ANNUAL MEETING | ELOQUENT TALK INDUSTRIAL HOME

Officers Elected and Anniversary Exercises With Interesting Exhibits by Children

The following officers were elected this morning at the annual meeting of the Children's Industrial Home: President, Mrs. Charles B. Rettew; vice-presidents, Mrs. Edward Boyer, Mrs. Catherine Milhouse, Mrs. Samuel A. Watts, Mrs. Edwin S. Herman; recording secretary, Miss Emma Bross; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mercer B. Tate; treasurer, Miss Agnes Fellx. This afternoon anniversary exercises were held with a brief program, including singing, devotional services, led by the Rev. Mr. Leinbach, a talk by the Rev. Dr. Lewis S. Mudge, song by Mrs. Joseph A. Hayes, songs and recitations by the children of the home.

The treasurer, Miss Agnes Fellx, showed a balance of $89.48 in the treasury after expenses amounting to $96.54 had been paid. Both the state and the county have helped in the expenses of the home, which are necessarily heavy, and many private contributions have been received. The board of managers asks for a large membership at one dollar each, as well as other contributions.

Report of Secretary

As we look back over the past year's work of the Children's Industrial Home, we find few changes and that it differs very little from that of former years.

Mrs. Rettew, our much-beloved president of the board of managers, has conducted its affairs in a most efficient manner, and the attendance of the members of the board hilve shown great interest in the work of the home.

Mrs. Leyton, the matron, directs the work of the assistants and the children in a very capable manner.

Mrs. Brubaker, whom the children dearly love, continues her excellent work in the Sunday school.

Miss Segelbaum and her assistants are doing axcellent work in the sendal work in the school.

Taylor Twins Celebrate Fourteenth Birthday

Edward and Albert Taylor, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Taylor, who celebrate their birthdays the same day that the "Father of His Country's" is celebrated by the American patriots, gave a party yesterday at their home, 2307 North Fifth street in celebration of the double event.

The guests included their Boy Scout friends and Headmaster Edward Manser. Games and contests were enjoyed and prizes for progressive angling awarded to Edward Taylor and Charles Thompson. Refreshments were served to: Jack Glazier, Edward Hawes, Percy Walker, Robert Walker, Lindsay Webster and Charles Thompson.

Mrs. Christ Gingrich and children, of Lawn, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Stauffer, of 2113 Green street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smith have removed from 312 North Second street to 2227 Penn street.
Mrs. H. C. Stover, of 231 South Thirteenth street, has gone to Florida for an extended visit.
Miss Midred Schradley, of Highspire, will spend the week-end at her home, 747 South Nineteenth street.

America Will Lead World at Close of War-but What Will Lead America?"

Never in the history of Harrisburg Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, has there been a more enthusiastic gathering and finer program for a Washington's Birthday celebration than that of yesterday afternoon in assembly hall of the Y. M. C. A. A large portrait of the "Father of His Country" hung back of the platform with just below, a pedestal draped with the American flag and bearing a huge white basket of calla

The donation of Laster eggs from the public schools was very large, the Hummelstown and Oberlin schools also remembered us most generously.

The usual Thanksgiving donation from the public schools was received, and from many friends a large supply of canned fruit and jelles.

This year the Christmas donation from many friends was the largest ever received in the history of the Home, for which we are very thankful.

Owing to the number of cases of infantile paralysis during the summer, the annual outing of the children to Hershey Park was not held last year.

Our many thanks are also due to many kind friends who contributed in numerous ways to the welfare of our Home and its children.

Thankful to our Heavenly Father for His many mercles, we enter upon another year, with unbounded faith and love that this, His work, shall be a continued success."

Respectfully submitted, MARY DUNBAR TATE, Corresponding Secretary.

Mr. Hanson emphasized the need of a bigser, broader patriotism which would be international as well as national.

"America will undoubtedly lead the world when the guns are stacked and this hideous war comes to an end," he said, "but the question in my mind is, "What will lead America?" Emmigrants are coming to us at the rate of a million a year; people from these countries now in the strife. We must prove ourselves big enough to pass over prejudice, to pity enough to forget animosity."

He took his audience step by step through the years which made the America of to-day showing always the great part played by Pennsylvania.

"She has never failed the nation. It was her money, her blood and her brains which have saved the United States more than once and turned the scale," was his proud announcement. The "Spirit of '76," which made a youth of twenty cry from the scaffold, "My only regret is that I have only one life to give to my country." is the spirit of 1917 in Dr. Hanson's opinion but more still is needed. America's first President was an Englishman, his right hand helpers were Frenchmen Over and over again it has been the foreigner among us who has given of his strength, and our country has gladly accepted. Into the great melting pot of all nationalities American patriotism should sink to rise again refined, stronger and bigger and truer as befus people of the greatest nation in the world.

A vein of delicious humor running through his address relieved it of being too serious yet did not detract from its force and power."

Tea and Social Hour

Following the program which closed with singing "The Star Spangled Banner," tea was served with Mrs. William Elder Balley, hostess, Mrs. Henry McCormick poured chocolate and Mrs. George Douglass Ramsay presided over the teacups. Little flags and quaint figures decorated the table. Assisting were Mrs. George Preston Mains, Miss Helen Bruce Wallace, Mrs.
