Camp Hill Women Start Canvass For Library Books

Camp Hill, Pa., March 7. — A library of 200 of the latest books will be installed in the Camp Hill High school in a few weeks. To-day a committee of five women from the borough appointed by the school board, started work on securing this improvement.

A class of fourteen students will canvass the town with a list of 200 books and each resident will be asked to purchase one of the books on the list. The town will be divided in sections and the canvass is expected to be completed the latter part of the week.

The installation of the library is in compliance with the new school code. On the committee from the school board are: Mrs. L. H. Dennis, chairman; Mrs. John Sweeney, Mrs. James Milhouse, Mrs. Howard Sigler, and Mrs. G. W. Harding. Included in the canvassers are Miss Evelyn Nallor, Miss Joan Myers, Rebecca Kilborn, Miss Mary Strode, Miss Dorothy Merman, Miss Dorothy Kendall, Miss Pauline Davison, Miss Marion Denton, John Nell, Chas. Fry, Paul Trimmer and Howard Sechrist.

PAINS SHARP AND STABBING

Woman Thought She Would Die. Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Ogdensburg, Wis.—"I suffered from female troubles which caused piercing pains like a knife through my back and side. I finally lost all my strength so I had to go to bed. The doctor advised an operation but I would not listen to it. I thought of what I had read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and tried it. The first bottle brought great relief and six bottles have entirely cured me. All women who have female trouble of any kind should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. ETTA DORION, Ogdensburg, Wis. Physicians undoubtedly did their best, battled with this case steadily and could do no more, but often the most scientific treatment is surpassed by the medicinal properties of the good old fashioned roots and herbs contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If any complication exists it pays to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special free advice.

Man's Letter Answered

Dear Sir: In the year 1913, month of March, I read in my newspaper a recipe of prescription and had it filled, as I was in run-down health and was particularly nervous, weak and worn out. I was dependent and unable to work part of the time. The medicine at once revived my energy, will power and strength and have felt like a "new man" until just recently. Have lost the recipe and would appreciate your publishing it again for my benefit and others needing such a grand medicine to restore health. H. H. B.

Answer—The prescription referred to is herewith given. Any well-stocked druggist can mix it. It really is a wonderful strength-giving tonic for nerve-broken men and women, too.

Tincture Cadomene Comp. . . 1 oz.
Comp. Essence Cardiol . . . 1 oz.
Comp. Fluid Balmwort . . . 1 oz.
Comp. Syrup Sarsaparilla . . 3 oz.
Mix. Shake well and take a teaspoonful before or after each meal and one at bedtime for several weeks. DR. LEWIS BAKER.

Note—Clip this and retain it, as it will not appear again.

"New Life" from Cadomene

"New Life" from Cadomene! May 17, 1916.

Dear Sir: — I am taking Cadomene Tablets and they are putting new life in me. I had a bad case of Grippie this past winter and my physician's prescription did me no good. I saw Cadomene recommended as for my condition and I sent 29 mg to get them. Now after using them only one week I am gaining strength, eating with a relish and sleeping like a baby. Please send your Health Book and oblige. W. H. Pennington, Wharton, Ark.

Cadomene "Can't Be Beat!" Oct. 10, 1916.

Gentlemen:—Please send your book on Health. I am on my second box of Cadomene Tablets. They can't be beat for nervous people.

Very truly yours,
D. McBride,
121 North St., Rochester, N. Y.

Cadomene Put Him on His Feet! Dear Sirs:—I beg to make a statement regarding Cadomene Tablets. I have taken one box and I am going on my feet. I feel fine and am going to continue taking them till I am completely well. Wishing you success, I am, Yours truly,
F. W. Barbean,
1227 Inca St., Denver, Colo.

Note.—All druggists sell Cadomene Tablets, a physician's great prescription for nervous ill-health. Every sealed tube bears formula and guarantee to satisfy or money back by the proprietors.
