Hassett School Teams Annex Two More Games; Girls Have Clean-Up

Hassett School of Gymnastic fives were both victorious last night in games played on the Cathedral Hall floor, the boys' five winning over the Albright College team by a score of 30 to 27, and the co-eds defeating the Moravian Parochial School girls' five by the score of 25 to 14.

Both contests were well played with the local tossers always in the lead. The boys' team displayed excellent teamwork and were able to break the long winning streak of the college five. The Hassett girls played well both on the offense and defense. The summaries:

Training Camp Gossip

Jacksonville, Fla., March 17.—Manager Mack called for the end of daily practice at an early hour last evening and about all that featured the work was an improvement in batting. Fing Bodie, Strunk and Thrasher took it upon themselves to swing liberally against some fast ones offered by young twirlers. Bodie claims that he landed the majority of safe swats in a six-inning encounter. Thrasher swung so viciously in the afternoon that he twisted his neck and complained of a little soreness at a victory for Bill Killefer's Yankees over Pat Moran's regulars. The final count was 5 to 3 in favor of the Yankees, largely because they pounced upon the delivery of Norman Lutz, the Canadian right-hander, in the first inning for four tallies.

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 17.—The first baseball game at the training camp of the Phillies yesterday over the five-inning round resulted in a victory for Bill Killefer's Yankees over Pat Moran's regulars. The final count was 5 to 3 in favor of the Yankees, largely because they pounced upon the delivery of Norman Lutz, the Canadian right-hander, in the first inning for four tallies.

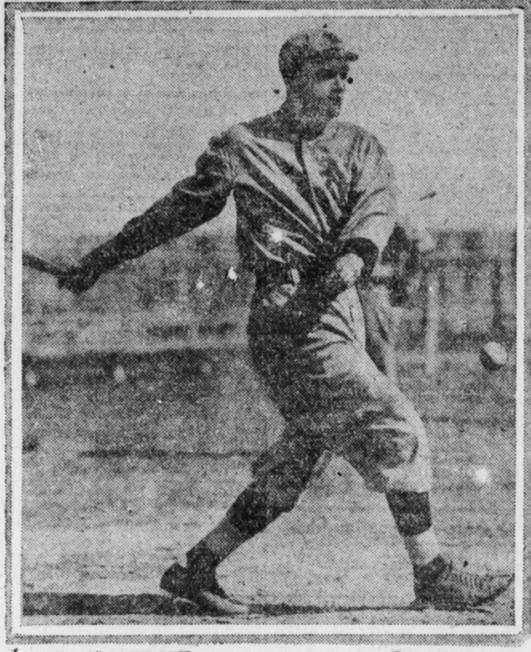

Hot Springs, Ark., March 17.—Manager Robinson received a telegram yesterday from Buck Wheat announcing that he would arrive here next Sunday morning. Wheat was in conference with President Ebbets upon his arrival and it would not be surprising to see the Dodgers' left fielder in his regular position Sunday against the Red Sox. Rain started last night and continued up to noon to-day. The sun, however, came out bright and warm about 1 o'clock, but the grounds were unfit for any kind of a workout.

Marlin, Texas, March 17.—A terrible bombardment of "Pie" Way in the second inning of the practice game enabled McGraw's colts to register an easy victory over the regulars here yesterday afternoon. The game went only six innings and the score was 10 to 2. Nine of these runs were lumped in the second inning after the regulars had a chance to retire the side before anybody crossed the plate. Only a few of the New York party were left in Marlin last night when the Giants departed at midnight for their weekend games in Galveston and Houston.

Macon, Ga., March 17.—Seasoned and expert pitchers were on the crest in the battle of the Yankees yesterday. A snappy and cleverly played seven-inning scrap took place, which the second team won, 5 to 2. The second team won by stronger hitting. Batteries for the second team were Caldwell, Cullon, Numamaker and Olsen; for the regulars, Morrige, Shawkey, Alexander and Walters.

STEELTON SCHOOL WINS Yesterday afternoon on the Felton Hall floor the Steelton Central Grammar School five defeated the Steele Grammar School five by the score of 22 to 12. Wigfield played a strong game for Steelton, scoring 5 field goals. It was the nineteenth victory for the Steelton lads.

Powers, were heard by Franklin Lord, the Governor's legal adviser. Mr. Lord's findings, in which the Governor concurred, were summarized as follows: "I deem the commissioner's actions in borrowing money from a manager of a boxer recommending a man to promote a fight, indorsing his note in order to enable him to promote said fight; taking free tickets, especially in large numbers, for boxing matches and from those interested in the Madison Square Garden for other entertainments or shows, to be improper. I, therefore, recommend that this charge is sustained."

Will one of the few hundred more or less imperious men of the planet step forward and deliver "Stocks and Stockings" at the Orpheum to-night, one mile, curable and up-to-date vice? George is simply pining away with sorrow over the fact that he has none of the attractions which are the province of the Pe in—and besides, George has business reasons. Although there are some screamingly funny, with characters that are typically American, or rather New York, in the present production of "A World of Pleasure," it is a little bizarre, and more colorful and certainly richer in texture and more costly than the average picture in any previous Winter Garden production. And when it comes to novelty of scene there is nothing to be said for the most laughable of farcical hits of the year.

MINERS MUST BUY TOOLS Anthracite coal miners must equip themselves with proper tools and use intelligent methods of working their chambers to earn a fair day's wages, ruled Charles P. AMUSEMENTS "ALONE AT LAST" A MUSICAL GEM Franz Lehar's Show Heard Last Night With Excellent Soloists and Charm Those of the audience who attended the Schubert's production of "Alone at Last," a free adaptation from Franz Lehar's "Endlich Allein," were indeed treated to a musical feast thus far in the present season incomparable in operetta. Likewise, those who expected something akin to the same author's former popular success, "The Merry Widow," found that there was a vast difference in the relative make-ups of the two plays. "Alone at Last" is a musical gem. "The Merry Widow" was infinitely more vivacious and sparkling than this last. But "Alone at Last" is none the less beautiful because it is the less vivacious. Melody of a rare order for operetta characterizes "Alone at Last" and voices of a rare order interpreted the music. The ensemble was perfect, and the delicate harmony was most beautiful sung. And so, too, were the solos, duets and trios, which sprinkled the entire piece. Good voices were needed, and good voices there were. Notable among the voices were those of Mabel Weeks as Dolly Cloverdale, Fritz von Busing as Tillie Dachau, two sopranos of unusual beauty, Count Spensgen and his son, respectively. The latter had particularly good opportunity in his song, "Some Little Bug Will Get You Some Day," a song the words of which have had publication in this paper.

As a whole, "Alone at Last," was scenically and musically perfect. Action and plot gave way to these two elements, but this did not mar the piece. "Alone at Last" was excellent entertainment.
