President, in this solemn and grave hour, an assurance of the same senti-ments of which I recently gave you evidence, sentiments which, under the present circumstances, have grown in lepth and warmth.

"This war would not have reached its final import had not the United States been led by the enemy himself to take part in it. To every impartial spirit it will be apparent, in the future more than ever in the past, that German imperialism, which desired, prepared and declared this war, had conceived the mad dream of establishing its hegemony throughout the world. It has succeeded throughout the world. It has succeeded

EASTER LUNCHEON TO-DAY

TN SUSQUEHANNA SCHOOL The forty-four children of the Susquehanna Open-Air School had a merry time to-day at luncheon, when their teachers, Miss Martan Williams and Miss Martha Fox gave them a surprise at luncheon. At each place was a little fluffy green nest filled with bright hued jelly and candy eggs. When Miss Heller, the school nurse arrived she found on the piano a larger nest with the prettiest colored candy eggs imaginable which the children told her the "Easter Bunny" had laid for her.

Law-Abiding Foreigners Not to Suffer Loss of Property or Liberty

By Associated Press

Washington, April 5. - Official anouncement was made to-day that foreigners in the United States who con duct themselves properly will suffer no loss of property or liberty as a result After receiving a formal opinion from Secretary Lansing, Secretary Tu-multy to-day sent the following tele-gram on the subject to Mayor Seger, of Passaic, N. J.: of Passaic, N. J.:

"There is no danger of any foreigner who conducts himself properly suffering any loss of property or liberty by reason of a state of war if such should be declared by Congress."

Mayor Seger wrote to the White House after a meeting of mayors of New Jersey cities at which the question was considered. He reported that some of the foreigners in Passaic were taking their money out of banks and in other ways indicating their apprehension. Mr. and Mrs. William Burkhart, of 329 Liberty street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Maud E. Burkhart, to John L. Geib. The cere-mony was performed by the Rev. William K. Conner, pastor of the Hummel Street Church of the Brethren.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a dainty white gown. The bridegroem was formerly from Maryland. After a wedding trip through various points in Maryland the young couple will be at home to their friends after April 15, in their new home, at 1528 Naudain street.
