The following were present: Bob Hall, executive special representative, Aetna Accident and Liability Company, Hartford; Joseph W. Essick, general agent at Reading; H. C. Keller, Wrightsville; S. PERSISTENT SELLING UNSETTLES MARKET

Prices Highly Irregular Although Initial Quotations Show More Gains Than Losses With Shippings Developing Strength

New York, March 22.—Wall Street—Selling of the same persistent character which wiped out many of yesterday's gains in the final hour was again in evidence at the outset of today's trading. Prices were highly irregular, initial quotations, however, showing more gains than losses with especial strength in shippings. Central Leather and some of the metals, United States Steel also rose, a substantial fraction being reacted with marines, coppers and some of the rails.

Reversals of the first hour ran from 1 to 2 points in most of the steel and iron shares, with over 3 points in Bethlehem Steel new and old shares. Shippings also sagged with Central Leather, Industrial Alcohol and various minor specialties. Following the course of the preceding day, the list scored general recoveries from lowest levels, coppers and marines leading the higher movement before midday.

United States Steel was the most assured, however, and rails also sagged on light offerings. The turnover of the forenoon was little more than half of yesterday. Bonds were irregular.

MAIL COURTSHIP FAILS

Milton, Pa., March 22.—To marry a man she never saw, Miss Doris Faust of Milton, traveled to Galveston, Tex. Yesterday she returned still single, declaring that she had been fooled. She said that the man is a grandfather and had paid all the expenses of the trip. According to the young woman, she learned of James Austin through a matrimonial bureau. Photographs were exchanged and the one he sent represented a young and dashing man. He proposed and she accepted.

PREMATURE ALARM SOUNDED

Smoke issuing from a chimney at the home of R. E. Loy, 141 North Fourth street, was sufficient pretense to turn in an alarm from box 232 late last evening. Mrs. Loy had built a fire in a kitchen and the smoke was a trifle more dense than usual. This makes several alarms that have been turned in recently before investigation.
