WEST SHORE FIREMEN'S BANQUET TO GUARDSMEN

Celebrate First Anniversary of Organization and Honor Fellow Members at Enjoyable Affair at Wormleysburg Firehouse

Wormleysburg, Pa., March 13.—Patriotism, not only to the country, but to the West Shore, was evident at the first annual anniversary of the West Shore Firemen's Union, and a reception to West Shore guardsmen of the Eighth Regiment and troopers of the Governor's Troop, in the borough town hall, last night.

This is the first time in the history of the West Shore that all communities have been represented at a gathering which co-operation of the different districts was the main trend.

Senator Scott E. Leiby, of Marysville; Arthur R. Ruple, of Carlisle; Col. H. C. Demming, of Harrisburg, and J. Fred Hummel, of Wormleysburg, speakers of the evening, emphasized the amazing growth of the West Shore and its great possibilities of being Harrisburg's rival.

Senator Leiby gave a brief history of the West Shore and the opportunities at hand in this community. Mr. Ruple talked of the wonderful development in the community and the many things that need immediate consideration. He urged linking the towns together in one city to reduce taxation. He told of the importance of having three bridges span the Susquehanna. Col. Demming, who assisted in organizing the Union, in a brief history told that the Union taught the River town Consolidated Company a lesson; got better trolley service and better fire protection through the new organization.

J. Fred Hummel, president of the Union, welcomed the soldier boys of border duty. Mr. Hummel urged co-operation between the different boroughs. He declared the time was not long coming when all the boroughs would be united into one, and that the West Shore Union has taken the first step to accomplish this end. He suggested buying out the River town Consolidated Water Company, which he declared was an "eyesore" to the development of this territory.

On suggestion of Col. Demming the Union decided to give each West Shore soldier a medal for his service along the border. The executive committee composed of John Myers, chairman; Ira Shaull, J. J. Shaffer, H. H. Rice, George Wilson, Jay Neyhart and Edward Bachman, were authorized to select the emblems and report at the next meeting.

The guests of the evening included: Captain R. C. Crow, J. S. Cummings, Harry Shearer, Edwin Harris, Charles Cummings, Robert C. Jacobs, George W. Dale, J. Norman Schuchman, L. B. Albright, Charles Hershey, R. B. Lamb, George Zellers, John Myers, of Lemoyne.

The Stadlander bill, regulating sales in bulk was debated at length, objection being made to the requirements on the vendor. It was also charged that it would weaken existing laws. The bill was defeated, receiving 79 votes to 79 votes against it.

The Beyer resolution for an inquiry into the cost of living was amended to extend time for the Dairy and Food Commission to make report to April 30.

Senate bill appropriating $300 for expenses of commission to investigate systems of recording deeds. Senate bill authorizing chief clerks to act when a vacancy exists in heads of a department of the State government. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Relieves Chronic Case of Long Standing

After a long period of suffering with liver and bowel trouble that brought on piles, during which she had tried many remedies without obtaining relief, Mrs. Mary J. Jewell of Berrien Springs, Mich., heard of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and obtained a bottle from her druggist. This simple, inexpensive laxative compound brought almost immediate relief and Mrs. Jewell wrote to Dr. Caldwell about her case.

In her letter Mrs. Jewell says, "I had tried so many things for the piles, without being helped at all, I had almost given up hope of ever being any better. I knew it was the condition of my bowels that caused them, and after I had taken a bottle of your Syrup Pepsin I knew it was just the medicine I needed. I am very grateful to you for sending me the little book of advice and instructions it gives would teach anyone how to get well and how to keep well."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, free from opiate or narcotic drugs, and is mild and gentle in its action, bringing relief in an easy, natural way, without griping, or other pain or discomfort.
