GREAT INDEED

Has Been the Benefit to Harrisburg People of the wonderful New Form of Very Old Medicine

A Peerless Body Builder and Strength Creator—Once Objectionable, Now Agreeable to All.

Thanks to Several of Our Leading Druggists, Who Brought It Here

Probably no branch of science has made such wonderful strides and changes during the past century as have been made in the practice of medicine. The science of mental healing every year claiming its multitude of new converts; the proverbial ounce of prevention is considered in every branch of medicine and healing art; laws have been enacted to prohibit the sale of habit-forming drugs; a national "health insurance" is considered and less medicines are used in the cure of disease than at any time in our history.

Every one knows the objection, however, to the use of this nauseating remedy. So extremely disagreeable is the taste and smell of cod liver oil that many people have actually been unable to take a single dose of it. Many others have made heroic efforts to take the medicine, but have been obliged to abandon it after struggling with the horrible stuff for a few days.

The consequence is that thousands have drifted into incurable diseases who might have been saved, had it been possible to administer this potent medicine. Enough people have been able to assimilate cod liver oil to prove to the medical profession and the world at large, its intrinsic value. Such patients as were blessed with unusually strong stomachs, derived benefit from cod liver oil. Why, then, could not a form of it be devised to be administered to patients whose digestive organs had been weakened by disease?

This is exactly what scientists and chemists have been aiming at for years, and this is exactly what was accomplished by two prominent French chemists, some years ago their secret was brought to America, and our local druggists, whose names are appended to this article, succeeded in connecting themselves with the prominent firm of Boston chemists who placed this new preparation on the market.

By a peculiar process the liver of the cod is treated in such a manner that there is obtained an extract or cod liver peptonate which contains all the curative properties that have made cod liver oil famous. The horrible smelling, nauseating oil that has always been a part of this remedy is left entirely behind.

These cod liver peptonates are given in Vinol to which is added the blood making, strengthening qualities of tonic iron, manganese peptonates and glyco-phosphates, which makes Vinol supreme in its field to build up strength for all rundown conditions, after sickness, for feeble old people, delicate children, and which also makes it such a grand constitutional remedy for chronic cough, colds and bronchitis.

They will be glad to tell any of their customers the good that is being done by finding a pleasant way to administer what has always been considered a valuable but much dreaded medicine,—to say nothing of its having been made more efficient.

VICE-PRESIDENT OF ANOTHER ROAD

William Jennings Honored by Organizers of Gen. Sullivan Trail at Wilkes-Barre

William Jennings of this city yesterday was chosen vice-president of the General Sullivan Trail Association, which proposes the completion of a highway connecting Harrisburg with the New York State line at Sayre.

Representatives of automobile clubs, business firms, chambers of commerce and private citizens from Bradford, Montour, Luzerne, Columbia, Dauphin and other counties met at Wilkes-Barre yesterday and organized for the purpose of building the General Sullivan trail which will follow the Susquehanna river from Harrisburg to Northumberland county, with a branch from Wilkes-Barre extending over the route traveled by General Sullivan through the Poconos to the Delaware river. It is the plan to make the trail a historical project. The Daughters of the Revolution have already agreed to mark it.

Wherever possible, the State highway will be followed, but the building of the trail in each county traversed is to be co-operative between State and county authorities, and the offer of the General Sullivan trail organization is to have the counties divide the costs with the State.

The executive committee is made up as follows: Columbia county, W. C. Garrison, G. H. Norton, Charles Housenick; Wyoming county, H. S. Harding, T. L. Sturdevant, G. P. Henwood; Bradford county, Roy Lilly, Benjamin Kuykendall, W. S. Lafferty; Montour county, W. J. McClure, Jacob H. Cole, W. G. Purcell; Dauphin county, William Jennings, D. E. Tracy, George McFarland; Luzerne county, P. F. Joyce, Adam P. Kiefer, C. N. Loveland.

REPORT OF CO'S FAILURE DENIED. City Commissioner E. Z. Gross to-day denied a report that one of the companies bidding on the contract to motorize city fire apparatus, was in the hands of the receivers. The report was investigated at once when it was received at the Park department office, and is false, Commissioner Gross declared.

MRS. LLOYD GEORGE ADOPTS NEW FOOD CONSUMPTION PLAN. London, March 7. — Mrs. Lloyd George, wife of the premier, who some time ago adopted a scheme of war economy in her household, has now greatly extended it, especially with regard to the consumption of meat, which has been reduced to a minimum. In this respect she is following the ideas of the premier, who has always been a strong advocate of the simple diet. In the premier's household vegetable dishes have largely supplanted meat courses, and waste has been almost entirely eliminated.

JUMPING TO CONCLUSIONS

Circumstantial evidence has too many faithful adherents. Too many people judge on the appearance of facts without investigating for the foundation of real truth.

In spite of the fact that appearances are a little against a man who comes half an hour late for an important appointment and talks about "a blockade in the subway"—there may really have been a blockade in the subway on the particular day when that outworn excuse makes us laugh at him!

It is easy to jump to conclusions. When one knows half a story and looks at a set of circumstances from one's own angle of vision, it is very easy to form a conclusion that has very little to do with the facts in the case.

Two and two do make four, but there is always a possibility that three has been added to the first two and one subtracted from the second, which changes the sum materially.

Suspicion and cynicism and doubt are great forces in modern life. People doubt and question each other and impugn each other's motives. How many a love affair has ended disastrously because a man who had remained so true to the first two o'clocks never appeared nor sent an excuse for his non-appearance!

The girl in the case jumped to a conclusion—she was being neglected, abused and otherwise unfairly treated. At once she must protect her dignity. And off goes an ill-tempered, hysterical, accusing letter which shows an utter lack of faith and understanding to a man who has been called out of town to the deathbed of a dear friend and who is either furiously angry or sadly grieved when he finds himself tried and condemned unheard.

"Judge not, that ye be not judged." is wisdom as well as religion. When all the evidence is in and looks decidedly black for the accused, human love and human charity ought still make allowances.

But when the evidence has not been returned in full, when there are only a few indications against friend or beloved, why torture oneself with suspicion, why fail friendship with doubt?

The lack of faith you show in some one else gives evidence against yourself. If you suspect other people of underhanded and unworthy dealings, you suggest at once that you are capable of them. The motive you attribute to some one else is possible for you.

"Come on Over, See My Corn Fall Off!"

"I Put 2 Drops of 'Gets-It' on Last Night—Now Watch—" "See—all you have to do is to use your two fingers and lift the corn right off. That's the way 'Gets-It' always works. You just put on about 2 drops. Then the corn not only shrivels, but loosens from the toe, without affecting the flesh. You'll never have to cut a corn—it's almost a pleasure to have corns and to-night."

"That Was a Quick Funeral That Corn Had 'Gets-It'!" see how 'Gets-It' gets them off in a hurry and without the least pain. I can wear tight shoes, dance, and walk as though I never had corns.

"Gets-It" makes the use of toe-irritating salves, burning acids, tape, plasters and other things not only foolish, but unnecessary. Use this wonderful discovery. "Gets-It," for any soft or hard corn, callous. It is the new, simple, easy, quick way, and it never fails. You'll never have to cut a corn again with knives or scissors, and run chances of blood poisoning. Try "Gets-It" to-night. "Gets-It" is sold everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Harrisburg and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Clark's Medicine Store, W. H. Kennedy and Golden Seal Drug Company—Advertisement.

Health Restored After 15 Years of Suffering

Remarkable Recovery of Elmer Beard Astonishes His Many Acquaintances. Those who knew Elmer Beard as he was only a few short weeks ago are astonished at the marvelous change that has come over him. I was run down and tired all the time and I couldn't eat enough to keep up my strength for no matter how simple the food my stomach could not digest it and I would be filled with gas, causing me to suffer severe pain and almost unendurable misery.

"I tried every medicine I ever heard of without being able to get any relief and my trouble got so bad of late years that I was often confined to my bed under the doctor's care, but I only got worse instead of better.

"Finally, after reading so much about Tanlac, I began taking it and from that day my recovery has been rapid until to-day to look at me, you would not think I had ever had a sick day in my life.

"I am stronger and more energetic; I am sleeping fine and have a splendid appetite and can eat heartily of anything on the table.

"I heartily recommend Tanlac and my many friends here in Lebanon will vouch for the great good that it has done me.

Tanlac, the famous reconstructive tonic is now being introduced here at George Drug Store, where the Tanlac man is meeting the people and explaining the merits of this master medicine.

Your Answer to Our Call

To say pleased is putting it mildly. We're DELIGHTED! And the best part of it, everybody was taken care of. We called for 2,000 people. We don't expect to get them all in a day, or a week, or a month. But we were delighted with the ready response and no one went away without being satisfactorily fitted with glasses. Many answered our call and went away happy. They had nothing to lose—and everything to gain. Over and over again we heard expressions similar to, "Why, I didn't know Harrisburg boasted of an Optical establishment like this." That's why we are delighted.

Our records show 3,200 patrons up to March 5th. We called for 2,000 more for 1917 and judging from yesterday's response we'll over-reach that number. However, our offer still stands.
