

NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS

DUNCANNON COUPLE MARRIED 64 YEARS AGO

MR. AND MRS. JOHN GLASS

Duncannon, Pa., March 9.—Mr. and Mrs. John Glass yesterday celebrated their sixty-fourth year of wedded life.

Mr. Glass has always been an ardent disciple of Isaac Walton. Despite his advancing years there are few good "fishing days" that don't find him somewhere along the Susquehanna or its branches.

TECH BOY WITH BRITISH ARMY

John Wachtman, Who Disappeared From Home Last Year, Heard From in France

JOHN WACHTMAN MY CLASS

"I am with the British army in France," This is the substance of the first bit of news that has come from John Wachtman, of West Fairview.

Before his departure the son rolled up the valedictory address which he was to have delivered on commencement day at Technical High School and placed it with the following note beside a lamp at his home: "Good-bye, I'm sick of all this raving about standing head of my class. Don't blame anybody but me for this. Don't worry, John."

When he disappeared, Dr. Charles B. Fager, Jr., principal of Technical High School, and various students told of the young man's modesty and his dislike for compliments.

BANK TELLER RESIGNS Duncannon, Pa., March 9.—Felix Zeigler who was employed as teller at the Peoples National Bank here for the past year, has tendered his resignation and accepted a clerical position with the East End Bank at Harrisburg.

DON'T NEGLECT KIDNEYS

Swamp-Root, Dr Kilmer's Prescription, Overcomes Kidney Trouble

It is now conceded by physicians that the kidneys should have more attention as they control the other organs to a remarkable degree and do a tremendous amount of work in removing the poisons and waste matter from the system by filtering the blood.

An ideal herbal compound that has had most remarkable success as a kidney and bladder remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. There is nothing else like it. It is Dr. Kilmer's prescription used in private practice and it is sure to benefit you.
