CARLISLE PEOPLE PREPARE FOR WAR

Carlisle, Pa., March 31.—Carlisle is prepared to respond to the call for national defense should open hostilities ensue with Germany. Not only is Company G, of the Eighth regiment, prepared to answer the order of the President immediately, but moves are on foot to raise two other volunteer organizations, cadet soldiers at the Carlisle Indian School would offer their services, and James Riley Wheelock, noted Indian bandmaster, has offered to become a band leader with a division under ex-President Roosevelt. Wheelock is a graduate of the Carlisle Indian School in the class of 1896. He was a member of the celebrated Indian Band which toured the United States for five years. At the present time he is the director of the Municipal Band of Hagerstown, Md. Over 300 students are now ready for such an emergency as confronts the nation. Many graduates also could be depended on in case of war. Carlisle firemen are also considering forming a voluntary company and are seeking the services of former National Guard officers to command it. David Price, of Carlisle, is trying to secure enlistments for a company among the colored men of the town. Many of these are in the Tenth Cavalry and were in Mexico with Pershing.
