

CZAR'S BROTHER IS NAMED REGENT OF NEW GOVERNMENT

By Associated Press
Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch, the new regent of Russia, is the younger and only brother of Emperor Nicholas, with whom he has been at odds for many years. Until the birth of Grand Duke Alexis Nicholaevitch, son of Emperor Nicholas in 1904, he was the first in succession to the Russian throne. Grand Duke Michael is the favorite son of the Dowager Empress Marie Feodorovna, sister of the Dowager Queen Alexandra of Great Britain. He has also been strongly opposed to the German influence in the Russian imperial family.

Banished from Russia by his brother early in 1913 because of his morganic marriage, Grand Duke Michael spent some time in exile in England. He returned to Russia late in August, 1914, and was reported to have taken a command in the army. Since then there have been no reports of his whereabouts and activities.

Born November 22, 1878, he is ten years younger than the Emperor. His education was wholly military and he has held many honorary commands in the army.

As the next in succession to the Russian throne prior to 1904, and afterward, Grand Duke Michael often acted as the representative of Emperor Nicholas at royal funerals and marriages.

regiment at Lelets, in Southern Russia. The next year he was permitted to return to St. Petersburg and in 1911 he surprised his brother and the Imperial family by his marriage to Mme. Sheremetievskaja, a divorcee. After his marriage, he renounced his rights of succession to the Imperial throne.

On January 1, 1913, Grand Duke Michael was banished from Russia by Emperor Nicholas and relieved of the command of the Chevalier guards because of his marriage. A few days later an Imperial manifesto ousted him from his position as regent designate. A few months afterward it was rumored in secret police circles in Russia that evidence had been discovered connecting Grand Duke Michael with a plot against the Emperor and that the Grand Duke Alexis. At the outbreak of the European war, however, he returned to Russia and apparently resumed his former dignities and positions.

TWO MINISTERS HELD BY RUSS

Soldiers Demanded Former War Minister Be Turned Over to Them

By Associated Press
London, March 16.—Premier Goltzine, Minister of the Interior Protopopoff and the minister of justice were among those arrested and brought to the duma building by the revolutionary executive committee's orders, according to a Reuter's Petrograd dispatch. Premier Goltzine was later released, but the other two ministers are still held.

The dispatch says that when the soldiers guarding the duma learned of the arrival there under arrest of General Soukhomlinoff, former minister of war, they loudly demanded that he be surrendered to them. The deputies had great difficulty in calming the troops, who insisted that at least the general's epaulettes be torn off. The former minister submitted quietly to this degradation.

General Soukhomlinoff was minister of war from March, 1909, until June, 1915, when he resigned. Shortly after his resignation sensational charges were brought against him of graft, treason and of being in the pay of the Germans.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
