This person, he said, was a "man who should have been its principal witness, namely the mysterious secret goevrnment agent known as Gordon."

The attorney declared Gordon was a police spy who had started the whole plot, who had lured the defendants on and then when he had got them well within his net, had handed them over to another agent named Booth, so that his own connection with the case would not be so flagrantly apparent.

Although there are a number of suitable places for sale, the dwellings for rent are always in de-mand.

dwellings for rent are always in demand.

"Much of this is due to the present prosperity wave. The applications are from all classes. Traveling men in this district are using the city for their headquarters and want to bring their families here. Increased demand for labor and experienced hands in the iron and steel mills, on the railroad and in other industrial plants add to the great number of people either looking for better homes, or trying to locate in Harrisburg.

"We are now facing the biggest demand for houses since 1904 and have practically none to offer."

Insurance Fight Nears

Settlement of the workmen's com-Settlement of the workmen's compensation insurance problem, which has been hanging fire in Council for week, will probably be made Tuesday. Yesterday City Commissioners met with City Solicitor onn E. Fox, and again went over the question, with the result that an effort will be made to settle the differences with the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company for the first quarter. Whether the city will carry its own insurance, give the contract to the State or to the stock company for the remaining months of the year, also will probably be decided next week. After the conference yesterday it was said that should there be no settlement with the guaranty company, the commissioners wilw! stand a test case in court. As the final contract for insuring city employes was never signed and approved by Council, it is connect that the best way to end the discussion will be to have the city carry its own insurance again this year.

Pekins are natives of China, where duck breeding is extensively followed. And this breed is the most generally bred. They were imported into America in the early '70s, and their wonderful vigor, prolificacy and hardihood made them favorites almost immediately. This is the breed found on most of the large commercial duck farms in this country, many of which market upwards of 60,000 ducks a year. Pekins lay well, better, perhaps, than other varieties, with the exception of the Indian Runner. Their eggs are large and white, and like those of other ducks, are laid at night, on commercial farms the eggs are hatched in large incubators, after which the

$1,000 Per Month Being Spent on Welfare Work by Associated Aids

According to a report submitted yesterday to the board of managers of the Associated Aids it is costing at least $1,000 each month for welfare work in Harrisburg. To be able to meet the ever increasing demands made upon it the Society must of course receive at least that amount each month.

The Charity Ball in January netted the sum of $3,562.25, a sum that will not maintain the standard of work beyond the first of April. During February the Society handled 151 cases. Socoal workers made 275 visits, financial aid was given to 23 tubercular cases, relief was administered through the medium of the Harrisburg Benevolent Association to 131, employment was found for 4, the Children's Bureau placed nine orphans and made 234 calls in reference to the children.
