual strength. From five strong clubs there is always the chance that one will get going and pick enough luck to upset the advance debate.

The Pre-Season Tip

advance debate.

The Pre-Season Tip

If the two pennant races were to be awarded as the clubs start South, one could figure fairly well that the first world series game would find Messrs. Schupp and Ruth engaged in the opening carnival. The Giants have a better chance to win in the National than the Red Sox have in the American.

The Giants have unusual speed and power, and with only average pitching should get back to the perch from which they were finally dislodged four years ago.

should get back to the perch from which they were finally dislodged four years ago.

There isn't a weak Giant member on the attack. Take a brief peep at the batting lineup—Burns, Kauff, Robertson, Herzog, Zimmerman, Fletcher, Holke and McCarty.

Every man here can hit the ball, and at least five of the eight are extremely fast. Mixed up with this speed and power is an unusual amount of progressiveness, a certain result of any McGraw-Herzog combination. With this machine under way McGraw only needs average pitching from Schupp, Tesreau, Benton, Perritt and the others. Given that, his club will be safely ensconced in the clover before mid-September.

ered beyond stage adaptation.

For the past year "Civilization" has been running in New York and Chicago, where it was received with the heartist acclaim.

The scenario of the drama was written by C. Gardner Sullivan. To provide proper music setting for the scenes of "Civilization," Victor L. Schertzinger, a composer who had extensive experience with moving pictures, has been selected to write a complete score to parallel in musical themes the dominant theme of the story. There will be a special matinee Saturday morning for the school children, at which they will be admitted at greatly reduced prices. Also a 2 o'clock matinee in the afternoon.

"Redeeming Love," is a powerful drana, relating the story of a country girl, whose beauty fascinates a gambler who comes to her town to rest. She fails in love with him and finally goes to the city, where she plunges into the life of a gambler, becomes so imbued with the spirit of the gamester that the getting of money becomes her only religion in life. She is later redeemed by the love of the spirit of the gamester that the getting of money becomes her only religion in life. To have "lots of ginger," your system must supply your nerves with all the elements of nutrition to make them strong and vital, so that the mind or spirit also can be sustained by nervous force.

No one can be happy with a toothache, yet a toothache is just a suffering nerve. Doesn't that prove that the nerves control the pleasures and happiness of your existence? Starved nerves result in many illnesses, much gloom and little pleasure for the possessor.
