ST. LOUIS CLUB HAS NEW OWNERS

Mrs. Britton Gets Good Price; No Change in Present Management

St. Louis, March 6. — An option on the St. Louis National Baseball Club was obtained by James C. Jones, attorney for the club, yesterday when he gave Mrs. Helen H. Britton, owner, a check for $25,000 as earnest money. Sixty days were given in which to make a payment of $150,000 on the purchase price of $250,000. Mr. Jones said, however, that he would not make the second payment unless $250,000 is available at the end of the sixty days' period. Mr. Jones said John K. Tener, president of the National League, would confer with the promoters of the new company in St. Louis this week, probably Wednesday.

No Change in Manager
"While I have no right to speak for the incoming directors," said Mr. Jones, "I think there will be no change in the team management. Miller Huggins will continue in charge. Herman Seekamp will continue to manage the business affairs of the club at the park."
"I think there is no doubt that the president of the club will be a baseball efficiency expert. I have no individual in mind. I am simply stating the character of man who will be employed."

It is understood that Branch Rickey, now business manager of the St. Louis Americans and formerly manager of that team, has been talked of as head of the new Nationals.

CHALLENGE FOR M'GUIRE FROM AL DOTY'S MANAGER; READY TO POST FORFEIT

If Frankie McGuire is in the fighting game for title honors he has a chance to prove it. F. W. Kelley, manager for Al Doty of Canton, Ohio, has challenged the Williamsport, Pa., boy for a fight to the finish. In a letter to the Harrisburg Telegraph, Manager Kelley says:
"I see by your sporting column that Frankie McGuire of Williamsport, is quite a card in your city. I have a boy in Al Doty of Canton, Ohio, who has beat McGuire twice, at Canton, Ohio and once at Massillon, O. To prove that he can do it again, I will put Doty box McGuire for Billy Mehring or any other club that will guarantee the small sum of $100 and tickets for two. I don't want any percentage privilege of the house. Now if there are any sports in Harrisburg who think Doty can't beat the Williamsport welterweight all they have to do is to make the match and then they can see for themselves."
Will Put Up Cash
"I stand ready to bet $1,000 that Al Doty can beat McGuire in a 20-round bout at Loconaning, Md., where they allow 20 rounds and a referee decision. I don't ask for any shoemaker of a referee. I will agree to such good men as Jack McGuigan or Billy Rocap of Philadelphia, or Matt Hinkle, and I am sure that McGuire or his manager can't kick on those kind of men. It can be winner take all. So it is up to McGuire's manager to make some kind of an answer. I will post the money with Jack McGuigan or Billy Rocap any time McGuire or his manager is ready to do business. Kindly publish this letter in your sporting columns."

Baer, pastor of the Church of God officiating. Burial was made in the Mechanicsburg cemetery. Mrs. Coover was aged 64 years and was a member of the Church of God. Her husband, a well-known contractor and the following children survive: Murray P. Coover, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Lynn G. Coover, of Leonia, N. J., and Mrs. Bertha MacSorley, at home.

COACHES

Eugene, better known as "Shorty" Miller, is one of Harrisburg's most popular and promising athletic coaches. Miller was a former Central High School all-around athlete, being most brilliant in baseball and football. Later he captained the State College eleven and was selected by Walter Camp as All-American quarterback. He is also a baseball player of some ability, having played on some of the best local teams and the greater part of last season with the New-Holland Club of the Lancaster County League.

Last season Miller turned out one of the best football eleven in the history of Technical High School. His team defeated some of the best in the State and hung up an excellent record. At the present time Miller is assistant physical director at the Boyd Memorial Hall.

SOME OF THE "VERY GOOD EDDIE" GIRLS

"Very Good Eddie" will be presented for a return engagement at the Orpheum Theater, Friday, March 9, for two nights and Saturday matinee. The production will be made by the Marbury-Comstock Company and what promises to be an interesting will be the music and lyrics written by Jerome Kern and Schuyler Greene. There will be some elaborate stage settings, created by Elsie De Wolfe, and the costumes, evolved by Melville Ellis, are said to be gorgeous.

ORPHEUM — To-night — David Warfield in "The Music Master." Wednesday evening, March 7 — Rosa Karp and Jacob Cone in "The Jewish War Brides." (Yiddish). Friday and Saturday and Saturday matinee, March 9 and 10—"Very Good Eddie." MAJESTIC—Vaudeville. COLONIAL—"War Brides." REGENT—"Hearts Adrift."

David Warfield's first stellar role under Mr. Belasco's direction was in the title part of "The Auctioneer" at the Bijou Theater on September 23, 1901. He next appeared as Herr Anton Von Barwig in "The Music Master," at the old Belasco Theater (now the Republic) on September 25, 1904.

Mr. Warfield next appeared as Wes Bigelow in "A Grand Army Man," at the present Belasco Theater on October 15, 1907, and next as Peter Grimm in "The Return of Peter Grimm," at the Belasco Theater, October 16, 1911.

The revival of "The Auctioneer" came next, and last season Mr. Warfield appeared on tour in the title role of Van der Decken, a legendary play of the sea, by Mr. Belasco. Then came his present revival of "The Music Master," in which he appeared at the Knickerbocker Theater for twenty weeks to capacity audiences, and which comes to the Orpheum to-night.

Anna Held will renew acquaintance with Harrisburg theatergoers on Monday night, March 12, in "Follow Me" musical comedy entitled, "Follow Me."

Fun is the dominant note of the show. Of course, there are hosts of wonderfully beautiful girls, for, as usual, Anna Held has surrounded herself with the prettiest women obtainable. Seats will be put on sale for Miss Held's engagement on Friday morning, March 9, at 9 o'clock, but mail orders will be accepted at the Orpheum at any time.

Nothing, it is said, in a long time, as far as musical comedy tabloids are concerned, struck the popular chord with such pleasing force as did "The Six Little Wives," a condensed musical play, which opened a three-day engagement at the Majestic yesterday.

The cast, which consist of twenty-five clever people, is headed by two clever comedians, Al Harrison and Johnny Phillipper, who, with their funny sayings, keep the house in constant laughter. There is enough tunefulness in the act to satisfy the most exacting. The members of the big chorus are unusually handsome, and make a striking appearance dressed in attractive costumes.

Mary Pickford's admirers will have a last opportunity to-day to see her in her second and best production, "Hearts Adrift," at the Regent.

Nina, a little Spanish girl, is the sole survivor of a shipwreck and is cast upon an uninhabited island. Some years later a wealthy couple, the Grahams are shipwrecked and Mrs. Graham is rescued, but her husband, like Nina, is washed ashore on the desolate island. The two become friends, companions, and more.

MISSIONARY REACHES HOME
Marietta, Pa., March 6. — Braving the war zone in order to reach this country the Rev. John F. Musselman, of Florin, has arrived safely and is visiting at his home in Lancaster county. The Rev. Mr. Musselman is a missionary supported by the Covenant United Brethren Church at Free-town, West Africa. He had been in the foreign field twelve years. His wife returned about six months ago.

MISS KREADY 99 YEARS OLD
Millersville, Pa., March 6. — Miss Barbara Kready, the oldest resident of Lancaster county, is 99 years of age to-day. Her health is good and she retains all her faculties. She was born in Manor township, and for many years has been a member of the Reformed Church. Many called during the day, and she was the recipient of a number of gifts.

WILLIAM RAINBOW DIES
Marietta, Pa., March 6. — William Rainbow, aged 63, a well-known resident, died Sunday night of dropsy and diabetes. He was a trustee of the Bethel Church. His wife, two children and a sister at Bellefonte survive.

Louise Huff and Jack Pickford at Regent to-morrow and Thursday in "Great Expectations," an adaptation of Charles Dickens' celebrated novel.

"WAR BRIDES" ARGUES PEACE

Nazimova Visualizes War Conditions and Dies on the Screen For Peace

Nazimova in "War Brides," playing on the Colonial screen the first two days of this week, has a powerful argument against war that suggests itself favorably to every reasonable person who has witnessed the film. Centered in the emotional acting of the dark-haired, dark-eyed girl in the leading role, the story tells of the plunging of a nation into war and the attendant suffering of those who serve their country by going and those who equally serve by remaining.

That love is the fundamental and only right basis for marriage and that "war-bride decrees" conceived in a distorted patriotism and advocated through a mistaken sense of necessity, are unjustified even in the severest stress of war times,—this is the lesson that Nazimova and an excellent supporting cast attempt to demonstrate. The keen sorrow of an old mother who is forced through the iron grasp of war to relinquish her four sons is portrayed with an ability second only to that of Nazimova herself.

The pacifist will see in this picture his own cherished ideals exemplified and the war-with-honor man will find himself thinking hard as he leaves the theater.

MAX ROBERTSON.

Interesting Events Scheduled at Mechanicsburg Church

Mechanicsburg, Pa., March 6. — A number of interesting events will occur in the Methodist Episcopal Church, this week, among which is the talk to be given by Mr. Fulton of the Rescue Mission, Harrisburg, on Wednesday evening, "A Trip to Africa" in picture, song and story will be an attraction on Sunday evening by the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. S. Van Blunk, missionaries among the Matabelli of South Africa. Part one of the program will comprise seventy-five beautiful colored views of the country, the people, their dwellings, villages, the natives at home and at work, and singing of a Zulu hymn. Part two will be conducted by Mrs. Van Blunk, with curios from Bulawayo, Matabelland, implements of war, beads, witch doctors' charms, bracelets and farming implements, singing in the Matabelli dialect.

RIVER CONDITION ALARMING
Marietta, Pa., March 6. — Continued downfalls of snow and colder weather are making the river conditions here more serious every day. From the western end of the borough down to the bay the ice on the Susquehanna is reported as not having moved an inch. At Bainbridge backwater is flowing over the ice which is piled twenty feet high in some places.

MISS CLINE CONVALESCING
Lewisberry, Pa., March 6. — Miss Edith Cline, who has been confined to the house for the past five weeks, is improving. Dr. H. C. Hetrick is the attending physician.
