

New Cumberland Class Pleasantly Entertained

In honor of John Cohen and the Senior class of the New Cumberland High school Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Cohen entertained Monday evening. The class colors of turquoise and gold prevailed in the decorations with tulips and hyacinths in the flowers.

In attendance were the Misses Ethel Magone, Lillian Peddie, Margaret Diven, Pauline Swelbert, Margaret Rudy, Laura Straub, Dorothy Lenhart, Marion Heffernan, Della Souder, Ottilie Conely, Mary Switzer, Jeanette Sipe and Esther Taylor, Donald Shuler, John Parhamore, Frank Zeigler, Bruce Mansburger, Henry Cohen, John Cohen, Principal and Mrs. Rice and daughter, Eleonore Rice; Mr. Carl, first assistant principal; Miss Roberta Reiff, second assistant principal; Miss Mary Gracey, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cohen, Sara Cohen, Albert Cohen, the Misses Mildred Cohen and Florence Cohen.

PLAYING IN PHILADELPHIA—Miss Aida Kennedy and Miss Margaret Kennedy, of 1011 North Seventeenth street, and Miss Sara A. Lemer, of 2133 Green street, comprising the Lemer-Kennedy Trio, are in Philadelphia, playing a return engagement at a special school of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Friedman, of New York, are visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Kapner, of Cottage Ridge, for a few days. Mr. Albert H. Stackpole, a Yale student, is home from New Haven for the Easter recess.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS

MAKING BANDAGES AS RELIEF WORK

Covenant Sunday School Class of Thirty Members Interested in Red Cross

Making bandages for the Red Cross is becoming almost universal among the Harrisburg feminine contingent, the latest addition to the ranks of workers being the Sunday school class of Mrs. H. C. Schimmelfeng, in Covenant Presbyterian Church, composed of about thirty girls. The other evening the class met at the home of Miss Gertrude Smiley and beside making yards and yards of bandages, were given practical instruction in first aid and treatment by a trained surgical nurse who is a member of the class. Other meetings will be held from time to time by the class, which includes: Miss Mary Livingston, Miss Helen Livingston, Miss Hazel Wiler, Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Charles Hamill, Miss Lizette Sellers, Miss Eva Berry, Miss Pearl Johnson, Mrs. Gordon Smiley, Mrs. Earle Heckert, Mrs. Siders, Mrs. Seawright, Miss Dewey, Mrs. Percy Smith, Mrs.

CELEBRATE THEIR SILVER WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Kapner Receive Flowers, Gifts and Good Wishes From Many Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Kapner, of 2220 North Third street, held an informal reception last evening in celebration of their silver wedding anniversary. The house was a bower of beautiful blossoms, tulips, daffodils, hyacinths and other spring flowers sharing the honors with orchids, lilies and the rarest roses. A decorative color scheme of green and silver was effectively carried out and the lighting was by myriads of green candles. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Kapner, the latter charming in black net and silver headpiece, carrying an arm bouquet of American Beauties; Mrs. Joseph Claster in black net and sequins, Mrs. Morris E. Jacobson, dark blue crepe with gold ornamentations; Mrs. Joseph Nachman, blue Georgette crepe with gold beadings; Mrs. Simon Hirsch, black Georgette crepe and beadings; Mrs. Otto J. Buxbaum, gray crepe and silver embroideries; Mrs. Alfred Seligman, gold crepe and beadings; Mrs. Julius Gutman, wistaria crepe with sequins; Mrs. Edward Friedman of New York, Mrs. Kapner's sister, black satin and tulle embroidered in jets; Miss Helma Kapner, pink taffetas and silver.

Waldo Myers Has Joined Uncle Sam's Sailor Boys

Light, Miss McCann, Miss Irene Leonard, Miss Margaret Atkinson, Miss Edith Mair, Mrs. Ramsey, Miss Gertrude Smiley, Miss Ruth Elder and Mrs. Wasson.

Waldo L. Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Myers, of 122 North River street, has enlisted in the United States Navy, as a mechanical dentist. He left for Norfolk, Va., where he goes into training for three months, after which he will be assigned to a vessel. Mr. Myers is a former Technical high student.

MR. AND MRS. IRVIN DELONG GIVEN A SURPRISE PARTY—The following friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin DeLong, 140 Linden street, gave them a surprise party, spending the evening in a pleasant social way, closing with refreshments: Miss Myrtle Beck, Bessie Montgomery, Mabel Hanley, Ina Felix, Hester Cule, Ethel Straub, Mary Straub and Sidney Zimmerman, Walter Young, Paul Fray, William Essick, Irvin Shader, Mrs. W. W. Johnson, Mrs. G. W. Zimmerman, Mrs. John Sheek and Mrs. Emma Sheek. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Grace Garman, Aaron Bailey, Charles Garman, of Dauphin, W. McCafferty, of Hershey, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin DeLong and children Dorothy, Marshall, Eleonora and Leroy DeLong.

MANY ARE INTERESTED IN ZION CHOR'S LENTEN MUSIC—The choir of the Zion Lutheran Church, under the direction of Prof. Edwin J. Decevee, will sing the Lenten cantata, "The Seven Last Words on the Cross," by DuBois, Thursday evening, April 5, in the church. The soloists will be Mrs. Edwin J. Decevee, soprano; Miss Bennett, contralto, and Frederick P. Lutz, basso.

TO ATTEND DETROIT WEDDING—Miss Katharine E. Gorsas, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George A. Gorsas, 216 Maclay street, has gone to Detroit, Mich., to be one of the bridesmaids at the marriage of Miss Frances Borgman, of Dauphin, to Thomas Saragant Perry Griffin, of Washington, D. C., Tuesday, April 10, in the Episcopal Cathedral of Detroit.

TRIANGLE CLUB DANCE—The Triangle Club, under the direction of J. F. Snyder, C. W. Wilson and P. H. Yowler, will give one of the largest dances of the Easter holidays Monday evening, April 9, in Wintdale Hall. The Rieber Banjo and Saxophone orchestra, of Philadelphia, will play, and L. J. Wells will make the special decorations.

Country Club Matters Talked Over Last Night

Quincy Bent, Lesley McCreath, Frank Payne, R. Boone Abbott and John C. Herman were elected directors of the Country Club of Harrisburg last evening at a meeting in the Board of Trade building. John Fox Weiss and Lesley McCreath of the finance committee, told of the financial conditions of the club, and the building committee including Robert G. Goldsborough, chairman; Vance C. McCormick, Carl B. Ely, William M. Donaldson, Lesley McCreath, Mrs. Lyman D. Gilbert and Mrs. Martin E. Olmsted reported on the progress of the new club house at Fort Hunter, giving in detail the plans for out of door sports and road building. The old property at Coxestown has been reopened for members and George elected.

TO SPEND VACATION HERE—Miss Ruth Kinzer Payne, who made her debut this year and who has been studying music and art in New York city during the winter, returned today to spend the Easter recess with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Payne, of 1901 North Front street. Accompanying Miss Payne was Miss Katherine Cartmell, of Montclair, N. J., who will spend the Easter holidays as the guest of Miss Payne's sister, Miss Nellie Powell Payne.

Other Personals Page 12.

Fashionable Footwear

Our Street Boots for spring are winning the admiration of every woman that sees them.

They are the Ideal Boots for the short street skirt that makes good looking Boots for women so imperative.

Some models have White Tops, some with tops in various shades of Kid, artistically trimmed in contrasting colors.

Then there are colored leathers in beautiful shades of Brown, Pearl, Gray, Mahogany, Tan, etc.

Dainty perforations, Louis Heels and aluminum plates.

STECKLEY'S

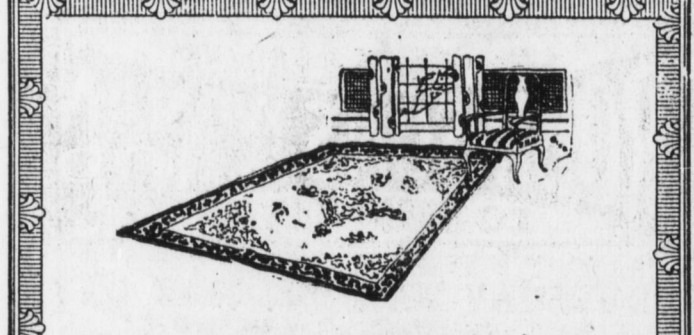

1220 N. Third St. Cor. Third & Broad

Witmer, Bair & Witmer Walnut near Second WE anticipated our Spring needs early--and have choice stocks of tailored, sport and fancy Suits--Coats in navy, black, covert and all the new shades of Spring--Dresses and Waists that are distinct in their style and combination--Coat Dresses in serge--Novelty top skirts in silk and cloth--Fetti-coats, silk, shetland and fibre sweaters.

Witmer, Bair & Witmer Walnut Near Second

OPENING

Thursday, April 5th MRS. WALZER 25 S. 2nd St.

Rugs of the New Season As displayed here represent the handwork of the country's best makers. We've never shown such a wondrous array of striking designs--many novelty patterns and staple styles aplenty. Particular attention is directed to the new Chinese Rugs in bright attractive sunrise-land colorings.

Have You Ordered Awnings? We Make Them Furniture Rugs Draperies GOLDSMITH'S North Market Square Known for Fine Furniture--at Moderate Prices--Since 1881

Mrs. Ross A. Hickok, of State street, accompanied her daughter, Miss Jane Hickok, to the Westover school, Connecticut, yesterday, to resume her studies after the spring vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Rogers, of Boston, are in town for a week's stay among relatives in Market street. Mrs. Frank J. Mohr, Jr., has gone to Van Lear, Ky., for a visit of several weeks. Miss Phoebe Western, of Philadelphia, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Jacob Henderson, of Verbeke street. Charles L. Bailey, III, a student of Yale University, came home last evening for the spring holidays. William and Gilbert Bailey, of Chestnut Hill Academy, are spending the Easter holidays at their home, 2103 North Third street.

Mrs. John Milton Colt and small daughter have gone home to New York after a brief visit with Mrs. Colt's mother, Mrs. John Y. Boyd, 124 Pine street. Mrs. Jesse E. B. Cunningham, of the Riverside apartments, who has been ill for several weeks, is recuperating in Atlantic City. Miss Lillian Potts Miller, a Wesleyan student, is spending the Easter recess with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman P. Miller, Cottage Ridge. Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Gregory, of Pittsburgh, left for home today after a week's visit among relatives in suburban Harrisburg.

Miss Edna Thompson, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mr. Charles L. Webster, at 224 Hamilton street. Miss Hedwig Moss, of Lancaster, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Lee Goldsmith, of 343 Woodbine street. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Smith, of Detroit, Mich., are stopping for a while with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Anderson, of North Third street. Mrs. Maurice Miller and two children, of Johnstown, are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Goldsmith, 805 North Sixth street. Mrs. Luther Yancey, of Richmond, Va., is visiting Mrs. James L. Kennedy, of State street, for the Easter holidays. Mrs. John J. Mulleney, of Paxtang, who has been in a Philadelphia hospital receiving treatment for an injured knee, is expected home on Saturday.

STORK NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Yingst, 1801 Swatara street, announce the birth of a daughter, Gladys Edna Yingst, Tuesday, April 3, 1917. Mrs. Yingst was Miss Ada Shadle, of Milton, prior to her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. George T. Rouch, of 337 Hummel street, announce the birth of a daughter, Sara Elizabeth Rouch, Monday, April 2, 1917. Mrs. Rouch was Miss Cotta Elizabeth Brown, of Milroy, prior to her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin McConnell, of Pittsburgh, former Harrisburgers, announce the birth of a son, Harold Wayne McConnell, Saturday, March 30, 1917. Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Stanton, of Philadelphia, announce the birth of a daughter, Grace Mae Stanton, Thursday, March 29, 1917. Mrs. Stanton was Miss Nellie Robinson, of this city, before her marriage.

Easter Plants Our stock of specimen plants for Easter is most excellent and very reasonably priced. We have our own Greenhouses and assure you that our Plants are fresh at all times. Easter Lilies . 50c to $2.00 Azaleas . . $2.00 to $5.00 Spireas . . . 75c to $2.00 We offer a large variety of Cut Flowers Fresh from our New Cumberland Greenhouses at very moderate prices. We ask you to place your order early so that the best care and attention to selection can be given. For the finest fresh flowers and best service you cannot do better than to place your order here. Keeney's Flower Shop ALWAYS POPULAR PRICES 810 N. Third St. Bell 2988 Dial 5739

P. G. Diener "He sells Diamonds" Easter Presents They should be enduring, as well as appropriate. That is why dainty jewelry, Dorine Cases, Vanities and similar dress accessories, or Bud Holders, Vases, and Cut Glass Baskets are splendid Easter presents. Rosaries and Crosses are also appropriate gifts at this season. Come to Diener's to select your Easter presents. Here you choose from the latest designs in gift things of especial appropriateness. Diener The Jeweler What we say it is, it is 408 Market Street

Our $1.00 Optical Offer For Ten Days Only We will fit you with a pair of first quality lenses, either far or near, put them in any of these style frames that are gold filled guaranteed, that you desire. $1.00 Your eyes examined free. No drops used. RUBIN & RUBIN Eye-sight Specialists, 320 Market St., (Over Hub) Open Wed. and Sat. Eve. Bell Phone 2020W.

DR. B. S. BEHNEY DENTAL SURGEON has established temporary offices at 317 N. Second St., Harrisburg, Pa. Bell Phone 1202-R OFFICES OF W. Harry Musser Attorney at Law and J. H. Musser & Son General Insurance Removed to 202 Walnut Street Room 10--Second Floor