ATHLETES ACTIVE IN TRACK WORK

Not Likely That Penn Relay Carnival Will Be Called Off; Tech Probabilities

Until official word is received here that the big Pennsylvania Relay Race Carnival, at Philadelphia, set for Friday and Saturday, April 27 and 28 will be called off track athletes at Central, Tech and Steelton high schools will continue training for this Much has been said or written about whether the war situation will affect the event. Pennsylvania authorities have looked over the situation very carefully and they are nearly a unit in thinking that there will, be no real reason for not holding the carnival as planned.

Technical and Central High schools planned.

Technical and Central High schools have sent relay teams to the Penn carnival for many years and have always made a good showing. Both schools will be represented by strong teams this season and expect to win the events in which they are entered. Coaches Working Squads Hard Coaches Horking Squads Hard Coaches Hill and Peet, of the Technical High school, have had a large squad working daily since the beginning of February and during the last week outside work has been started. The team is composed entirely of veterans this year and is fast developing. Captain Sutch, Eyster, Demming, Gippey are the men who will no doubt represent Tech in the relay race and Hahnlen will be the fifth man.

Coach Kunkle has been working his Central High school candidates hard for some time and expects to have a championship team this season. The squad has been doing sym work for several months and since the weather opened up has been out on the road daily.

Twenty-Third Carnival

This will be the twenty-third relay race carnival held by the University of Pennsylvania and this year I will bring together the finest and most representative host of college athletes ever to assemble on any field. All the larger colleges and universities in the United States will be repsented as will many of the smaller ones and this season's games promise to eclipse any of the previous brilliant piects that have made this event famous the world over.

The greatest interest will center, as usual about the great relay championships, in which college and high school teams will battle over the cinder path for supremacy. This year there will be a real battle for suprefacy between the east and west for this event.

Stars in Special Events

Stars in Special Events
The special events will bring together the highest class lot of athletes that have been in competition since the last Olympic games in Stockholm, in 1912. Simpson, of Missouri, world's record holder of the high hurdles, will meet the best in the country in this event. Richards, of Cornell, the Olympic high jump champion, will find worthy foes in Treweeke, Kansas, 6 ft. 3 in.; Fisher, Chicago, 6 ft. 2 in.; Webster, Illinois, 6 ft. 2 in.; Simons, Michigan, 6 ft. 2 in.; Hobbs, Dartmouth, 6 ft. 1 in., and Thibault, Pennsylvania, 6 ft. 1 in.

The Pentathlon star will be Berry Pennsylvania's star football player and all around athlete, winner of this event in 1915 and 1916. Thomas, Dartmouth; Fisher, Chicago; Burke, Wisconsin, and other all around ath-letes will force Berry to his limit this year.

'My bowels are regular, my headaches are gone, my stomach has been so strengthened that it digests my food without trouble. But what delights me most is that my feet no longer bother me. The pain and swelling have gone and I am able to be up and about my work. Tanlac certainly has done wonders for me and I will never forget it."

Spoiled by Lack of Singers Notably in Cast

"The Blue Paradise," an operetta in a prologue and two acts by Edgar Smith, was the bill at the Orpheum Saturday, matinee and evening. The play had a pretty little plot, more intense than the average plot which comprises the make-up of a musical company, and withai a welome relief from the impossible, hurriedly concluded plot with which most shows of the type are drawn in whirlwind fashion to a close. And "The Blue Paradise" had music, strains of rare beauty and order, which, unfortunately, in many listances, were almost lost through order, which, unfortunately, in many listances, were almost lost through voices, and the lost of the control of
