Washington, April 6. — President Wilson to-day signed the resolution of Congress declaring a state of war between the United States and Germany

The war resolution was signed by the President at 1.11 o'clock. The President also signed a proclamation formally declaring a state of war between the United States and Germany. In the proclamation he called upon American citizens to give support to all measures of the government.

the signing of the resolution, the war which Germany actually has been making on the United States for many months is recognized in official form, and the United States thus announces to the world its determination to take up what President Wilson characterized in his address to Congress as Germany's challange to all the world, her war against humanity.

Speaker Clark signed the resolution soon after it passed the House in the early hours of this morning and Vice President Marshall had signed it soon after the Senate convened at noon. The engrossed copy was sent at once to the White House. It was waiting for the President when he returned from a short walk with Mrs. Wilson.

War between the United States and Germany becomes an actuality to-day immediately upon President Wilson's approval of the war resolution adopted by a vote of 373 to 50 by the House a

This action will set in motion the government's newly plan-ned machinery for mustring military, navy and economic forces into an aggressive war against Germany. Gerard, Before Great Gathering in Chestnut Street Hall, Justifies Action of Congress; Hatred For America Deliberately Fostered in Germany; Scenes of Patriotic Fervor in Harrisburg; As House Votes For War; Ovations For Governor and Cattel<sup>1</sup>

That Germany, victorious, would turn her attention from Europe to make war on America for the purpose of paying the expenses of the present conflict, that the Prussian government has carefully cultivated a spirit of hatred for the United States among German people with that end in view, that notwithstanding full knowledge of these facts, President Wilson made every effort to keep this country out of the war, and that now we are in, we go forward with the conviction that we are fighting for democracy as against an autocracy, that we are lined up with the free peoples of the earth for the overthrow of a military monarchy that is the last example in the world of the worn-out theory of the divine right of kings, that we stand shoulder to shoulder with the great libertyloving nations in a gigantic battle for the freedom of all mankind.

This in brief was the message James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Berlin delivered to nearly 3,000 people of Harrisburg last night who braved one of the worst storms in years and crowded the great Chestnut street hall beyond its capacity to demonstrate

BEIDLEMAN BILL IS SIGNED

Harrisburg. — Governor Brumbaugh this afternoon signed the Beidleman bill providing for the filling of va-cancies in third class cities. Under the provisions of this law city council of Harrisburg will in the next thirty days fill the vacancy created by the death of Commissioner Harry Bowman. The man chosen will serve out the unexpired term. In case council fails to name within the time limit the duty of filling the place passes to the county courts. This law saves the taxpayers about $6,000 which would have been necessary to meet the expenses of a special election. It is generally reported that council favors the choice of City Clerk Charles A. Miller for Mr. Bowman's place.
