To Hold County Teachers' Examinations Next Month

Announcement of dates for examinations of teachers in all county schools were sent out to-day by Superintendent of Schools F. E. Shambaugh and Assistant W. R. Zimmerman.

Examinations for both provisional and professional certificates will be held in two groups, according to subjects. Provisional examinations in written arithmetic, mental arithmetic, geography, physiology, grammar and orthography will be held April 21 at the Susquehanna township High school in Pleasant View and at the Elizabeth-ville high school.

The second group examination will be held May 26 on the following subjects: Algebra, reading and literature, eivil government, history, methods and management.

Professional certificate examinations

Professional certificate examinations Professional certificate examinations will be held May 26 and August 20. Candidates for these must have had at least two years of successful experience. Examinations for permanent State certificate will be held August 2 and 3.

Courthouse Notes

Take Prisoner Away. — Deputy Sheriff Burton R. Speas to-day took Basa Ilic, convicted of burglary, to the Eastern penitentiary. Ilic was sent-enced to a term of not less than three years. He was convicted on several charges. Was convicted on several charges.

Wills Probated by Danner. — The will of the late Emanuel Lehman, of Lykens, was probated to-day, and letters testamentary issued by Register Roy C. Danner to Lizzie M. Motter. Letters of administration in the estate of John E. Buckley, late of Wiconisco, were issued to the widow, Emelie Buckley.

Rule to Open Judgment. -Claiming his clients had not been served with a notice to appear in a suit brought by Pierce Rettew for a commission of $74 for purchasing property Robert Rosenberg, counsel for Philip Bloom, to-day asked the court to open the judgment. George R. Hull, attorney for Rettew, questioned the court's jurisdiction.

WESTERN UNION MEN HERE WILL GET SHORTER DAY
According to an announcement made this morning by Gustavus Catherman, manager of the local office of the Western Union Telegraph Company, fifteen employes of the company here will be affected by the decrease in working hours which will go into effect in all sections of the country on May 1.

The mania for interfering in other people's business is distinctly femiworking hours which will be feet in all sections of the country on May 1.

A universal eight-hour day will be paid extra for all overtime. Under present conditions day operators work on an average of nine hours—a day while night operators work from seven to eight, according to the duties to be performed. A statement issued from the main office of the company says the change will cost the company about $500,000 more annually.

CORNS ON TOES

Tells women how to dry up a corn so it lifts out

A woman's definition of selfishness is an individual who attends strictly to his own business, and who doesn't interfere with advice when other people are in trouble, nor prescribe on his own hook for a sick person.

This inability to attend to her own to trying to cut away these painful pests. For little cost there can be obtained at any pharmacy a quarter of an ounce of a drug called freezone, which is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft born or callus without the slightest danger or inconvenience.

A few drops applied directly upon the tender, aching corn stops the soreness and shortly the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out. It is a sticky substance, which dries the moment it is applied, and thousands of men and women use it because the corn shrivels up and comes out without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding iis sue or skin. Cut this out and try it if your corns bother you.—Advertisement.

This inability to attend to her own run theirs, without any assistance from her, goes a long way toward explaining why women so often fail in their undertakings. For instance, it is applied, and thousands of men and women break down physically. They try to carry the universe on their shoulders.

They could manage well enough with their own work, and bear with sufficient fortitude their own troubles, but when they add to that the accumulated afflictions of everybody with whom they are acquainted, they collapse under the burden of, woe.

It is doubtless a pity that Mrs. Jones should be such a poor manager and so wasteful and extravagant. It is much to be regretted that young Blank does not go to work and support his widowed mother. It is of a Solomon, every woman feels capable of speaking right up and answering the call, but it is well to occasionally reflect that other people are almost as capable of running their own affairs as we would be. This is always a surprise to us, but it is a fact nevertheless.

And that is a sad, sad truth Women can learn anything else except to let other people run their own affairs. That's as much beyond the average woman as a flight to the It takes a woman of heroic mould to arrive at the point of grace when she can behold another individual making a pie without thrusting her finger in it.

And the queerest part of it all is that by some quirk of feminine logic this unwarranted butting into other people's affairs is accounted a virtue by her instead of a vice.

There was probably never a marriage when everybody in the community didn't feel that they could have made a much more judicious selection for both parties than they had made for themselves, yet divorce is comparatively rare. Everyone of us 's dead sure that we could bring up everybody else's children much better than they are doing it, yet other people's children seem to turn out about as well as our own.

We women really affict ourselves about these matters. We are reduced to tears because Sallie Peters is going to marry the man she wants instead of the man whom we think would suit her. We aggravate our souls because Mrs. Perkins lets her baby play in the back yard with the cat instead of having it folding paper mats at the kindergarten. If the sympathy we lavish on people who don't need it nor desire it, and the amount of energy we expend on other people's affairs could be applied to our own business, we should all be shining examples of success.

People are always wondering what the lure of city life is. Its main attraction is that in a big city you are delivered from interfering neighbors. We never get to know people well enough for them to advise us, and delivered from interfering neighbors. We never get to know people well enough for them to advise us, and there is such great peace and happiness in being permitted to manage our own affairs in our own way that it compensates for every ill city people suffer. The millennium will have arrived when we all learn to mind our own business. But it will be an Eveless Eden without a single woman in it.

BY WATERY RING

has been conducting eyangelistic services in the Market Square Presbyterian audiences and the meetings are being crowned with success. This evening he will speak on "The Joys of Heaven."

"Some scientists have ridiculed the whole idea of the deluge, laughing at the thought of enough water falling to make a world-wide ocean covering the mountains to a depth of more than twenty feet. Christian scholars have usually concluded that the flood was extending over only the inhabited part of the earth. They have habited part of the earth. They have thought that by depositing a local depression of the earth and the incoming of the ocean tides (spoken of in Genesis as the breaking up of the fountains of the great deep), all that is written in holy Scripture can be calculated."

Genesis as the breaking up of the fountains of the great deep), all that is written in holy Scripture can be eplained."

Great Watery Ring

Dr. Russell, quoting Geologist I. N. Wail's theory expounded in his book, "The Earth's Annular System," said: "All planets go through a similar process in formation and that at one time the earth had its rings as Saturn has now. The last ring in the sky was a watery ring. This spread out toward the poles and became frayed at the edges, furnishing an aqueous envelope over the whole globe that produced those hothouse conditions which prevailed in the carboniferous era, allowing tropical vegetation to grow at the poles and involving an atmospheric humidity that accounts for both the wonderful luxuriant vegetation and the great length of human life in that day. The finding of mastodons and other animals in the ice of the North with undigested herbage in their stomachs indicates that they were overtaken by a sudden deluge. The breaking up of this aqueous ring would occur first at the poles, where centrifugal forces prevail over centripetal. Thus would begin the breaking up of the great watery deep that had enveloped the earth and the fulfillment of conditions for the last glacial epoch and the deluge of Noah's day.

Proof in Genesis

"This view accords with the statement of Genesis which describes a separation between the water under the firmament. The breaking up of the fountains of the great watery canopy. The rainbow thus becomes a real sign of safety for the future, for prior to Noah's day there had been no rainbow visible on earth, atmospheric conditions preventing it. Before the deluge the earth was largely land, with here and there a sea. About that time there were upheavals of the earth's surface and great depressions, providing ocean deepths which are now filled with water, first precipitated by the breaking up of the watery ring.

"This view is an aid to those who believe that the Bible, without an aim of teaching sclence, is, in all its record true to the facts of the
