NEWS OF STEELTON TO GIVE COUNTRY STEEL PRODUCTS

Steel Magnates Revising Ways and Means For Granting Government Best Service

The stirring events of the week have put ordinary trade considerations in the background. But leaders in the steel industry, the government's main war resource, have been busy finding ways to put their product and the best service of their plants at the country's disposal. The iron Age in summarizing the situation today says: "There was further conference in New York Tuesday between the steel manufacturers' committee and the national commissioner of the Council of National Defense. It is probable that the government will buy in the near future for its own wants and those of shipyards which are to do its work, 400,000 tons of plates, shapes and bars. Substantial concessions are to be made from current prices, but the proposal to take a 10-year market average was not adopted, as that would represent the government not owning their own ore and coal. "The problem is not as simple as it looks to be, or as the precedent of a 50 per cent cut in the copper price would suggest. Copper at one-half of the market still gives 100 per cent profit to many producers. Can Handle Needs "Government needs can be handled for the present without serious interference with ordinary trade; but while war requirements are only a small percentage of the total steel output, they represent a much larger proportion of the plate tonnage, and some plate users may have to stand aside. "What gives steel producers concern is the extent to which government buying will include finished steel for various industries with which the government will make contracts. The concessions the government will ask from these latter will call in turn for concessions on steel, and the trade is quite in the dark to-day as to the ultimate effect of the steel rami-fications upon the price structure. "Buyers of war steel for Europe have already inquired whether orders placed by United States government will delay deliveries of war steel for export. The answer is found in the announced purpose of the government to put its resources at the ultimate disposal of the fullest extent. Domestic consumers recognize that some export business that has not been entertained heretofore must now be given a place at the mills. Only time will show its volume."

Sudden Attack Brought Threat of Operation

Sent For a Bottle of Fruitola and Was Quickly Relieved of Gall Stone Trouble

MR. T. L. SHERMAN

After doctoring with several different doctors and getting no relief, Mr. T. L. Sherman, 17 Crocker Ave., Johnson City, N. Y., says he was taken very suddenly one night with severe pains and on calling the doctor was told he had gall stones and that an operation was necessary. Mr. Sherman writes, "I had heard of Fruitola so sent for a bottle and took it. I was relieved of a large quantity of gall stones, and continued the treatment. Now I am quite well, and have regained over forty pounds lost weight." Fruitola and Traxo are compounded from the original Edsall formulas at the Pinus Laboratories in Monticello, Ill., and can be purchased at drug stores; a doctor's prescription is not necessary. Fruitola is a pure fruit oil that acts as an intestinal lubricant and disintegrates the hardened waste to the sufferer's intense relief. One dose is usually sufficient to rebuild and restore the weakened, rundown system. A booklet of special interest to those who suffer from stomach trouble can be obtained by writing to the Pinus Laboratories, Monticello, Illinois.
