

York Craftsmen Get Increase in Wage Scale

York, Pa., April 2.—Beginning today the members of the various building trades in this city will receive pronounced increases in their compensation. Carpenters, who were raised to thirty cents an hour six months ago, will receive thirty-six cents an hour. Bricklayers, whose scale had been 45 cents an hour, will be allowed fifty cents. The master carpenters will demand forty-five cents an hour and the master bricklayers sixty cents an hour. Masons will be jumped from thirty-five to forty-five cents an hour and their bosses will ask fifty-five and sixty cents an hour for their men. Similar increases have been acceded for carriers and other helpers in these crafts. Plumbers, steamfitters and similar craftsmen, who have been averaging about $3 a day, will receive as high as $4 a day, and the masters are expected to go up to as high as fifty and sixty cents an hour for their work.

YALE CHAMPIONS AWARDED THE COVETED "Y" New Haven, Conn., April 2.—The "Y" most coveted of all honors among the undergraduates of Yale University, will be awarded to the members of this year's championship basketball and hockey teams, according to a resolution of the committee of the Athletic Association made yesterday. Ever since the close of the season the matter of awarding the varsity "Y" has been agitated by the prominent undergraduates who will be affected are "Charles" Taft, son of ex-President William H. Taft, and Newell Garfield, grandson of the former President.

DAVID K. PAUL DIES Mechanicsburg, Pa., April 2.—David K. Paul died on Friday evening at the home of his daughter, in Churchtown, at the age of 77 years. He was a member of the Church of God for many years. Three daughters and two sons survive as follows: Mrs. William Givler, of Churchtown; Mrs. A. C. Sheaffer, of Camden, N. J.; Mrs. Harry E. Neisley, of Carlisle; Harry S. and J. Frank, of Churchtown; also a brother, John Paul, of Mechanicsburg. Funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, in the Church of God, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Seyler, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Denner. Burial will be made in the Mt. Zion Cemetery, near Churchtown.

FOURTEEN DEATHS IN MARCH Mechanicsburg, Pa., April 2.—The Grim Reaper claimed a heavy toll from Mechanicsburg during the month of March, the death list being larger than for many years past. There were more than twice the number of the corresponding month last year. The list follows with fourteen names: March 3, Miss Mary Coover, aged 68 years; Mrs. George C. Coover, aged 64 years; March 4, Jacob Givler, aged 70 years; March 6, Marian E. Baer, aged 5 weeks; March 8, Mrs. Emily Black, aged 84 years; Mrs. Anna M. Sours, aged 88 years; March 10, J. Herman Morrette, aged 54 years; March 11, Julius Allen, aged 65 years; March 17, Henry B. Schroeder, aged 78 years; March 22, Hugh W. Strock, aged 37 years; March 23, Ralph Bomberger, aged 16 months; March 28, Mrs. Harriet Reiser, aged 70 years, and March 29, Mrs. Elizabeth Arnold, aged 78 years.

THIRTEEN ON YACHT DIE Lynn, Mass., April 2.—Fear that thirteen young men lost their lives in the wreck of the motorboat Moxie, which has been missing since Thursday night, and which was confirmed today. The hatch from the boat was found on one of the Brewster islands, outside Boston harbor, by Captain R. H. Robertson, of the cutter "Moxie." Captain Robertson said he now was convinced that his son and the twelve young men who accompanied him on a pleasure trip had lost their lives. It is believed that the boat struck Fawn Bar, off Winthrop headlands.

SHEBOYGAN VOTES ON WAR Sheboygan, Wis., April 2.—Widespread interest was manifested here today in the vote on the war referendum. It was estimated that 800 persons, many of them on their way home from the churches of the city, dropped ballots in the boxes placed in the downtown district. The question upon which the people of the city are asked to express an opinion is: "Shall our country enter the European war?"

NEGATIVE SIDE WINS West Fairview, Pa., April 2.—A debate on "Resolved, That the Government Should Own and Control All Railroads," at a meeting of the White Star Literary Society of the High school was won by the negative side. Fred Shaull won first prize of $1 as the best debater and Kenneth Lantz the second prize of 50 cents.

BIBLE CLASS MEETS Enola, Pa., April 2.—The Men's Bible class of Zion Lutheran Church, taught by the Rev. M. S. Sharp, pastor, met at the home of M. H. Garland, State Road, Thursday night. A luncheon was served to the Rev. M. S. Sharp, Dr. R. H. Holmes, H. H. Way, M. H. Garland, John Addams, John Roth, Mr. Priest, Mr. Kissinger and Mr. Fortenbaugh.

M. H. JAMES TO SPEAK Melville H. James, secretary of the William Penn Highway will address the Washington County Automobile Association at Washington, Pa., this evening on "Good Roads."

WEST SHORE NEWS

Evangelist Mealing Opens Campaign at Enola

Enola, Pa., April 2.—The Rev. W. C. Mealing opened his four-week union evangelistic campaign yesterday afternoon in the auditorium of the Summit Street school building. At both morning and afternoon services the hall was well filled. His sermon subjects were: "The Unpardonable Sin" at this evening; "Afternoon, 'Spiritual Twins';" evening, "He Roasts His God." The music and children's work is in charge of Mrs. Lucilla Page Mealing, wife of the Rev. Mr. Mealing. Mrs. Virginia Connor is in charge of the personal workers. The Rev. Mr. Mealing will preach on "The Unpardonable Sin" at this evening's meeting. Immediately after the service the executive committee, of which the Rev. F. Grant Sleep, pastor of the Methodist Church, is chairman, will hold a meeting. The churches co-operating in the campaign are the Reformed, Methodist, United Brethren and the Y. M. C. A. Meetings will be held every night with the exception of Saturday. Special services for children will be held several afternoons a week.

Social and Personal News Items of Towns Along West Shore

Mrs. George Smith and Mrs. Eckerd, of West Fairview, spent a day with Mrs. Isaac McKenley at her home at Shiremanstown. Mrs. Lawrence Westheaver, of Penbrook, is spending several days with relatives at Shiremanstown. Mrs. Scott Hoke, son, Darrell Hoke, of Shiremanstown, spent a day recently at Harrisburg. Mrs. Mamie Erb, 205 Hamilton street, Harrisburg, visited friends at Shiremanstown, on Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Millard, of Market street, New Cumberland, spent several days with her sister, at Shiremanstown. Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Atticks, of Brookline, Mass., are visiting relatives at New Cumberland. Miss Elizabeth Tritt, a student of the State Normal school, at Shippensburg, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Tritt, at New Cumberland, returned. Mrs. Lake of Elkwood, went to Baltimore to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law.

Miss Margaret Reigle, a student of Simmons College at Boston, Mass., is spending several weeks at her home in Bridge street, New Cumberland. William Tritt, of Third street, New Cumberland, is visiting his brother, George, at Chambersburg. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hippensteel and daughter, of New Cumberland, spent Sunday with relatives at Carlisle.

Miss Beckley, of Hillside, went to New York to-day. Miss Grace Apple, of Wellsville, spent several days with her sister, Mrs. R. R. Reiff, at New Cumberland. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Swartz, of Emisville; Mr. and Mrs. William Gartman and Mrs. Delaney, of York, visited D. Y. Lenhart's family at New Cumberland, yesterday.

TRINITY REFORMED OFFICERS Marysville, Pa., April 2.—Officers elected by Trinity Reformed Church assumed their duties yesterday. They are as follows: Superintendent, Scott S. Leiby; assistant superintendent, Frank W. Roberts; secretary, Miss Emma Roberts; recording secretary, F. W. Roberts; treasurer, E. B. Leiby; librarian, Miss Mary Corl; assistant librarian, Kenneth Lilley; pianist, Mrs. N. H. Nace; assistant pianist, Miss Carrie Smith; home department superintendent, Mrs. R. H. Cunningham and Mrs. J. E. Lilley; trade roll superintendent, Miss Katherine Roberts.

ENTERTAINS CLASS Shiremanstown, Pa., April 2.—Miss Jennie Kaufman entertained the Teachers Training Class of the United Brethren Church, at her residence, in East Main street, on Friday evening.

THE biggest room in the world is room for improvement. But when Nature's best pipe tobacco has been naturally improved into Velvet, that room ain't so big after all.

Duncannon Signs Veterans; Each Hold Good Records

Duncannon, April 2.—Frank Hart, of Carlisle, and Melvin Frankhouse, of Millintown, have been signed up to play with the local team of the Dauphin-Perry League during the coming season. Both are good players and will add materially to the strength of the team. Hart was with the Marysville team of the same circuit, during the past two years, winning the pennant for that team almost single handed in 1915. The first season he received a try-out with the Philadelphia Athletics and served for 2 time with a South Atlantic League team.

Wormleysburg Council Will Elect New Members Tonight

Wormleysburg, Pa., April 2.—A heavy schedule of ordinances will be brought up before council at its regular meeting to-night. Ordinances providing that each resident number his residence and fixing the tax and fine for digging up streets will be brought up on first reading. An ordinance providing that the borough pay rent for the five fire plugs in the borough now in possession of the Riverton Consolidated Water Company and the installation of two additional plugs will come up on final reading and will probably pass. Vacancies of the chief of police and in council will be filled to-night.

DOUBLE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Dauphin, Pa., April 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Speece entertained at their home at Speeceville, on Saturday afternoon, in honor of the thirtieth birthday anniversary of their daughter, Miss Edith Speece, and the twentieth anniversary of their nephew, Roy Speece, of Green Hill. The afternoon was spent in games and a hike along the towpath was enjoyed. The guests were: Miss Ethel Speece, of Green Hill; Misses Elizabeth and Mary Bogner; Misses Mary and Flora McCarty; Misses Edith, Ruth and Dorothy Speece; John Campbell, William J. Harvey, Waver, Trenchard Campbell, George Speece, Roy Speece, of Green Hill, and Howard Speece, Jr. Refreshments were served.

LANCASTER COUNTY DEATHS

Marietta.—Samuel L. Nissley, aged 72, a prominent resident of Landisville, died Saturday night from pneumonia. Two sons and a daughter survive. Marietta.—Franklin W. Erb, one of Marietta township's most prominent men, died after an illness from a complication of diseases. His wife, who was a schoolteacher many years, and several children survive. He was a member of the Presbyterian church at Mount Nebo. Marysville.—Frank Wettig, aged 75, died from a complication of diseases. He was a veteran of the Civil war, being a member of the First Regiment, and later in the band. His wife and several daughters survive.

LANDIS FAMILY REUNION

Marietta, Pa., April 2.—The Landis family, one of the largest in the United States, through the executive committee has set Saturday, August 4, at Litz Springs, as the date and place for the next annual reunion. This will mark the two hundredth anniversary of the first Landis settlement in Lancaster county and an elaborate program will be prepared.

Use McNeil's Cold Tablets.—Adv.

SUBURBAN NOTES

DILLISBURG Mrs. Frank Blair, of Philadelphia, spent the past week with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Spahr, in York street. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Sheffer and sons, Robert and William, spent Sunday with friends at Harrisburg.

Mrs. V. B. Snook and daughter, Anna Mae, of Lemoyne, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stouffer, of Baltimore street, Saturday. Mrs. L. W. Arnold, of Gettysburg street, spent Sunday with her son, J. E. Arnold, at Carlisle.

Mrs. Ephraim Brame, of Gardner's, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Eliza Klugh, on Hanover street. J. P. Hershey, of Bowmansdale, spent last week with his mother, Mrs. Frederick Hershey, on Second street.

The Rev. Ezekiah Cook has been ill at his home in Second street for several days past. William R. Kuntz, the local liveryman, who held public sale of horses, buggies, etc., on Saturday, March 24, shipped his household goods to Indianapolis, Ind. Mr. and Mrs. Kuntz left yesterday in their automobile for that place.

Russell Weaver, who conducted a livery in the rear of the Central Hotel, has taken charge of the livery stable on Second street and will vacate the stable formerly occupied.

George Keeter, of Elizabethtown, spent Saturday in this place.

Maud Klugh, of North Baltimore street, spent the past week with her mother, Mrs. H. S. Klugh, at Enola.

HALIFAX

Mrs. Charles Holmes, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, spent several days as the guest of Mrs. T. W. Ryan, at Mrs. Holmes, who is a native of Halifax, is a reader and impersonator of rare ability.

Alfred Klingner and family moved from Fishersville to Sunbury, where they will make their future home. Washington Camp, No. 576, P. O. S. of A., will initiate a large class of members into the mysteries of the order next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Joseph E. Epler gave a birthday party Tuesday at her home in Armstrong street, in honor of her little daughter, Helen's, birthday.

HUMMELSTOWN

Dr. William Shull is conducting the medical examination of the school children. Mrs. Elmer Oakum entertained her mother on Wednesday.

The stork left a boy at the home of Ralph Freese, the milkman, on Thursday morning. Palm Sunday morning "The Palms" was sung in the Reformed Church by Miss Grace Schaffner and in the Lutheran by George W. Karmany.

Mrs. Edgar C. Hummel, of Hiespire, spent several days with her son, Frank S. Strickler.

Mrs. Louisa Longmacker has returned to Steelton after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. William B. Shope. Mrs. Mary Knoll entertained Mr. and Mrs. John Fyne, of Harrisburg, on Sunday.

Mrs. George Larsen entertained Mrs. David Cassel, Mrs. P. W. Hartwell, Miss Alberta Grove and Mrs. William Harvey in honor of Mrs. Harvie's birthday. Mrs. Edgar C. Hummel spent a day with relatives in Steelton. Mrs. David Boyer visited her father at Annville on Sunday.

Joined For 30 Days For Tearing Recruiting Poster

York, Pa., April 2.—Robert Burke, aged thirty-two years, a resident of this city, and a Socialist, was committed to jail for thirty days by Mayor E. S. Hugentaller in default of payment of a fine of $100 on a charge of disorderly conduct in tearing down a naval recruiting office poster which had been displayed in front of the local recruiting office.

The offense occurred at an early hour Saturday morning in the presence of Patrolman Thomas D. Jones, although Burke did not see the officer. Burke claims it was done accidentally. The Mayor declares his intention of taking up the case with the Federal authorities and to push it to the limit. Burke yesterday wanted to enter the Flag Day parade, driving a team displaying an advertisement of an anti-war meeting which the Socialists are arranging, but he was prevented from doing so by a policeman. He served a term in the navy some time ago.

New West Shore Savings Association Starts Business

Lemoyne, Pa., April 2.—The West Shore Building and Savings Association will open for business this evening. The first regular meeting will be held in the Lemoyne Trust Company building at 7:30 o'clock, at which time subscriptions to the first series will be paid. The association is chartered with an authorized capital of $500,000; 2,000 of instalment stock; 4,000 shares of paid-up stock, with a par value of $25. Agencies for the payment of dues will be established in each town.

CLASS OFFICERS CHOSEN

Marysville, Pa., April 2.—At a recent meeting of the Sunday school class of the Methodist Church taught by Mrs. J. D. Shull these officers were elected: President, Victor Fenicle; vice president, Howard Williamson; secretary, Russell Manning; treasurer, Clair Morris and George Kling.

Well-Known Young Couple Married at Marysville

Marysville, Pa., April 2.—Miss Helen Pauline Wise, of Marysville, and Dr. Raymond William Pearson, of Milton, were married at Marysville Saturday afternoon. Miss Wise has been musical instructor at Shippensburg State Normal School for a number of years and Dr. Pearson is a first lieutenant in the dental corps of the United States army, now stationed on the Mexican border. Dr. Samuel A. Martin, of Lafayette University, performed the ceremony, and Dr. C. A. Gordinier, of Millersville State Normal School was best man.

MISS FOWLER ENTERTAINS

Lemoyne, Pa., April 2.—Miss Pearl Fowler entertained a number of friends at her home in Hummel avenue at a birthday party Friday evening. About thirty guests were present.

DWELLING CONTRACT AWARDED

Lemoyne, Pa., April 2.—R. W. Sawyer was awarded the contract for the erection of a $6,000 single brick dwelling for L. J. Gurnes, at the corner of Hummel avenue and Clinton street. This is one of the finest building plots in the borough.

Miss Weber's Pupils Give Enjoyable Piano Recital

Mechanicsburg, Pa., April 2.—Pupils of Miss Lillian Weber gave a successful piano recital Friday evening at her home in West Keller street, which was well attended. The following program was given: Sartorio, (a) "In Good Spirits;" (b) "Little and Fert;" (c) "Little Cradle Song;" Four Hands, Frank Stevenson, Marie Clark; Engelmann, "Bourgeois;" Frank Stevenson; Neumann, "Merry Making in the Garden," Op. 1, No. 4, four hands, Martha Laird, Miriam Weber; Streabog, "My Mama's Waltz," Marie Clark; Liourance, "By the Well;" Well, Eleanor Harold; Hiller, "Secret Wishes," Op. 51, No. 6, four hands, Marie Clark, Martha Laird; Wallerstein, "First Love," Op. 28, Martha Laird; Lange, "Heather Rose," Op. 78, No. 3, Miriam Weber; Streabos, Valse, Op. 100, No. 2, six hands, Miriam Weber, Marie Clark and Martha Laird.

FUNERAL OF MRS. ORTH

Hain, Pa., April 2.—Funeral services of Mrs. William Orth will be held tomorrow morning in Zion's Reformed Church. Burial will be made in the Union Cemetery. Mrs. Orth is survived by her husband and the following children: Mrs. Jefferson Neidigh, Mr. Frank Reisinger, of Blain; Mrs. W. Greable, of New Bloomfield; Lew. Orth, of Lewistown; Harry Orth and Miss Maude Orth, at home.

EASTER ENTERTAINMENT

Enola, Pa., April 2.—The annual Easter entertainment of the Methodist Sunday school will be held next Sunday morning. A special program is now being arranged by the persons in charge.

BENEFIT CONCERT

Marysville, Pa., April 2.—The Marysville Athletic Association will hold another benefit concert in Galen theatre Thursday evening, April 26. The Glee Club of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will again be the attraction.

Victrola advertisement featuring the 'His Master's Voice' logo, a gramophone, and a list of records with prices. The text promotes the variety and quality of Victor records, including Easter music and popular songs.