

WHERE TO GO FOR AMUSEMENTS THIS WEEK---LATE DONGS IN WORLD OF SPORTS

SCHOLASTIC GAME NEAR FINISH LINE

Lebanon Meets Reading; Winner Takes Championship Honors

Tech at Central; Lebanon at Reading, Steelton at York are the contests that will decide the championship of the Central Pennsylvania Basketball League this week.

While the two Dutch teams are fighting it out for the honors of the league, Tech and Central will get together in that little battle of their own which will be every bit as exciting as the one at Lebanon.

With to-day Gregory and Fields will enter the Blue and Gray line-up. But the chance to repeat last year's record has been lost, and the only opportunity to win any laurels will come in the Tech series.

Steelton set a record for the league by blanking Central at Felton Hall Friday night. This was the first time this season that a team had failed to score from the field in the league.

Tech's victory on the same floor the previous week, and the fact that the Tech followers that the Maroon can capture the Central series.

Practically no changes have taken place in the league standing. Moore and Nyquist have both added a little to their averages, and are far ahead of any of their opponents.

Penn's Relay Carnival Promises New Records

Philadelphia, March 12.—With the indoor season virtually on its last legs, all eyes are now turned toward the thirty-third annual relay carnival to be held on Franklin Field on the last Friday and Saturday of next month.

Harvard and Princeton have made the best showing in the classic track and field meet of America. For several years now it has attracted a majority of the collegiate and scholastic teams of the United States.

The West will this year be very strongly represented in this event, with Chicago and Missouri bringing on the fastest teams.

Special importance is attached to this race this year because of the donation of the Mike Simpson Challenge Cup. All of the colleges will be eager to get the first leg on this solid silver trophy.

"Billy" Sunday Given $60,000 For Buffalo Work

Buffalo, N. Y., March 12.—"Billy" Sunday finished his sixth week here last night and has stayed two weeks longer. His campaign here has been a success. He has preached to more than 100,000 persons, has obtained nearly 20,000 converts and has taken in over $60,000 in collections.

Those who worked out of the Sunday campaign are more than satisfied with the results so far. Buffalo had become known to the world as a city of "evangelism" because of the failure of all previous campaigns.

Council to Act on Valley Railway Tax Suit

Mechanicsburg, Pa., March 12.—Mechanicsburg citizens are considering a proposition to take out an injunction to restrain the borough council from doing anything against the Valley Traction Company.

The borough council has placed the matter in a position to win its long legal fight, but a movement has been made to have the matter dropped and to withdraw the case, which is listed to be heard at Carlisle on March 20.

WILLIAMSPORT BOY TO MEET JOHNNY WOLGAST IN TEN-ROUND BOUT AT AUDITORIUM NEXT WEEK

The fourth boxing show of the Keystone Sporting Club will be held on Wednesday evening, March 21. Frankie Maguire of Williamsport, a popular fighter with the Harrisburg fans will meet Johnny Wolgast of Cadillac, Mich.

BACKYARD GARDENING GREAT OUTDOOR SPORT

The ground "to get right" when the campaign will be started in earnest. EST AD BACK YARD

For the information of this vast army of gardeners—and for those whose homes which may have suspicious of the presence of "snackers" in their immediate vicinity, here are a few figures that present possibilities well worth careful consideration.

In an effort to estimate the acreage in vacant or unimproved lots within the city limits, figures were compiled from the lists of ten real estate firms, and interviews were had with members of the City Engineer's force and the Assessor's office.

At least 4,800,000 square feet of vacant land in Harrisburg, divided into lots averaging 4,000 square feet and distributed in all parts of the city, that could be leased for four or five months under certain conditions and stipulations, at a nominal figure.

BROTHERHOODS AND P. R. R. ARGUE FULL CREW

hood representatives deny this charge emphatically.

The Railroad Statement The railroad statement to which the Brotherhoods object in part follows: "The wreck was caused by a hot box which burned off a journal of the freight train, derailing the car and ten others. An Adams Express train, about to pass on the adjoining track, in the opposite direction, ran the derailed freight cars with the result that the fireman and three attendants on the Adams Express train were killed.

"The inquiry conducted by General Manager S. C. Lon shows that in the course of the run from Waverly, N. J., to the point near Bristol, Pa. where the wreck occurred, a distance of about 84 miles, the conductor, the flagman and the rear brakeman—the latter being the employe charged with conforming with the 'extra crew' laws—never left the cabin car at the rear of the train, except during two brief stops."

"When A Girl Loves" Orpheum to-night. "Follow Me" which comes to the Orpheum to-night, is but 19 years of age, and has been on the stage only three years.

"Alone at Last" with its pretty mountain climbers, its wonderful reproduction of the scenery of the Catskills, is a score of Franz Lehr, composer of "The Merry Widow" and a company of over seventy persons, comes to the Orpheum Theater for one performance only. The production is a gem of the American stage.

"The statement authorized by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company that the facts which have been ascertained as a result of a careful and thorough investigation of the wreck of a freight train and an Adams Express train employed on the Pennsylvania Railroad at Bristol, Pa., are believed by the management of the Pennsylvania Railroad to furnish a practical demonstration of the truth of the contention that the so-called Full Crew Law is not necessary to increase safety but actually encourages indifference to duty.

ed a plot with many ramifications to damage property at the navy yard in the event there is war between the United States and Germany. Government officials are maintaining silence, neither confirming nor denying published reports that explosives have been smuggled on board the Kronprinz Wilhelm and the Prinz Eitel Friedrich, tied up at the navy yard.

Adelbert K. Fischer, his wife, Helen, and Henry Rohner, head of a wholesale grocery concern here, are out on bail charged with smuggling the chronometers from the two German ships. Government agents are not sure that Rohner had any knowledge of the alleged smuggling scheme.

The arrest of the Fischers and Rohner has given impetus to a movement started here last week to have the interned German cruisers removed from the navy yard. It is declared in the event of war the 750 interned German sailors would be a serious menace to the yard and South Philadelphia.

GOOD DIGESTION IS PREPAREDNESS

Dr. Dixon Calls Attention to the Necessity For Taking Care of People

People of Pennsylvania are called upon by Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, the State Commissioner of Health, to keep themselves in a state of preparedness and readiness for national defence by looking after their digestion and health.

The commissioner in his statement says: "Last week's letter was a warning to our fellow-citizens against the over-eating of potatoes—an incigenous tuber of America sometimes called the 'Irish potato.' To-day attention is called to the fact that starchy foods are more quickly and thoroughly digested in the secretions of the glands of the mouth than in any other part of the digestive system.

"The important lesson to maintain health in youth and old age is the proper digestion of the starchy foods by mixing them up with the saliva in the mouth and not swallowing them down until that takes place. This will produce the chemical condition necessary for it to be taken up and circulated through the body and give strength to it along with that given by meats, beans and fats."

Dr. Dixon's list of the starchy foods to be well masticated and mixed with the saliva before swallowing includes: Potatoes, corn, rice, hominy, rice, white bread, toast, macaroni, bananas, crackers, all cereal breakfast foods, tapioca, arrow root, sago, buckwheat, barley and parsnips."
