ODD FELLOWS TO INSTALL Dauphin Lodge No. 160, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will hold its first meeting in the new headquarters of the organization at Fackler's hall on Friday evening. The lodge for a number of years was located at 321 Market street. On Friday new members will be received and officers installed for the year.

WILL RENDER THE CRUCIFIXION The choir of the Fifth Street M. E. church will render the cantata, "The Crucifixion," by Sir John Stainer, on Good Friday evenings at 7.45 o'clock. The music will be preceded by a short talk on the subject of the cantata by the Rev. Dr. E. A. Pyles. The choir will be assisted by George Sutton, baritone. Other soloists are: Elias Wagner, bass; Robert Bratten, bass; quartet, Mrs. Smiley, Miss Stoner, Harvey Wagner and Elias Wagner; Thompson Martin, tenor and director; Miss Violette Cassel, organist.

PASSION DAY SERVICE Dr. Robert Bagnell, pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal church, has announced the Passion Day program for Friday, April 6, from 12 o'clock to 3 o'clock p. m. The program is divided into fifteen-minute periods and persons who cannot stay for the entire service are free to come and go during the organ interludes. Dr. Bagnell has requested all to enter and depart from the church in silence, as the service is extremely sacred. Dr. Bagnell will say a few words about each of the last seven words or sayings of Christ on the Cross. He has used a similar program at Brooklyn, N. Y., and Philadelphia with great success and he feels sure that the service will be extremely helpful and beneficial to all who attend.

BIBLE SCHOOL RALLY A preliminary Bible school rally will be held at the Fourth Street Church of Christ Friday night at 7.45 o'clock. The music will be in charge of the Bible school choir, led by Miss Mary Rudy. R. R. Bailey, superintendent, will conduct the devotional period. A twenty-minute sermon will be given by the pastor, the Rev. J. G. Smith. The rally is preparatory to a final rally to be held Sunday at 10 o'clock when an offering of $500 will be made and the final count in a campaign to secure 100 new scholars.

POLES TO RAISE U. S. ARMY Pittsburgh, April 5.—The Polish Falcons Alliance of America at the closing session of a special convention here last night voted to raise an army of 100,000 men, to be known as the "Kosciusko Army," which will be offered to the War Department for service wherever and whenever needed. A telegram was sent to President Wilson informing him of their intention.
