Important News of Easter Neckwear For Men

Style Assortments That Are Comprehensive: 50c to $2.50

With eventful news breaking afresh each day it is a matter of broad interest to men to know that we have assembled in our Men's Wear Section the most complete showing of neckwear styles that we have ever gathered together in any one season.

Since every man wants to be well dressed, or at least as well dressed as he can possibly be for the money he can afford to spend we are able to announce a group of styles that are really incomparable.

At 50c—expect to find fine quality four-in-hand in plaids, ombre and Roman stripes and handsome overshoot figures; the colorings are medium, light or dark to suit the fancy of the individual taste.

At 65c—board-end silk four-in-hand in rich colorings that are overshoot with figures.

At $1.00—wide-end silk four-in-hand in distinctive patterns of stripes and figures as well as solid colors.

At $2.50—Italian Magadore silk four-in-hands in woven Roman stripes.

Thousands of Ties at 18c to 50c

Including bat and club strings, shield and band Tech ties, four-in-hand and shield bows. Some of the patterns are of solid colors, some are figured, some striped and others are in the conventional black.

Shirts of Silk and Cotton Fabrics

Prices Range From 59c to $5.50

Easter ushers in the silk shirt season and we confidentially believe we are better prepared in this important branch of the Men's Department than any other time heretofore.

ELABORATE FETE FOR ALLIES' BLIND

Blinded Soldier-Lecturer, War Movies and Operatic Program at the Orpheum

One of the most elaborate charitable entertainments of Harrisburg's social season will take place at the Orpheum theater Friday evening,

April 13, under the auspices of the local committee of A. B. F. B. Permanent Blind Relief War Fund. Mrs. Lyman D. Gilbert is in charge. Miss Anna McCormick is the chairman. Mme. Alys Larreyne, the talented soprano soloist of the Paris and Hague Grand Opera Companies, will render many operatic selections. Sergeant Major Robert Middlemiss, the British officer, who was blinded by a hand-grenade at Gallipoli, will deliver a stirring address. Moving pictures specially imported from France, showing the blinded soldiers, first stricken in the trenches and gradually made permanently self-supporting, useful and happy through the present A. B. F. B. movement, will be exhibited. The entertainment will take place under their exclusive auspices. Many young society girls will act as ushers. Relief of Blinded. All money received from the entertainment will be applied to aid the fund in giving relief of the many soldiers and sailors of Great Britain, France and Belgium. In case the United States becomes involved in the present war, to the extent of having blinded soldiers and sailors, proceeds will be used to care for those too. The A. B. F. B. Permanent Blind Relief War Fund is the most widely organized of all American war relief societies for the benefit of the entente allies. Its national headquarters are at 590 Fifth Avenue, New York City, and it has branches in Boston, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Chicago, Richmond, Norfolk and more than a hundred other American towns and cities. Its purpose is to raise a $2,000,000 endowment to teach the blinded soldiers and sailors trades not requiring sight and subsequently to furnish them with all necessary tools and materials and to sell at good prices the articles which they make. The fund's American organizers include: Vincent Astor, August Belmont, Robert Bacon, Lyman J. Gage, U. S. Senator Thomas P. Gore, Myron T. Herrick, Otto H. Kahn, George A. Kessler, Ellihu Root, Whitney Warren and Joseph Widener. The honorary vice-presidents include hundreds of notables. The honorary treasurers are Frank A. Vanderbilt, president of the National City Bank of New York, Sir Edward Holden, chairman of the London City and

Midland Bank, and M. Georges Palain, Governor-General of the Bank of France. The fund will be distributed under the patronage of the Monarchs of England and Belgium and the President of France. 3 AUSTRIAN MINISTERS OUT. London, April 4.—The Austrian ministers of justice, war and finance have resigned after the revelation of a great scandal connected with army supplies according to a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from The Hague which quotes German newspapers as its authority. According to the dispatch three ministers assisted Dr. Franz, formerly director of the Vienna Deposit Bank, to escape the consequences of having illegally sold foodstuffs to the army at exorbitant prices. ORDERED TO DON UNIFORMS. By Associated Press. New York, April 4.—On orders issued from eastern department headquarters here, the men at all army posts along the Atlantic coast will appear to-day in their field service uniforms. RED LETTER DAY IN PARIS. Paris, April 4.—"It is a red letter day for us," was Premier Ribot's comment on President Wilson's speech. In conversation with his friends the premier expressed the deep joy felt by everybody in France over the entry into the conflict of the great American democracy.
