"GYM" CLASSES IN ANNUAL FETE

Y. W. C. A. Gym Classes Under Leadership of Miss Bolles Give Annual Exhibition

Chestnut street hall was crowded to its utmost limit last night for the second annual exhibition of the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium and dancing classes under the wonderfully capable leadership of Miss Marjorie E. Bolles. There were calisthenic drills with and witaout wands, dumb-bells, Indian clubs, flags, etc. The military tactics of the Advanced Business Girls' class were especially good as well as the free-arm exercises by the wee little tots. The spring board and horse vaulting was fine demonstration of the modern athletic development for girls.

The second half of the program was devoted to folk and aesthetic dancing. The costumes were man yand varied each in turn delighting the eye. The most applauded by the audience, which was very enthusiastic in appreciation all during the evening, was the Advanced Junior class in (a) Board Walk, (b) Barn Dance. The girls were white middies and skirts with crimson ties and carried parasols while their "escorts" were white linen trousers and shirts, red ties and soft white hats. During part of the figure the "boys" whistled "When You Wore a Red, Red Rose," as they danced about the ladies of their choice.

In the grand finale all the classes joined to form a huge American flag, the colors of the costumes carrying out the plan of Old Glory headed by Uncle Sam and Miss Columbia, aged approximately 6 and 8 years.

Miss Bolles was assised by Miss Ella Yost at the piano, Mervin Crawford, drummer, and Miss Mabel Thorn, business manager, and was the recepient of baskets and bunches of spring blossoms and American Beauty roses. The costumes were man yand varied

MANY SOCIAL EVENTS PLANNED FOR WEEK FOLLOWING EASTER

The Usual Round of Dances, Pleasures For Students and Important Meetings of Women's Clubs Part of Atractions

Although the regular Easter festivities will not begin until April 9, quite a number of social events have been arranged for the coming week, probably because the spring recess of somany colleges comes at this time and one always enjoys meeting the students. All during Lent the Red Cross, the preparedness societies and various clubs have been doing their usual work, but the shadow of war has kept plans for social doings along quieter lines.

Miss Frances Balley will retire as

The most delightful of new blouses in an Easter assortment of tempting styles at tempting prices are shown at Astrich's, Fourth and Market streets, whose waist values have often been the talk of the town and these charming new georgettes will certainly arouse everyone's enthusiasm. They are offering most attractive styles in such new colors as chartreuse and blue, beige and shadow lawn, old gold and navy, exquisitely made with conventional embroidery designs touched with gold threads and with bits of hemstitching, picot edegs and fine pleatings to give the perfect finish that the well-dressed woman demands. They are selling for $4.98 and are really exceptionally values.

The Place For Boys

The Place For Boys

Some years ago the Doutrich Store for men, 304 Market street, opened a boy's department on their main floor, modern in all respects and as up-to-date as the men's department, and this new department became so popular and grew so rapidly that it soon became necessary to arrange for larger quarters and an 80-foot baleony was built to accommodate the boys. It was found that this new arrangement not only gave the needed space, but was more satisfactory and convenient, for the mothers could rest there comfortably and select the boys clothes at their leisure. This season Doutrichs are offering so many attractive styles in Easter suits for boys at $5.00, $6.50, $7.00 and $10.00, that the balcony for boys is the popular remdezvous for boys who want goodlooking clothes.

New Salads

Did you ever make salads of little stringless beans, French peas and fresh tomatoes? Take a few leaves of lettuce, and place a slice of tomato on them. Then a little mound of peas on the tomato, with the dainty, fine, stringless beans radiating star-like from the center. A special mayonnaise, tasty and of a lovely golden color sold by Studebaker's, makes a pretty garnish as well as giving the salad a delicious flavor. The Studebaker store (Mr. George Barnes), Second street at the crossing of State offers an especially fine grade of little peas in cans, while their stringless beans are noted for their delicious tastiness.

Mr. Morell, of the Berryhill Nursery Company, will give a talk on "Early Flowering Shrubs."

A feature of this meeting will be that members of the class who have been studying plant life this winter will be given their first opportunity to analyze plants in natural form, from the many specimens which have been procured for this purpose. John F. Kob, chairman of this department, is the instructor of this class.
