U. E. CONFERENCE OPENS SESSIONS

Delegates at East Prospect, York County, For Annual Business of Church

East Prospect, Pa., March 2. — On Wednesday the third session of the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the United Evangelical Church held several services preliminary to the formal opening yesterday.

The conference is meeting in East Prospect, a York county village, six miles from Wrightsville, the nearest railroad point. The roads being at almost impassable and the falling snow making them continually worse, it was with difficulty that the ministers reached the seat of the conference.

Examinations in church polity, history, philosophy, theology and composition were held during the day and were conducted by a board of examiners composed of twenty-five ministers.

There presented themselves as applicants for license to preach the Gospel fourteen young men, as follows: A. B. Coleman, Lewistown; Clyde Hewitt, Berkeley Springs; W. V. Warren King, Laurelton; L. M. Miller, Loganville; C. I. Fuhrman, Middleburg; H. M. Buck, Sonestown; E. R. Yeatts, York; W. W. Shannon, Berwick; N. F. Douty, Avis; M. W. Dayton, Carlisle; L. E. Teter, Hellam; John Logan, Baltimore, Md.; D. P. Snelzer, Windsor; W. E. Yingling, Hanover, and G. C. Cramer, Detroit.

In addition to these, twenty young men who have preached from one to four years, took examinations for advancement in the orders of the church. This is the largest number that has appeared before the board for a number of years.

CAPT. CROW WANTS WEST SHORE MEN FOR MACHINE GUN COMPANY

Has Clean, Sober Lot of Soldiers and Wishes to Maintain Fine Record Made by Eighth Regiment at Mexican Border

Lemoyne, Pa., March 2.—"I would like to have twenty West Shore men enlist with the Machine Gun Company of the Eighth Regiment," declared Captain Ralph C. Crow, last night. "The only conditions required from men who wish to enlist is that they do not use intoxicating liquors. Members of this company," Captain Crow continued, "are a clean bunch of fellows and I am proud of them and wish to retain a record of a sober company."

The Machine Gun company, according to Captain Crow, will remain in Lemoyne for the present, with headquarters in the Lemoyne firehall. Preliminary plans have it that a temporary building will be erected in the near future in which to store the five trucks rally service was held under the direction of the Rev. E. Crumblin of Lewisburg. The Rev. J. C. Reiser of Berwick, and the Rev. A. H. Irvine, a veteran minister of York, participated in the devotional exercises.

The address was delivered by the Rev. I. R. Dunlap, a missionary to China, now home on furlough. The address was both instructive and inspirational. He spoke of the healing—industrial, social, educational, moral and religious—that China needs, and made the declaration that the Gospel heals. The address was closed with an impassioned appeal for the church to send the Gospel to that faraway land.

The Rev. Dr. J. F. Dunlap, a delegate to the Board of Home and Foreign Missions, read the report of a meeting of the board in Baltimore, last October.

Enjoyable Entertainment by St. Mark's Aid Society

Mechanicsburg, Pa., March 2.—A successful and entertaining program was given last evening by St. Mark's Lutheran Aid Society at the home of Mrs. I. G. Hinkel, North Market street. The place was replete with American flags and a stage was built for the occasion. The program follows:

Vocal duet, Reeves and Lorenzo Stahl; dialogue, "De Pint Wild Pete," Rahter Myers and Fred Wilson; "School in Mother Gooseland," fourteen children in costume representing the different characters; piano solo, Miss Dorothy Ross; "The Family Drum Corps," showing a family drilling for war, Miss Violet Bowman, Henry Wilson, Richard Hinkle, Russell Dougherty and William DeVenney; dialogue, "Bright's Investment," Miss Violet Bowman, Miss Lulu Coover, William Kaley, Carroll and Arthur Fetzer; living songs and living pictures illustrated by the following persons, Mrs. Sophia Snyder, Mrs. John Eppley, Miss Margaret Ryan, Mrs. Edwin Naylor, Miss Catharine Seiffert, Miss Esther Ryan, Mrs. Mark B. Ibach, Fred Wilson, Miss Leah Knoll, Miss Frances Wilmama, Miss Beatrice Heikes, Norman DeVenney, Miss Mary Ross, Miss Rose Bowman, Miss Hazel Pink, Miss Ruth Heffelfinger, Herman Trimble and Robert Myers; grand finale, Star Spangled Banner, sung by entire company. A huge frame was made for the presentation of the pictures, forming a novel and beautiful part of the entertainment. The committee of arrangements were Miss Lulu Coover, Mrs. I. G. Hinkel and Miss Mary Ross.

Marriage licenses were issued here to the following: Thomas Nicholson and Bertha M. Fink, of Altoona, Pa.; J. Henry Rotz and Iva Pennell, both of Chambersburg, Pa.; Carl V. Kirknesser and Olga T. Orendorf, both of Middletown, Pa.
