Another Enemy of Time You hear more than a trifle about the long reign of Honus Wagner and Larry Lajoie. Also concerning the extended managerial careers of John McGraw and Clarke Griffith.

Worry and Age They say that worry will bring on age quicker than anything else. Yet no man in baseball has ever worried as Stallings worries through every game.

Managerial Ages There are few young leaders in baseball now. Mack is beyond fifty. McGraw, Jennings, Stallings, Griffith, Robinson, Rowland, Moran, Callahan, Jones are all beyond forty.

Bits From Sportland

According to an announcement by Coach Schlichter of the Harrisburg Academy, the baseball team of that school will open its baseball season on April 14 with a representative team from the State Highway Department.

Plans for having a shoot-off for the state live bird championship trophy have been changed. It is said the big contest may go over until November. At present there is lively competition for state honors and shoots will be frequent between aspirants for championship honors.

The Salem A. C. tossers were given a trimming last night on the Schimmell Grammar school floor by the Enbaur Arrow five. The final score was 21 to 15.

The Oberlin High School five had an easy time last night in defeating the Hummelstown High school five by the score of 94 to 18.

Steelton sportsmen are planning to hold a fox chase on Saturday afternoon. The quarry will be dropped just outside the borough limits. Participants in the chase are scheduled to meet at Kelm's hotel, Steelton, at 2 o'clock.

The Bowman & Co. five triumphed over the College Inn quintet last night in a contest played on the St. Francis floor. The score was 27 to 13.

"KAISER" WILHELM NOT WANTED Elmira, N. Y., March 29.—The deal that was to make "Kaiser" Bill Wilhelm coach of the young pitchers of the Kansas City American Association team has fallen through, according to a message from the western city. Wilhelm, who pitched great ball for the local New York State League team last year, took his time about answering John Ganzel's letter containing an offer of terms, consequently the latter sought elsewhere for a coach with the result that when Wilhelm arrived in Kansas City the other day he found he was not wanted.

CHALLENGES THE WORLD James Gallaghe, manager of Fighting Henry Baron, Lewistown, is out with a challenge to the world to meet his boy at 133 pounds. Gallaghe claims that his boy has fought the best in the country and has yet to hit the mat. All challenges should be addressed to James Gallaghe, care of W. F. Gebel's pool room, Lewistown. Baron is to meet Shifty Shock, of Shamokin, at Lewistown, in a short time.

Number Baseball Players Start New Feature in South

Memphis, March 29.—When the Brooklyn Dodgers and the Boston Red Sox took the field at Red Elm Park, Memphis, yesterday, for the first road game of their spring championship series, the town folk of the Southern burg witnessed an innovation in baseball. Players of both teams wore on the sleeves of their uniforms identification numbers similar to those adopted by some of the leading universities for their football warriors.

The numbers corresponded with those opposite the names of players on the score cards, and were the means of acquainting strangers to the players with their identity.

When the numbers were allotted considerable amusement arose when Jack Coombs drew number 13, but the Colby man, undaunted, only smiled, and said it was an omen of a successful season, and by no means was to be taken as an indication of disaster. Sherrod Smith picked number 23, and Manager Robinson, by unanimous vote, was awarded number one.

WELLY'S CORNER

If there is to be some real live baseball done in Harrisburg this year, it is up to the fans to make it certain. Manager George Cockill will give everybody an opportunity to prove their desire for a fast game. Liberal boosting will encourage Manager Cockill to greater activity. He has the boys from which to pick a fast team. He needs help, and next week starts a campaign to find out how many helpers he may depend upon.

President John K. Tener has not made an official announcement as to what will happen when war is declared. He does not deny that there will be some changes in major league plans, but he is also of the opinion that minor league towns will be benefited, and that with soldiers doing guard duty at industrial plants and along the railroads there will be good crowds at the games.

Whether or not there will be an automobile race at the Chicago speedway on May 30 depends on the action taken by Congress at the special war session which opens at Washington on Monday. This was the announcement made yesterday in Cincinnati, where David F. Reid, president of the Chicago Speedway, and Harry Lehman, president of the Cincinnati Speedway, were in conference regarding the Memorial Day date, for which both of them applied following its surrender by the management of the Indianapolis track.

The Welsh-Leonard bout will come off April 4. Manager McEtrick says Leonard is suffering with a severe cold and does not want to take any chances. New records for attendance at a basketball game are expected to-night when Central High and Tech tossers line up at Chestnut Street Auditorium for the second game in the local series. Both schools will be largely represented and the cheer choruses promise something interesting. The game itself is of great importance. A victory for Central will mean a third game on a neutral floor.
