ANOTHER SCHOOL FOR MT. UNION

Town Growing So Rapidly That New Building Is Planned For Near Future

Mt. Union, Pa., March 1.—Although Mt. Union has just completed a $50,000 school building, the hustling borough will be compelled to build another one. This time a much larger amount will be expended. The present grade building is nearing a point where it cannot be used and with the rapid growth of the town provision will have to be made to accommodate about 1,000 pupils.

Halifax P. O. S. of A. Will Try to Get New Orphanage

Halifax, Pa., March 1.—Halifax is making a big effort to secure the next P. O. S. of A. orphanage, which will shortly be erected in Pennsylvania. At a meeting of Washington Camp No. 576 on Tuesday evening a resolution was passed urging every member to do his utmost to have a site near town selected. The P. O. S. of A. has a membership of nearly 120,000 in this State.

MISFORTUNES FOLLOW QUICKLY

Sunbury, Pa., March 1.—The rule of three strangely followed itself at the home of H. F. Clemmer, a Sunbury business man. First his daughter, H. Ruth Clemmer, was taken ill of an undetermined disease and died. Then his father-in-law, Levi Bachman, 75 years old, of Allentown, was stricken ill after he came here to attend the funeral, and died of heart disease. Today, a niece, Miss Florence Kenny, was taken ill with appendicitis.

MRS. WILLIAM MURPHY DIES

Dillsburg, Pa., March 1.—Mrs. William Murphy, wife of a well-known farmer in Carroll township, died at her home Monday evening, about 9 o'clock. She had undergone a serious operation at the Harrisburg Hospital last summer and never became strong. She was 48 years old. The funeral was held from the home this morning. The body was taken to Dover by team and burial was made in the cemetery at the Salem Church. The Rev. George Ewiler, assisted by the pastor of Salem Church, had charge of the services.

TO LIGHT HOTEL AND COTTAGES

Waynesboro, Pa., March 1.—Waynesboro will furnish light for the Buena Vista Springs hotel and surrounding cottages this season and hereafter, the old acetylene system having been thrown into the discard. The improved lighting equipment will include the large hotel, the garage, the test room on Monterey avenue, and four cottages belonging to Colonel George K. McGaw, of Baltimore. Current will be furnished by the Waynesboro Electric Light and Power Company.

NO ACTION ON FARM AGENT

Carlisle, Pa., March 1.—Asking one week to consider the financial question and the sentiment throughout the county, the members of the Board of County Commissioners postponed action on the request of the Board of Directors of the recently formed Cumberland County Farm Bureau Association for a $1,200 appropriation for the expenses of a farm agent during the coming year. Headed by T. A. Gathers, the president, the directors presented a petition signed by a number of prominent landowners asking this action. Mr. Carothers and County Superintendent J. Kelso Green spoke in favor of the plan.

There will be a parade of Company M and the following other organizations: The Veterans of the Spanish-American war, the Grand Army of the Republic, the Patriotic Order Sons of America and the fire department. Speeches will be made by prominent citizens and bronze medals will be presented to each member of Company M, by Burgess Leopold, after which the soldiers will be banqueted.

Romance of School Days Ends in Hagerstown Manse

Carlisle, Pa., March 1.—Friends here were surprised to learn today of the romantic end of a schooltime friendship, when they were informed that John P. Gillespie, a member of the class of 1913 at the Dickinson School of Law, and Miss Verna Erdman had been married Monday at Hagerstown. Both are from Shamokin, and attended the high school together. Miss Erdman is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Erdman, and came here last Friday to attend a week-end house party held by the Sigma Chi fraternity, following which the young couple left for Hagerstown. Edgar Thompson, of Carlisle, and Miss Margaret Francis, of Shamokin, were attendants.

Co. G Mustered Out of Federal Service at Carlisle

Carlisle, Pa., March 1.—With a long cheer the members of Company G, Eighth Pennsylvania Infantry, at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon greeted the announcement by Lieutenant O. H. Saunders, United States Army officer, that they were formally mustered out of the Federal service. The men expect to be paid within a few days. To-night a monster testimonial dinner will be held under the auspices of the Carlisle Chamber of Commerce for the men from Carlisle in all organizations and for their wives and sweethearts. The lodges of Eagles and Owls will also hold banquets, as will the Carlisle Band for enlisted members and various private individuals. A big social event will be a dance held next Tuesday evening by the Lotos Club, an organization of the younger men in honor of its members who were in the service.

Frightened Doe Jumps Into Chicken Yard Near Pen Mar

Waynesboro, Pa., March 1.—A large doe deer, bleeding at the mouth and fagged, as if run hard by dogs, jumped over the gate of the chicken yard of School Director John A. Johnston, fruit grower, near Pen-Mar Park, shortly before noon Tuesday. The animal rested for a little while and then endeavored to find its way out. It repeatedly tried to leap over the wire fence around the yard, but the strands were too high. It jumped against the gate with such force that Mr. Johnston was afraid that the doe would break her neck. Finally, Mr. Johnston drove the animal toward the gate over which it had entered the yard, and it went over it with a great bound and raced into the mountains.

Cadillac

Ruskin once said that the value of a horse was in your ability to bridle him;—hands-high and pounds—weight are secondary.

The value of an automobile is measured by its ability to deliver satisfaction, service and long life. All other considerations are secondary.

Measured by this standard the Cadillac is the most valuable automobile built today.
