PRESIDENT OF VIGILANT FIRE COMPANY

John Strickler of York Member For 60 Years; His Grandson Is Fireman

Marietta, Pa., March 31.—John Strickler, of York, and his grandson, John Strickler Jones, are shown above. The aged man became a member of the Vigilant Fire Company sixty years ago, and is to-day serving as its president. He is probably the oldest fireman in point of service in the State. The Vigilant Company recently celebrated its 137th anniversary and at the banquet held in honor of the event the veteran fireman was given the title of "The Grand Old Man of Our Dear Vigilant." On the walls of the company parlor, back of where the speakers were seated was hung the American flag carried by Company A, Sixteenth regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, in 1861 (worth regiment), and it was under this flag that Mr. Strickler rendered service in the days of the rebellion. N. Sargent Ross, a judge of the York county courts and vice-president of the Vigilant Company, was toastmaster. Many fitting tributes were paid to the veteran fireman, and near the close he responded with a short talk. The grandson was born in 1903, and in 1910 was made the mascot of the company and marched in the annual inspection parade with his grand-father.
