MARCH 29, 1917.

Recent Deaths in

Lemoyne, Pa., March 29.—Since Cap-tain Ralph C. Crow, of the Machine Gun company of the Eighth regiment, with headquarters in the Lemoyne firehouse, issued a call for recruits some have signed, but many more are needed to bring this company up to war strength. Captain Crow urges that young men enlist at once.

enlist at once. Last night a section of the company went to New Cumberland in an effort to enlist men and to-night a section, with a truck, will journey to Mechanics-burg for the same purpose. To-mor-row a drill for the recruits will be held and another next Wednesday evening. Measurements for clothing for the "rookles" will be taken to-morrow night. The regular drill for the company will be held next Mon-day night.

MITE SOCIETY ENTERTAINED

MITE SOCIETY ENTERTAINED Dauphin, Pa., March 29,-On Tues-day evening the Mite Society of the Presbyterian Church was entertained by Mrs. J. D. M. Reed and Mrs. H. M., Reed at their home in Eric street. After the regular business-meeting a social time, with music and refresh-ments, was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Deibler, Mr. and Mrs. Wil-liam F. Reed, Mrs. Netta Liebengood, of Harrisburg; Mrs. Jennie Hickernell, Mrs. Blanch Robinson, Mrs. Warren Boughner, Miss Margaret Brooks, Miss Lucy Novinger, of Harrisburg; Miss Bertha Sellers, Miss Anne Miller, Miss Annie M. Webner, Miss Ruth Deibler, Miss Ethel R. Forney, Miss Sabra Clark, Charles E. Shaffer, Norman Brooks, Wellington Deibler, Russell e Reed, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. M. Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reed.

ANNOUNCE BIRTH OF SON

Dauphin, Pa., March 29.—Mr. and Mrs. George R. Garman, of South Erie street, announce the birth of a son, George Edward, on Sunday, March 25. Mrs. Garman was formerly Miss Frances Peck, of Edgewood.

MRS. ELIZA ARNSBERGER DIES MRS. ELIZA ARNSBERGER DIES Dillsburg, Pa., March 29.—Mrs. Eliza Arnsberger, aged 82 years, died at her home in West Church street yesterday morning after an illness of nearly six months. She was the widow of Daniel Arnsberger, a veteran of the Civil War, and she was one of those whose pension was increased Janu-ary 1, 1917. She was a member of the Dillsburg Lutheran Church. She is survived by five sons and three daugh-ters: Charles, of Carlisle; William, of York; John, of Sykesville, Md.; Henry, of near York Springs; James, of Dills-

Deaths in Central Pennsylvania

Wayneshore—Mrs. Ann Louise Duck-tt, widow of Dr. Richard Jacob Duck-tt, died at the home of her daughter, rs. A. W. Boteler, here yesterday, he was 64 years old and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. H. C. Grove, of Breathedville, Md., and Mrs. Bote-ler, of Waynesboro. Marietta—Mrs. William A. Kellen-berger, aged 67, died at Mt. Pleasant, Her husband, seven children, nineteen grandchildren, one greatgrandchild and a brother survive.

ough Can Borrow $20,000

For Improvements

Coal Sheds and Grain Elevaand Travels Into Perry tor This Spring County

Carlisle, P.a., March 29,—In a specialopinion filed here, Judge Sådier holdsthat 'the borough of Mount HollySprings comes under the provisions ofthe borough code of 1915, and that theact supersedes the old special law of1873, under which the town was in-corporated. The decision marks theculmination of a discussion extendingover a period of some years and pairesthe way for municipal improvementsin a large scale.New Bloomfield, P.a., March 29.—G. W. Garber, merchant, will installa 500-gallon gasoline tank under thepayement in front of his store.Duncannon, Pa., March 29.—CuylerT. Clouser, of Mahanoy Ridge, nearthis place, has what is' believed to bethe precord story for the travels of atoy balloon. Mr. Clouser while in afremoved and large scales will be putin where the buildings near the street will beused for acal issue bonds to two per cent, ofthe assessed valuation and raise, up-wards of $20,000, which will be usedfor street repair, bridge building andsimilar features.CountyNews Items of Interestin Central PennsylvaniaCounty Bending Works, will pay thethe coal will be used for acoal shed with cement floors so thatthe coal will be kept clean and dry.They also purpose putting on a largeat mobile truck for delivering coaland lumber.Duncannon, Pa., March 29.—CuylerT. Clouser, of Mahanoy Ridge, nearto be horizon grow gradually largerto be the record story for the travels ofa small balloon of the ordinary toyvariety. It bore a note with the ad-coal shed will be used for acoal shed will be seed for acoal shed will be used for acoal shed will be used for acoal shed will be used for athe is plant the best of the source wille in athe source is $20,000, which will be usedfor street repair, bridge building an antice wil

News Items of Interest in Central Pennsylvania
Chambersburg. — Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Solenberger quietly celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding at their home here yesterday.
Dinner was served their children, extrement of their pastor, the Rev. W. W. Sholl. The School Board has perfected plants and to det high. It will have a capacity of 20,000 bushels of grain.
The School Board has perfected plants and brought to perfection many time in the last six months, owing to steadier time they have worked the past few weeks, and to better cars.
Wilkes-Barre. — When fire started the fames she dropped dead.
Lebanon. — A movement was in-

NOTED MINISTERS TO PREACH Mechanicsburg, Pa., March 29.--Ow-ing to the transfer of the Rev. J. J. Resh, of the Methodist Episcopal Church here, to Clearfield, Pa., the pul-pit of the local church will be occu-pied on next Sunday by the Rev. Dr. Prince, of Carlisle, one of the ablest ministers of the conference, and on Easter Sunday the Rev. Dr. M. E. Swartz, the new superintendent of the Harrisburg District, will preach the sermon.

BIG ESTATE DIVIDED

BIG ESTATE DIVIDED Waynesboro, Pa., March 29.-Yester-day the will of the late Daniel Web-ster Hess was probated in the office of the Register of Wills. By the terms of the will Mr. Hess' wildow receives the residence and $15,000 in cash abso-lutely. The residue of the estate is to be converted into cash and divided equally among his surviving children. The estate is estimated to be worth in the neighborhood of $200,000.

FALLS DEAD FROM BUGGY

FALLS DEAD FROM BUGGY Arendtsville, Pa., March 29.—Horace G. Comfort, one of the most prominent residents of town, fell from his buggy yesterday, dying almost instantly, Mr. Comfort was 65 years old, and was returning to his home with his brother-in-law when stricken. He was a mem-ber of Borough Council and served as secretary of that body since the town was incorporated into a borough.

THREE BUILDINGS BURNED

Lewistown, Pa., March 23.-Fire of unknown origin last night destroyed theee buildings in an alley near St. John's Lutheran Church. One of the burned buildings was occupied by the Adams Express Company and one horse with harness and wagons were food for the flames. Another of the burned buildings was used as a garage and two automobiles were burned.

Tried Fruitola and Traxo and Has Never Since Been Troubled with

Gall Stones

A large flock of wild geese flew over the town, traveling in a northeasterly direction.
W. L. Pike was elected president of the Athletic Association for the coming summer; James Youtz, vice president; Harry Hummel, secretary, and Uriah L. Balsbaugh, treasurer.
The Methodist congregation will be supplied by a Dickinson student during the coming year, as the Rev. Meixell was not returned to Hummels-town at the Methodist conference at Philadelphia.
A birthday party was held on Wed-nesday evening at the home of Cecil Clark, in honor of his 16th birthday, by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Clark. The following schoolmates were in attendance: Harry Brantner, Lester Fromm, Paul Blouch, Edward Landis, Alfred M'Call, Anna Barclay, Lois and Dorothy Oakum, Mary Pat-rick, Joseph Wolaver, Agnes Breck-enmaker, Miriam and Caroline Bur-ridge, Phyliis Blackburn, Mildred and Emma Clark, Elizabeth Hummel, Violet Seibert, Bertha Rhoads. Mae # trandchildren, one greatgrandchild and brother survive. Highmont—John Gladfelter, aged 57, died from a stroke Tuesday night. He was a farmer and gardener and one of the best known men in this section. He is survived by his wife, four sons and a number of brothers and sisters.

If ther home in West Church street is yesterday morning after an illness of whether she saw the finames she dropped dead.
It behaves, a veteran of the set of the state Camp, Particitic the street and she was a member of the set in of the Siate Camp, Particitic the second the set of the state Camp.
It is 27, 1917, She was a member of the survey of the set in a gurated here yesterday for the 1913 means of the state Camp. Particitic the second the second

Will Hold a Very Special Sale of Three Hundred Dresses

Which were obtained greatly under price while buying dresses for the usual lines which we have prepared for the current season.

I Owing to the extensive business we have given our manufacturers, they felt they were obliged

More Than Anything <image>

Dreaded an Operation

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company's Bureau of Information has now direct connection with the Bell and Dial telephone service:

Ask for BELL 716 or DIAL 2161

If you are going to move you will want your electric lights on when you get to the new location.

In order to give our customers prompt service we ask you to

Notify Us in Advance

what changes you desire made, so that you will not be inconvenienced.

Call 4000 and be sure to give us both your new and old address.

Harrisburg Light & Power Company

Emma Clark, Elizabeth Hummel, Violet Seibert, Bertha Rhoads, Mae Kreiser, Letia Rhoads, Leta Lingle, Sara Bender, Mae Boyer, Wilbur Proctor, John and Edwin Hoerner, Edward Landis, Behney Buser, Wil-lard Clark, Miss Pearl Blackburn as. sisted Mrs. Clark in entertaining the children.

sisted Mrs. Clark in entertaining the children. Mrs. Frank Hummel was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Daniel Cassel, of Lancaster, on Sunday. Miss Sarah Henderson was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Grass, at Steelton on Sunday. Mrs. Serena Miller and Mrs. Knabe, of Harrisburg, spent Thursday with their brother, Samuel Kautz, and family. Mrs. Serena Miller and Mrs. Know, of Harrisburg, Spent Thursday with their brother, Samuel Kautz, and family. Miss Virginia Fox is visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Gay, at Philadelphia.

DAUPHIN

DAUPHIN Mr. and Mrs. E. Flowers, of Steel-ton, were guests of Miss Emma Bailets on Sunday. Miss Amy Walker, of Steelton, was the week-end guest of Mrs. J. E. Wil-

the week-end guest of Mis. of Mis. Mrs. Katharine Stare, of Baltimore, spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Howard McElwee. Roy Walker was home from Dur-ham over Sunday. Mrs. Wilbur Cummings and chil-drea, of Millersburg, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Pof-fenberger. Nimod Smith returned on Wednes-nesday from a two weeks' trip to Florida.

nesday from a two weeks trip to Florida. Mrs. Ralph Lutz is visiting the Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Lutz, at East Green-and Mrs. H. C. Lutz, at East Green-ville, Pa. Mrs. Emanuel Feaser has returned from 'a visit to her son, William Feaser, at Coye. Communion services will be held in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning, the Rev. R. F. Stirling, the pastor, in charge. Preparatory serv-ices will be held on Friday evening. Miss Mary Pielger, who was operated upon for apepndicits at the Harrisburg Hospital several weeks ago, has re-jurned to her home at Frantzville Heights.

Heights. The sewing class taught by Miss Mar-garet Brooks will hold a sale and home-bake at Miss Brooks' residence ne-bake at ans Saturday, April 7. Jeorge Gingerich and f and family to lend an effort to us to hold this sale.

 $\P$  There are a great many who wait for Schleisner's dress sales, knowing that they are of the extraordinary sort and always offer especially fine opportunities to procure distinctive dresses that ordinarily bring high prices at very moderate prices.

> And because the variety in this event is so large-comprising fine models for evening, afternoon, street and sports wear-in almost any shade one could desire-the sale will be very much more interesting.

This is the most extensive assortment of very fine dresses we've assembled for a special event and there are so many models (too many to give details) we shall group them in the following manner:

Values Range From $15.00 to $49.75

Special Prices Are:

$12.50 $10.90 $25.00 $18.50

$15.00 $29.75

An idea of the extent of the selection may be gathered from the following list of materials and colors:

Taffeta	Serges Wool Jersey Shadow Lawn Green		Pearl Gray
Crepe Meteor			Beige	Black
Georgette With Taffeta			Hague Blue
Crepe de Chine	Gold	Navy	Apple Green	Chartreuse
No M	lail or C. O. D. O	rders. None R	eserved.	2 anite