ATTORNEYS ASK FOR NEW TRIALS

Requests Filed at Carlisle in Murder Cases of Archie Miller and James Anthony

Carlisle, Pa., March 7.—Declaring that the sentiment against the Southern negroes had much to do with the verdicts, attorneys for Archie Miller and James Anthony, convicted of murder in the first degree in court here in February, yesterday afternoon began a fight for new trials. Miller was found guilty of killing J. L. Belser, a railroad officer at Lemoyne, and Anthony, of killing Michael Ury with a shovel, at Newville.

A REAL GOOD KIDNEY MEDICINE

I have sufficient faith in the curative value of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root to recommend its use above all other kidney, liver and bladder remedies. I have used a couple of bottles at different times and believe it to be an A. No. 1 medicine, and one that will do all that is claimed for it. My customers are very grateful for the benefits derived after using Swamp-Root, and I must say that the ten years that I sold Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root as a clerk and three years as a proprietor proved to me that Swamp-Root has no equal in the drug trade in the conditions for which it is intended.

Very truly yours,
JERRY W. LEEDOM,
Duncansville, Pa.

C. E. SOCIETIES MAKE BIG STRIDES

Report of State Secretary at Annual Convention Shows Diversified Activities

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., March 7.—At the State Christian Endeavor Union Executive Committee and Luzerne County Annual Convention many Endeavorers are in attendance. The State Secretary H. B. Macropy, of Pittsburgh, gave his annual report, which shows that the organizations of the State are in a flourishing condition.

The departments superintendents reported as follows:
The Rev. C. H. Frick, superintendent Christian Citizenship, Wilkes-Barre, reported that Christian Endeavorers in the State are boasting for "a saloonless nation by 1920."
Want 300 New Societies
One hundred and thirty-six societies reported new activities in the intermediate work, says Miss Margaret A. Spencer, superintendent, Pittsburgh, and the following standards for Pennsylvania were adopted:
Three hundred new societies by July, 1918; a superintendent in every county and local union, not combined with the Junior office, but a superintendent solely for intermediate work; the formation of intermediate unions, composed of intermediate societies, with intermediate officers, where possible and practical; a county and local union rally held annually or oftener; every society contributing annually to State and county finances.

Every society actively engaged in the campaign for millions. In this connection we ask that: Every intermediate Endeavorer become a church member 20 per cent. of every society become C. E. experts; 25 per cent. of every society become members of the Peace Union; 25 per cent. of every society become comrades of the Quiet Hour; the matter of life-work recruits by special work along the line of advertising; Berks county; Reading, city; Schuylkill, Bradford, Lehigh, Dauphin county and Harrisburg and a number of others.

Banquet For Delegates
The Press Department, Elmer S. Schilling, superintendent, Harrisburg, reports that nearly every county in the State has a representative on this work. The following counties are doing special work along the line of advertising: Berks county; Reading, city; Schuylkill, Bradford, Lehigh, Dauphin county and Harrisburg and a number of others.

Four Gettysburg Monuments to Be Dedicated This Year

Gettysburg, Pa., March 7.—Four monuments will probably be dedicated on the Gettysburg battlefield during the coming summer and fall. The one erected by the State of Virginia to the memory of General Robert E. Lee, commander of the Confederate troops at the battle of 1863, probably the most imposing of the four, will be the only one to a southern officer on the battlefield. It will stand on the ground west of the town from which the famous Pickett's charge started, which really decided the battle and gave victory to the Union forces under General Meade.

The other three to be dedicated were erected by the State of Pennsylvania, and are statues to General Alex. Hays, at Ziegler's Grove; to General Humphreys, at the Rodgers House, on the Emmitsburg road, and to General John W. Geary, on Culp's Hill.

ELECTED SCHOOL PRINCIPAL
Gettysburg, Pa., March 7.—Arthur Taughinbaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Taughinbaugh, of this place, has been elected principal of the public schools at Blandburg, Cambria county, and took charge of his new work this week.

PARTRIDGES STARVING
Duncannon, Pa., March 7.—This has been a hard winter on the partridge. After the hunting season closed last fall, many were left over; but so much ice covered the ground during the winter that the birds could get but little food. It is thought many perished from cold and hunger, as very few are seen. Large flocks of crows venture into barns in search of food.

Marriage of Miss Orris Announced at Luncheon

Mechanicsburg, Pa., March 7.—Members of the C. O. B. B. club were guests of honor at a luncheon given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Orris, West Main street, on Monday evening when announcement was made of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Margaret Orris, who is a member of the club, to Joseph E. Cocklin, of Philadelphia, on Saturday, March 3, at Elkton, Md. The news of the marriage came as a surprise to the guests, who extended congratulations and good wishes to the newlyweds. The bride is popular and a favorite among Mechanicsburg's younger social set. Mr. Cocklin, who was graduated from the Mechanicsburg high school in the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Cocklin, near town. He holds a position at the Edgelyne munition factory. Mr. and Mrs. Cocklin will live at Philadelphia. American beauty roses were presented to the guests among whom were: Miss Mary Weigle, Miss Mattilda Mumper, Miss Janet Eckels, Miss Elizabeth Snyder, Miss Vera Seidle, Miss Catherine Mumma, Miss Jean Sample, Miss Frances Koller, Miss Helen Bentz, Miss Elizabeth King, Miss Sue Craig, Mrs. Alice W. Hershman, Miss Florence Orris and Mrs. Cocklin, who was assisted in the entertainment of the young people by Miss Bessie Basehore.

250 Attend Banquet of Mechanicsburg Odd Fellows

Mechanicsburg, Pa., March 7.—Mechanicsburg Lodge, No. 215, Independent Order Odd Fellows, made merry last evening with one of the largest and most successful banquets ever given here. It is estimated that fully 250 people enjoyed the feast. Gathering in the Methodist Episcopal Church, the members, with their wives and friends, dined at the Grand Hotel, where the banquet was held. Music was furnished by the Odd Fellows' orchestra. District Grand Deputy George W. Hershman was toastmaster and the following persons responded with speeches: A. H. Swartz, George C. Dietz, the Rev. J. K. Robert and the Rev. H. Hall Sharp. The program was interspersed with music by the Odd Fellows' quartet composed of Frank T. Hollinger, George C. Dietz, Bruce R. Mowery and Bernard Stansfield. On the committee of arrangements were: George W. Hershman, chairman; Daniel S. Walters, Harry N. Cromleigh, George Wertz and C. I. Swartz.

The minstrel show of the association will be given in the Galen Theater on March 29. The P. R. H. Glee Club of Harrisburg, will be the attraction.

Huntingdon County Kept Dry by Court For Fourth Year

Huntingdon, Pa., March 7.—President Judge Bailey and Associate Judges McCarthy and Beers, constituting the license court of Huntingdon county, yesterday refused the only application made this year, that of Louis R. Leister, proprietor of the Leister House, Huntingdon, the largest hotel in Huntingdon county.

The decision was virtually a foregone conclusion as the applicant offered no reason why his hotel should have a license. Huntingdon county will therefore be dry for the fourth consecutive year.

It is not denied that there is illegal selling in some parts of the county, especially where many foreigners are working in coal mines, in the Broad Top region and among the large floating classes which are working at the big brick manufactories at Mt. Union and the big powder plant of the Aetna Explosive Company. But unprejudiced citizens are unanimous in the opinion that the conditions in the county are much improved since the county has been dry.

Bullet That Struck Him at Gettysburg Given to Nephew

Philadelphia, March 7.—A bullet that was shot into him by a Confederate soldier at the battle of Gettysburg is bequeathed by Lieutenant Colonel Thomas Chamberlain to his nephew, William E. CUTICURA HEALS INTENSE ITCHING

Spots on Body, Scratched and Itched Till Nearly Insane, Could not Sleep, One Box Ointment and Two Cakes Soap Healed, Cost $1.

"All parts of my body except my face, neck, and hands were full of little red copper-colored spots. When I perspired they caused me, on account of the intense itching, to scratch them off and the more they itched till I nearly drove me insane. I could not get any sleep nights, especially in the warm weather."

"I saw Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertised and sent for sample. I noticed that the itching was not so bad so I purchased some Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and after using one box of Ointment and two cakes of Soap the spots were healed." (Signed) Howard Heine, 2243 S. Chadwick St., Philadelphia, Pa., July 15, 1916.
