PASS RESOLUTIONS FOR THEIR PASTOR

Grace Methodist Church Organizations Show Love and Loyalty to Rev. Dr. Fox

More than three hundred members of Grace Methodist Church united in a reception last evening to Rev. Dr. John D. Fox, the retiring pastor, and to Mrs. Fox. Flowers, ferns and palms made beautiful decorations.

The reception was in charge of the officers of the Sunday school, and was a tribute to the work of the pastor in building up the membership and average attendance.

At a recent meeting the Sunday School Board adopted these resolutions: Whereas, Dr. John D. Fox, for seven years pastor of the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, has been called to new fields of labor; and his stay at Grace Church he has endeared himself to all with whom he has come in contact, both in and out of the church; and

Whereas, His faithful wife has stood by him in all his labors and has been a loyal and efficient teacher in the Sunday school; and

Whereas, The Sunday School Board of the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, deems it fit and proper that on their departure they should carry away with them some evidence of the esteem in which they are held by the officers, teachers and scholars of the school; therefore

Be It Resolved, That the Sunday School Board of the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, for and on behalf of the school, hereby expresses its confidence in Dr. John D. Fox as a preacher of the gospel as given to us by the Christ, its love and esteem for him and his dear wife, and its appreciation of the work done by them in the advancement of the Master's kingdom while in our midst.

Be It Further Resolved, that this resolution be placed on the minutes of the board and a copy duly signed by the superintendent and secretary be handed to Dr. and Mrs. Fox.

A similar action was taken by the Women's Missionary Societies, which expressed "love and loyalty and an appreciation of the unwearied efforts of Dr. Fox, and Mrs. Fox."

In the receiving line with Dr. and Mrs. Fox were H. E. Sausaman, superintendent of the Senior and Junior Departments; J. Horace McFarland, of the Primary and Mrs. Samuel D. Sanson, of the Beginner's school; Mrs. Frederick E. Downes, Mrs. E. Fred Rowe and Miss Martha M. Tomkinson. Refreshments were served by the younger members of the school.
