

5,000 RECEIVE CARLISLE BOYS

Great Reception Tendered Co. S., Eight Regiment, on Return From Texas

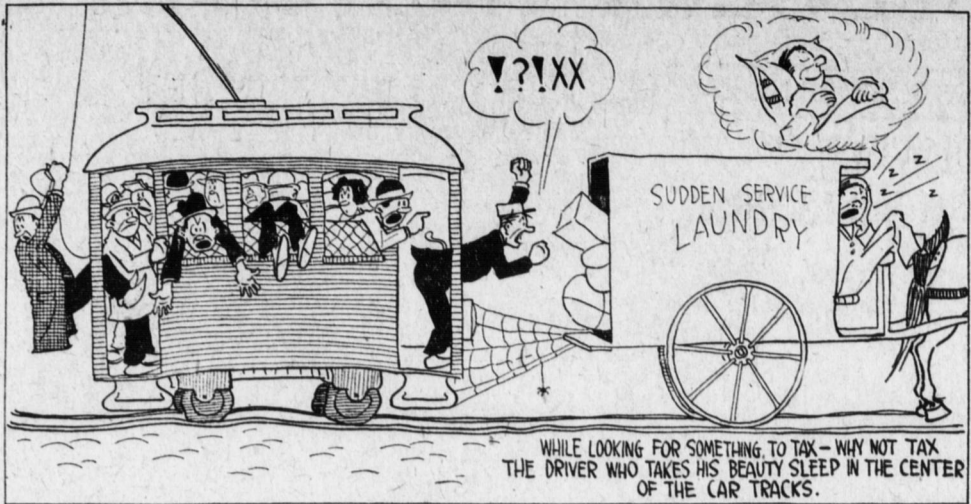

Carlisle, Pa., Feb. 26.—After interest had been kept at an intense pitch from early morning through a series of conflicting reports, over 5,000 persons, resident of Carlisle and the county nearby, turned out last evening to tender a reception to the members of Company G and other men from this place in the Eighth Regiment after their return from the border after ten months' service. After the reception the members spent the night at home.

From Wheel Chair, Mayor Watches Troops Go By

Despite his serious illness with organic heart disease, Mayor E. S. Meals yesterday insisted upon being wheeled to the window of his home at Third and North streets to review the passing of the home-coming guardsmen. Henderson Gilbert, chief marshal of the parade, spied the Mayor at the window and waved a salute. His action was followed by the various organizations and the United Spanish War Veterans doffed their hats as a mark of respect.

Col. Finney Wants Band Located in Harrisburg

One of the first orders from Colonel Maurice E. Finney, of the Eighth Regiment will be to recruit each of the local companies up to the full strength. There is room for a number of recruits. He is also on the lookout for a good bandmaster. The Eighth Regiment Band will be located in Harrisburg in the near future. Since called to service at the border, numerous changes have been made in the band, and Carlisle is represented by only a few members. Colonel Finney wants a band in this city.

The Returning Guardsmen

Mark them well from your curbstone— They've been men of the Out 'o Doors! They've lived in the sand by the Rio Grande, Where the viscous vulture soars!

We Shallow Skins, Shrimps, We Flatfishes, Well may we cheer—You and I! God thanks not a one had to look in a gun, Yet they went out to fight—and to die!

Look well at those bronzed, fearless faces! Marks made by a murderous sun While drilling away in the dead heat of day— Do you think that it's been much fun?

Perhaps the job that you're holding Belonged to that big sergeant there; He gave up his all at his country's first call— But, say, do you think it's been fair? So cowards can live in their smugness, Should brave men go out—and to die? Or might it be fit that each man do his bit To keep the Old Flag waving high!

Regimental Supplies Are Put in Storehouses

Four machine guns are a part of the new organization known as the machine gun company. Captain Ralph C. Crow is in command. Four guns were unloaded yesterday morning. They will be stored at Lemoyne for the present. It was necessary to open the cars in front to get the machine guns out and then carry them to the platform. This required an hour's work.

Details from the supply company to-day unloaded 27 wagons and stored them in the old Brandt warehouse at State Street and the Pennsylvania railroad.

SETTLE HALF OF CIVIL COURT LIST

Litigants Withdraw in Fifteen Cases Scheduled For Jury Trials

Fifteen of the thirty cases listed for the special session of Common Pleas Court, which opened this morning, have been settled, continued for cause or by consent of counsel. Of this first ten on the list, which were to be heard to-day, one was held over until Wednesday, three settled, one nonsuited, and four continued.

The only case heard was in Court-room No. 2, and was not defended. William H. Spangler was the plaintiff, charging that his furniture was damaged to the extent of $70.06 in an automobile accident when a chauffeur employed by Samuel B. Reed, this city, lost control of the truck being used to haul the household goods from Palmyra to this city. The jury awarded the damages without leaving the jury box.

In calling the jury list it was found that one juror was dead, and three could not be located by the sheriff. Grants Charter.—The charter for the Christ Home, to be conducted by the Methodist Church, was granted this morning by the Dauphin County Court. No location has been selected for the home, which will be conducted by Methodist churches in the Central Pennsylvania conference.

Probate Will.—The will of Mary Fauber, late of Elizabethville, was probated to-day, and letters issued by Register Roy C. Danner, to Charles and Edward Eitzweiler.

Fifteen Dead, Fifteen Hurt in Big Blizzard

Boise, Idaho, Feb. 26.—With all of Southern Idaho in the grip of one of the worst storms of the winter, attempts at recovering the six undiscovered bodies of the fifteen men who lost their lives Sunday in the snow slide at the North Star mine near Hatley have been abandoned. All fifteen of the injured, three of whom may die, are in hospitals and the nine bodies recovered will be taken to Hatley to-day if the storm abates. The heavy wet snow, which was still falling over most of the State to-day increases the danger of new slides.
