

LOCAL BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP BATTLE IS TONIGHT'S CLASSIC CAGE BILL

"IZZY" HOFFMAN WINS STATE HONORS

Marletta was the mecca yesterday for a large number of sportsmen of the State, who gathered to witness the shoot for the live bird State championship cup, between Charles Humer, of Marletta, and Izzy Hoffman, of Philadelphia. Each man shot at twenty-five birds, and Hoffman won, dropping 11 to Humer's 13 birds.

In the annual Washington's Birth-day shoot Humer carried off the honors, and the same day Hoffman challenged him to another match yesterday.

So far there have been fifteen holders of this cup, and they will now shoot for its permanent possession as the last place for winners' names has been filled, Hoffman defending the trophy.

In a special 15-bird match, G. Wellington Hepler killed 14, Martin Sherman Miller figured in second honors. It is understood that several local shooters will challenge Hoffman for State live bird championship honors. If a match is arranged it will take place in Philadelphia.

Bits From Sportland

Yesterday afternoon on the Steele Grammar School gymnasium floor the Steele girls' five was defeated by the Lincoln Midgets by the score of 19 to 5.

The Salem A. C. quintet will clash with the Enhaut Arrows to-morrow night on the Orpheum floor, Steelton. Playing in a lightning fashion yesterday afternoon, the Steele Grammar school second team trimmed the Mission five to the tune of 23 to 12.

The Greyhound team, of this city, defeated the Middletown Central Grammar School five last night by the score of 25 to 21.

Cathedral Hall floor will be the stage for two fast basketball teams to-night, when both the boys' and girls' fives of the Hassett School of Gymnastics get into action. The former will clash with the Albright College team and the latter will meet the Moravian Parochial School girls.

An announcement from Reading last night stated that the Central Pennsylvania Scholastic League contest between Reading and Lebanon High School fives, scheduled for to-night, has been postponed until to-morrow night.

The Camp Hill Ex-High five would like to arrange a contest to be played at Camp Hill to-night. Manager F. Armstrong can be reached by calling 3172-W.

CITY LEAGUE FIES MAKE BIG SCORES

Rosewood and Galahad Quintets Are Victorious by Large Scores

The league leading Rosewood A. C. five and the Galahad Recreation Club quintet, last night, in City Amateur League contests completely buried their opponents in an avalanche of field goals. The Rosewood team humbled the West End tossers to the score of 84 to 43 and the Galahad five came out at the long end of a 64 to 11 score over the Y. M. H. A. combination.

Easy Scoring
The victorious teams virtually scored at will forward, during the contests were they forced to go their fastest. The Rosewood tossers scored the net from the field 39 times and the Galahad lads located the basket for 32 two pointers. The latter team also put up a strong defensive game and only allowed the Hebrew tossers to secure three field goals, holding them scoreless during the first half.

Training Camp Gossip
Hot Springs, Ark., March 16.—A "northwestern" broke up a seven-inning game between two teams of the Dodgers at Whittington Park in the sixth inning yesterday afternoon with a score of 8 to 1 in favor of Larry Cheney's athletes. "Rube" Marquard, who pitched for Cheney's side, was in much better form than Jack Coombs. Many of the drives off Coombs went mighty close to the fences, but excellent fielding kept the score down.

You Can't Always Tell
In March the Kid looked great. While the veteran's arm was sore; The Kid slid into the plate. For many a practice score; While the Vet had to limp around. Waiting a warmer sun. Covering a little ground. Scoring hardly a run.

In March the Kid was there With many a robust clout. All fifteen ways to spare, While the Vet looked down and out. But when June brought its thrill, Who held the first line trench? The Kid looked better still, While the Vet was on the bench.

Football Changes
The Rule Mandarins of football gather on Friday, but there are no important changes in sight. The present game has grown in such favor among both players and spectators that no risk will be run in the way of scrambling up a successful situation.

Foster Sanford, the eminent instructor and old Yale star, believes in restricting the distance of the forward pass in its campaign of frightfulness. Such a change would work toward removing a hardship from the secondary defense, but in other ways would lead to numberless complications.

When a limit is put upon distance a tangle is sure to result. The Forward Pass, in our opinion, should either be unrestricted or abolished. And it shouldn't be abolished.

Brooklyn Enters a Rebuttal
Dear Sir: This talk about the Giants having the pennant race sewed up gives me indigestion. Pennant races, in the main, are decided by pitching power. Last season the Red Sox lost Tris Speaker and had Jack Barry out at the most critical point of the year; but with Ruth, Shore, Leonard, Mays and Foster they won the pennant by a larger margin than the year before. Why? Because they had the pitching. Brooklyn, with Pfeffer, Marquard, Cheny, Coombs, Sherrod, Smith and others, has a much better pitching staff than Tesreau, Schupp, Benton, Perritt, etc.—a much more dependable staff. That is where Brooklyn will again beat out New York. Wait for the finish.

Coming and Going
Sir: Which do you think is the better story—Samuel Hopkins Adams in Collier's called "Enter Darcy" or Governor Whitman's snappy sequel, "Exit Darcy"?

PLATO PETE.

Along about the 27th of July or early August there will be one or two depressed cities insisting that their ball clubs put in the afternoon drilling in place of the accustomed program.

Spring Song
What have the winds of spring to say—
"Over the hills and far away—
Where the pits are deep and the traps encroach;
And the bunker waits for the flubbed approach;
Where the duffer rears and tears his hair
As a wild curse rings on the balmy air;
Where the sore heart bleeds and the soul is cut
As the golfer foomies a two-foot putt."

Tris and Joe
H. L. G.—Speaker and Jackson have been big league rivals for six seasons—from 1911 to date. In this space Jackson has led Speaker three years, with one tie and two triumphs for Tris. Jackson led his Texas rival in 1911, 1912 and 1913. In 1914 they tied at .338 each. Speaker then came to the front in 1915 and 1916.

Jackson is the only ball player in the game who ever batted over .400 his

WELLY'S CORNER

New York State eLeague magnates will meet in Harrisburg Wednesday, March 21. There will be no business transacted until 8 o'clock at night, when President J. H. Farrell will call his representatives together to make up the schedule. The meeting will be held at Hotel Columbus.

Manager George Cockill will come to Harrisburg on Monday and will remain here until after the league meeting. He has signed up Harrison the outfielder. This is the best news received from the local leader.

Frank, of Central High five, in 13 games scored 178 points. He has an average of 14.83. Harris, of Tech, in 13 games made 180 points, and his average is 13.85. These two stars will be prominent to-night.

Pennsylvania railroad shooters will open the season to-morrow at the grounds, Sixth and Division streets. The secretary, Clarence Z. Moore, of the Philadelphia Division Gun Club, has received many entries and some big scores are expected. The program starts at 1 o'clock.

Myers' sixteen-piece orchestra will play for dancing at Wintertide Saturday evening, March 17. Thorough musicians and well worth the price of admission. Ladies, 25c; men, 50c.—adv.

Those accustomed to insist how badly Miss Bjurstedt could have beaten Miss Sutton—Mrs. Bundy—are now at liberty to revise their estimate under the cold and pitiless glare of the records, where the great Norwegian player has a matter of one victory out of five starts and at a time when Mrs. Bundy is hardly the player that Miss Sutton was at the top of her younger game.

Proof that the golf stroke is a bad thing for baseball batting is shown by the list of ball players who play golf. Look how the Scotch game wrecked Tris Speaker, Ty Cobb and Eddie Collins! No wonder big league managers insist upon suppressing Doc Bjugst's siren call.

Members of the Central and Technical High School basketball squads held their final practices yesterday afternoon in preparation for their first game of the season Friday night at Chestnut Street Hall.

Because of the advantage of playing on their own floor, Central followers look to the Blue and Gray to land their first contest with Tech. Adherents of the latter quintet point to the fact that Tech has won at Steelton and Middletown within the last two weeks, and with the team going at top speed has good chances to win the fray.

Cheer leaders at the two institutions will do their part in the game. Almost as much interest centers in the battle that will be staged between the two reserve squads. The first tilt will start at 8 o'clock. The probable line-ups for the game will be:

"BIG BILL" IS PAID OFF
Syracuse, N. Y., March 16.—"Big Bill" Holtenback yesterday presented to Chancellor James R. Day, of Syracuse University, his resignation as football coach and received a certified check for $2,250, the amount he demanded for canceling his $2,500 contract. This contract was entered into by the University Athletic Council last December despite the protests of the chancellor.

The New Hub And the New Spring Clothes

THE new spring clothes shown here are the product of the country's best tailors—made of quality-tested fabrics and are style-correct in every detail.

The one aim of THE NEW HUB is to give clothing buyers of Harrisburg and vicinity the greatest values for every dollar that modern methods can produce.

Efficiencies, economies, betterments employed by the firms we buy from enter into their making and make it possible to put into our clothes better quality, better values for the same price or less than ordinarily asked for clothes of lesser standards.

Come in to-day—and let us show you the best clothes made.

OTHERS, caught by the rising market, have had to practically DOUBLE their prices for shoes. We, through our foresight by contracting for supplies for our 257 stores over a YEAR ago, escaped the big advance. That's why we are able to sell:

Shoes Worth $3.50 for $2.50
Shoes Worth $4.00 for $2.95
Shoes Worth $5.50 for $3.50

But when our present stock is exhausted, our prices will go up, too! So buy NOW—and buy two or three pairs for FUTURE needs—for every pair NOW will be worth double later on.

IT'S toasted. The Burleytobacco in this delicious new Lucky Strike cigarette is toasted.

And you know how toasting does add flavor. Close your eyes and think of one crisp, brown slice of hot, buttered toast. Flavor is the word, isn't it?

This new application of an old idea has given you a new cigarette. You smokers have certainly been wanting a ready-made Burley cigarette. At first it couldn't be made; flavor didn't hold. But five years' study brought us to the toasting principle, by which we are able to hold the Burley flavor.

So now, try Lucky Strike, the real Burley cigarette; the tobacco—it's toasted. And the flavor—you'll certainly love it!
