Take Porches: many of you have seen a porch where the earth or sidewalk bumps right up against it, and it will rot off in two or three years. Instead of sticking the porch down in the soil where moisture will attack the grain, the lumber should be put upon a foundation where there is good ventilation.

LEGAL TANGLE ON LETTER EVIDENCE

Effort to Present Missives Results in Debate in Damage Suit Trial

Legal argument of letters as evidence in a damage suit, held up hearing of witnesses today in courtroom No. 2, before Judge Samuel J. M. McCarrill, in the case of Mrs. Hattie S. Brainard vs. the United Commercial Travelers of America. Authorities on court rulings were quoted at length by William M. Hargest, counsel for the plaintiff. Counsel for the Commercial Travelers were Charles H. Bernger, this city, and John A. Miller, Columbus, Ohio.

The claim was for $6,300 insurance because of an accident which happened in 1913. Mrs. Brainard's husband, it is claimed, stepped from a train at Berlin Junction, sustaining injuries which resulted in his death. Other out-of-town witnesses included Dr. C. M. Taylor, of the Commercial Travelers, and Dr. Herbert Williamson, pathologist at the University of Buffalo.

In courtroom No. 1, the suit of Ralph Kunkel against Howard H. Schorler for damages to the former's automobile, was heard today. Only one more case remains on the Common Pleas list and will be heard tomorrow.

J. H. Knouse, of Knouse and Knouse, druggists, was awarded six cents nominal damages in a suit against J. Nelson Clark, charging the latter with not carrying out a contract to furnish 200 ounces of quinine. The verdict was a sealed one, and was opened this morning.

Issue Letters.—Letters testamentary in the estate of Ephraim E. Schaeffer, deceased, were issued to Monroe B. Scheffer, a brother.

Cuts Bonus Award.—Judge McCarrill in an opinion late yesterday, reduced the bonus awarded from the United Cigar Stores to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, from $581.58 to $444.63, with interest from December. Months ago the State brought suit for the legal bonus allowance of one-third of one per cent of capital invested in Pennsylvania by foreign corporations. This was granted, ex-ceptions overruled and an award made. It was found later that cash money deposited in banks had been included when the amount was fixed, which should not have been done, Judge McCarrill ruled.

TO INSPECT APPARATUS City Commissioners William H. Lynch, E. Z. Gross, Fire Chief John C. Kinder and City Mechanician Raymond V. MacNeil will leave early tomorrow morning for Bayonne, N. J., and Philadelphia, to inspect first apparatus in those cities. On Friday night the officials will leave to Elmira, N. Y., to go through the plant of the American-LaFrance Company.

Organization Republican Wins Coatesville Mayoralty

Coatesville, Pa., Feb. 28.—Albert H. Swing, former postmaster and Organization Republican, defeated the Rev. T. W. McKinney, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, for the mayoralty on a non-partisan ticket, at a special election here yesterday by 155 majority. Mr. Swing, carried six out of nine precincts, his big lead being in the Seventh, Eighth and Ninth Precincts, sections where the men employed in the Midvale Works reside.

The contest became interesting because the mill interests became interested. The Lukens Iron and Steel Company, whose needs have always favored temperance, became active, and the announcement of C. L. Huston that he would support Mr. McKinney caused friends of Mr. Swing to get the Midvale firm agitated, although H. L. Schorler, general manager of the Midvale, was not observed to be actively engaged in the contest.

The "wets" are claiming a big victory here, although Mr. Swing lays no claim to the hotelmen supporting him, because he signed the remonstrance against the hotels a few years ago. It was a case with the hotelmen supporting almost any one against the minister.

With the vote that Mr. McKinney received—773—the "drys" believe they received a vote indicating the sentiment for the temperance advocates. Mr. Swing received a total of 923 votes. Mr. Swing will take his seat the first Monday in March.

Military Association to Hear of Border Life The Harrisburg Military Association will convene at 8 o'clock this evening at the University Club for a special Wednesday evening session. Lieutenant Henry M. Gross, of the Eighth Pennsylvania will relate some of his experiences on the border and will also give instructive information on the commissary department, with which he is especially familiar. When the National Guard of Pennsylvania was mustered into the Federal service at Mt. Gretna last summer, Mr. Gross became commissary sergeant for the Eighth regiment, and while on the border was transferred as second lieutenant in the machine gun company attached to the regiment.

Acting Captain Walter Johnston urges a large attendance at this special meeting. After the talk there will be a quiz on the infantry drill regulations.

Derailed Trolley Car Holds Back Traffic

Traffic in Second street was held up for an hour this morning when a northbound Second street trolley car jumped the track at Walnut street and crashed into a pole supporting the awning over the entrance to Rose's store. No one was injured. The rear truck of the car was about to pass over the switch when a flange cracked, causing it to leave the rails. Sam Klumpus, newsboy, who was standing on the corner was nearly hit by the falling pole.

Pottsville Miss Prescribed For Dad When He Had Pneumonia

"Rub Daddy with Vick's 'Cause It Made Me Better, and It Will Make Him Better, Too," Said Little Emma Kienzle.

MR. KIENZLE IS WELL NOW. When Mr. C. F. Kienzle, 811 Laurel St., Pottsville, Pa., was stricken with typhoid pneumonia, his little daughter immediately recommended the remedy that always relieved her colds. Her advice was good, for Mrs. Kienzle writes—"The doctor had little hopes for him but I kept right on using Vick's and the pneumonia was broken."

When Vick's VapoRub Salve was first introduced from the South, Schneider's Pharmacy presented Mrs. Kienzle with a jar, and requested that she give it a thorough trial. Mrs. Kienzle reported—"At that time my little girl was suffering with a severe cold. Her head was closed and she could not put her to bed I rubbed her chest and throat with a good thick application, and in the morning there was no trace of a cold."

Mothers will find Vick's VapoRub Salve a sure enough "Bodyguard in the home." Three sizes, 25c, 50c or $1.00.
