

RULING MADE ON OLEO LICENSES

Agents of Manufacturers Must Also Take Out Licenses For Work in This State

Agents of manufacturers of oleomargarine must have licenses before they do any soliciting of business in Pennsylvania even if the orders they receive are to be filled through a licensed retail dealer, according to a ruling given to-day to Dairy and Food Commissioner James Foust by Deputy Attorney General W. M. Hargest. The question was raised by some western manufacturers having license to sell the product in Pennsylvania and who desired to send agents into this state to secure orders from housekeepers and others and to forward the orders to retailers for delivery. The manufacturers plan to pay all of the expenses. Mr. Hargest holds that the plan can not be carried out in Pennsylvania, saying: "It is within the letter of this statute to require every agent of a retail dealer to obtain a license before offering oleomargarine for sale. This construction, however, may not be within its spirit, but it is certainly within both the letter and the spirit to require an agent of the manufacturer who holds a wholesale license to take out a license before he shall be permitted to offer oleomargarine for sale at retail. Nothing said in this opinion is intended to apply to agents of licensed wholesale dealers who take orders for oleomargarine to be sent directly to and filled by said licensed dealers."

PLAN TO OFFSET PACIFIST IDEAS

Loyal Americans Organize to Combat Antipreparedness Moves

By Associated Press

New York, March 30.—Leaders of the Emergency Peace Federation said to-day that cancellation of permission to parade in Washington next Monday would not stop their campaign to influence Congress against a declaration of war. Although a large body of pacifists will assemble in Washington next week, plans for a demonstration there will be modified. The federation will keep up its effort to raise a $200,000 fund. Most of the money will be used for newspaper advertising.

The Naval Training Association of the United States is conducting an active campaign to offset the work of the organized pacifists. An appeal sent to the 2,000 members of the association, urges them to join "in endeavoring to show the real patriotic spirit of American citizens by telegraphing to the President or to your Congressman to stand firm for American rights and American honor at whatever cost."

A society to be known as the Vigilantes to encourage patriotism was organized last night at a dinner at the Harvard Club, attended by writers and artists. Irvin S. Cobb, one of the speakers, likened the United States to "a nice, large, juicy oyster without a shell, just waiting for some one with an oyster fork to come along."

AUSTRIA WANTS PEACE WITH U. S.

Almost Feverishly Anxious to Maintain American Relations

By Associated Press

Berne, March 29, via Paris, March 30.—A neutral diplomat who arrived here from Vienna to-day asserts that Austria is almost feverishly anxious to retain good relations with the United States, but is even more desirous and determined to support Germany. The continuance of friendly relations between Washington and Vienna depends almost entirely, he believes, upon the outcome of the crisis between Germany and the United States. According to the diplomat, if America and Germany go to war, Austria will follow the lead of her ally, but if peace is preserved Vienna hopes to avoid a break with the United States.

The economic situation in Austria is described by the traveler as very bad and getting steadily worse, although perhaps not worse than that in Germany.

SWISS TO TAKE NO PEACE STEP

Parliament Declares Time For Move Is Not Yet Ripe

By Associated Press

Berne, March 29, via Paris, March 30.—The Swiss parliament decided to-day by a vote of 88 to 22 that Switzerland should make no move in behalf of peace at the present time. This action was taken after hearing the majority and minority reports of a commission appointed to consider the possibility of a peace move by Switzerland.

The majority of the commission advised against any action at this time. The minority suggested: First, that the Bundesrat declare itself ready to take part in a general conference of states immediately after the war for the purpose of creating an international organization for the peaceful settlement of all political and economic international disputes; secondly, that the Bundesrat declare itself ready, either alone or in connection with other neutral states, to offer its good services for peace negotiations whenever the circumstances seem timely or whenever its services are required.

The two reports were discussed yesterday and parliament at first declared itself in favor of the majority report with the amendment that the Bundesrat, the federal executive committee, should have a free hand to act if future developments render it desirable. The minority group was dissatisfied with this action and forced the question to a vote with the result that they were decisively defeated.

M. Hoffman, director of the political department, in supporting the majority report said that the petitions for a peace move by Switzerland were well meant, but that the psychological moment for peace had not arrived. "However," said M. Hoffman, "we are optimistic enough to declare that it is an absolute necessity to reconstruct international law so as to create new guarantees in order that such things as we are experiencing now will be impossible again. The first threads, however, will be spun in some other way, perhaps, according to the Bryan scheme of agreements to defeat war, which America has concluded."

DEFENDING THE HOME WITH A MOUSETRAP GUN

For protecting the home against burglars, Daniel Cruice, of New York, offers us the home defense "gun." The "gun" uses real powder—not to shoot the offending burglar, but to awaken the sleeping household.

The contrivance is set by drawing back the skeleton hammer against the tension of its spring and by catching the hammer in the trigger. It is then placed on the floor with its trigger in contact with the door. When the door is opened, the trigger is hit, the hammer tripped, and the detonating powder fired.—Popular Science Monthly.

WE HAVE OVER 100 VOLCANOES

More than a quarter of the active volcanoes of the world are on United States soil, if we are to believe the Popular Science Monthly. We have the distinction of possessing about sixty volcanoes in Alaska and in the Aleutian Islands just off the coast. In the western United States, in the Philippines and in the Hawaiian Islands we have nearly as many more, making over a hundred volcanoes that we possess (not that we place any value upon their possession). There are but four hundred and seventeen throughout the entire globe.

TAILORED AT FASHION PARK

EASTER STYLE

Style to us means more than the mere showing of good looking garments. It means holding up the mirror of the World's Fashion Centers and giving you the newest clothes ideas first. It means interpreting the vogue and adapting them to each individual man in Harrisburg. It lies in the selection of the materials that go into the finished suit. It lies in the skilled workmanship that builds the clothes to meet the individual needs. In a word it means the Fashion Park method of clothing the American man. Never skimping in the making, for that is false economy, but putting the best of everything into the garment that the finished product may be worthy of the name it bears.
