ALL THE NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA TOWNS

"SHOULD U.S. DECLARE WAR?"

Mount Union Boy Scouts Debate Question at Recent Meeting

NEGATIVE SIDE WINS

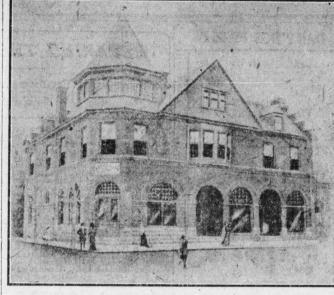

High School Will Put Football Team in Field Next Season

Mount Union, Pa., March 17.-Troop bate on Wednesday evening on the question, Resolved, That the United States Should Immediately Declare War on Germany." The speakers were Rayin the affirmative, and Herbert Mosser and Newton Taylor negative. The judges decided in favor of the negative.-The High school has decided to a football team in the field in the fall of 1917. A manager has been se-lected and a game with Clearfield ac-cepted for Thanksgiving.—The town is badly in need of a street cleaning campaign.—J. W. Yoder, Institute di-trector, visited the schools on Monday, rector, visited the schools on Monday.

—Two socials were held this week. The ladies of the Prebyterian Church gave a social to the friends of the church and the High School boys entertained the girls in the High School Auditorium.—Dr. Shannon, of Selinsgrove, has moved to town and will be the pastor of the Lutheran Church.—Frank Saylor is remodeling his dwelling in Shirley street, and will convert it into store rooms.—Nelson S. Darling gave a lecture Thursday before a large crowd.—The High School basketball team plays Orbisonia High to-night.

stertined the girls in the light school grove, has moved up town and will be the patter of the Lotheran Churching in Shirley street, and will be the patter of the Lotheran Churching in Shirley street, and will not cover it into store rooms.—School S. Darling in Shirley street, and will not cover it into store rooms.—School S. Darling in Shirley street, and will not cover it into store rooms.—School S. Darling in Shirley street, and will not cover it into store rooms.—School S. Darling in Shirley street, and will not cover it into store rooms.—School S. Darling in Shirley street, and will not cover it into store rooms.—School S. Darling in Shirley S. Darling S. Da

SNYDER COUNTY'S LEADING BANKING HOUSE

Middleburg, Pa., March 17.—The First National Bank of Middleburg is to-day the leading banking institution in Snyder county. The growth of this thriving bank during the last two years has been remarkable. The building is one of the most modern a nd finest in the county.

The bank is capitalized at $50,000, the deposits are $600,000 and the surplus and net profits $160,000. James G. Thompson is cashier, William Roush assistant cashier, Russell Graybill teller and Miss Edna Reitz clerk. G. Alfred Schoch, one of Snyder county's leading capitalists, is president, William Hassinger, proprietor of the Franklin. Roller Mills, vice-president; M. Milner, one of the leading merchants of Sunbury; Jere Charles, a prominent merchant of Freeburg: S. A. Bradley, a merchant of Globe Mills, and John Showers, of Penn's Creek, are the directors.

SATURDAY EVENING,

WHITE WY ANDOTTES

Healthy, vigorous fowls produce healthy, fertile eggs, That means strong. vigorous chicks that will live, PAN-A-CE-A puts male and female stock in the pink of condition. A tonic, not a stimulant. You will quickly see its good effects and that they are permanent. If you don't find it so, simply return the empty packages to your dealer and get your money back. 1½ lbs., 26c; 8 lbs., 60c; 25-lb. Dr. Hess Instant Louse Killer ills lice. Sprinkle it on the hens, then add it to the dust ath occasionally and your poultry will be free from lice. lb., 25c; 3 lbs., 69c. Guaranteed. For sale by all dealers in poultry supplies. For Roup Use Dr. Hess Roup Re

In an effort to produce a breed of lowls that would combine heavy egglaying qualities with good table poultry qualities, in other words, a genical purpose fowl, the resourceful merican breeders have produced hree great breeds—Plymouth Rocks,

BUSY SCRATCHER! full of life and go, sturdy and strong little chicks be-cause they're fed on

Conkegs Buttermilk STARTING FOOD the complete food for the first three weeks, Helps digestion, keeps off disease, makes busy, happy, healthy, fast growing chicks. Costs Ic per chick. Buy a Bag, $1. Pkgs, 25c, 50c Conkey's Roup Remedy—for treating and preventing this deadly, contagious disease. Pkgs. 25c, 50c. AT YOUR DEALER

Wyandottes and Rhode Island Reds.
Of the several varieties of Wyandottes, the White is the most popular, dottes, the White is the white is the most popular, dottes, the White is the most popular, dottes, the White is the most popular, dottes, the White is the most popular, he was with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reachard spent Sunday with his

$1,649 RECEIVED PLANTS POTATOES Dauphin County Farmer Working at 84 Years FARM STOCK SELLS AT PUBLIC SALE IN WARM CELLAR

Horses, Cows and Pigs Bring Lewistown Man Gives Tubers Big Prices on Perry County Farms

SHOATS, $119.75 WILL

Yearling Calf Sells For $36 Three-Fourths of Residents and Two-Year-Old

Blain, Pa., March 17. — Mr. and Mrs. lbert Mumper are visiting the for-er's brother, David Mumper, at Utica, l. — Harry O. Hench's public sale of trm stock amounted to $1,649. The

Early Start; Now Selling at $3.40 Per Bushel

FARM GARDENS

Will Make Effort to Reduce Cost of Living

Lewistown, Pa., March 17.—Hugo Gottschalk has potatoes already plants brother, David Mumper, at Uties, s brother, David Mumper, at Uties, — Harry O. Hench's public sale of a stock amounted to $1,649. The horse brought $169 and a cow, $75; earling calf sold for $36 and a two-rold for $48. — The public sale of by Fred Shanafelser totaled $1,040; or pounds are wighing over eighting the people of this place planted any gardens. Now, due to the high cost of living three-fourths of the residents will farm their back yards.—The river front here will be improved this summire.—Potatoes are selling in Lewistown at $3.40 a bushel, but a drop in price is looked for.—Associate Judge J. Roller McCoy is improving from an attack of pneumonia.—Mrs. Nathave endeaugh, at Andersonburg. — Mrs. Harvey Dunkleberger was taken to the Harrisburg Hospital for treatment this week. — Miss Virtue Morrow, of Harrisburg, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Mary Bistline. — Miss Ruth Knox is visiting her sister, Mrs. Albert Seilhamer, at Harrisburg.

John Myers.—Miss

John Myers.—Miss Midred Wentz, of Philadelpi has returned to that city after a v visit a daughter at Detroit, Mich.—
Mrs. H. D. Riddle has returned home from visiting her son and wife at Detroit, Mich.—Harry Lear, of Chicago, is calling on Lewistown friends.—Mrs. John Hart, of Cleveland, O., is visiting her father, M. McLaughlin here.—Miss Mildred Wentz, of Philadelphia, land county, January 25, 1834. He is has returned to that city after a visit to her mother here.

Veteran, at work on his farm, three and starm, three and a half miles northwest of Harris-burg a concrete floor in the Newbreck garage, in North Baltimore street.—A force of men is placing a concrete floor in the Newbreck garage, in North Baltimore street.—Several weeks ago the work was begun, but on account of the extreme cold interfering, the work was begun, but on account of the extreme cold interfering, the work was begun, but on account of the extreme cold interfering, the work was begun, but on account of the extreme cold interfering, the work was begun, but on account of the extreme cold interfering, the work was begun, but on account of the extreme cold interfering, the work was begun, but on account of the extreme cold interfering, the work was begun, but on account of the extreme cold interfering, the work was begun, but on account of the extreme cold interfering, the work was begun, but on account of the extreme cold interfering, the work was begun hat on account of the extreme cold interfering, the work was begun accounted for the Newberg and hearty. When he was $1 years old, he plowed and seeded seventeen was been accounted for the Newberg and hearty. When he was $1 years old, he plowed and seeded seventeen was been accounted for the Newberg and hearty. When he was $1 years old, he plowed and hearty. When he was $1 years old, he plowed and hearty. When he was $1 years old, he plowed seventeen was been received.—As Ecdward Freeburn, of the start of the extreme cold interfering, the work was begun and hearty. When he was $1 years old, he plowed seventeen the heart of the extreme cold interfering the work was been rec

AT HIGH PRICES

Total Receipts From Sale on York County Farm Amount to $2,606

POTATO PRICE DROPS

Chickens, Shoats and Farm Implements Quickly Bought Up by Big Crowd

Dilisburg, Pa, March 17.—On Tuesday Jacob Miller held a public sale of his farm, stock and farming implements, on his farm, a half-mile north of town. The horses and cattle brought fair prices. One bull, fourteen months old, was sold for $90, to Lewis Wiley, and in a short time he inturn sold the animal to George Hartz for $100.—Potatoes sold for $1,90 per bushel. Chickens, as usual, were eagerly sought after and some of them sold as high as 24 cents per pound. Shoats weighing about 60 pounds were sold at $9 each. The farming implements sold at fair prices. The entire sale amounted to $3,606. Mr. Miller will move to Dilisburg in a short time.—William Weaver is ill at his home in North Baltimore street.—Mrs. Margargt Spahr has been ill for several days at the home of her sister, Mrs. William Harboldt, in South Baltimore street.—A force of men is placing a concrete floor in the Newbreck garage, in North Baltimore

