

NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS

RED CROSS WANTS 1,000 MEMBERS

Mechanicsburg Chapter Growing Fast and Doing Good Work For Cause

Mechanicsburg, Pa., April 9.—Wonderful strides have been made by the Red Cross Chapter in this place since its organization six weeks ago. The officers and members are untiring in their efforts and a great amount of work is being accomplished. Already the sum of $400 has been subscribed in membership fees dating from the town meeting which was held about ten days ago. Several boxes are already ready to be sent and donations are being daily being sent in. Mrs. R. H. Thomas, Sr., has offered another room in addition to the present headquarters for the workers and the indications are that another will be necessary.

The real campaign for members has just started, with the Rev. H. Hall Sharp as chairman, in the effort to secure one thousand members. J. H. Geiger, manager of the Paramount Theater, has offered a benefit evening, with a strong war picture, for the cause, giving the house outright. The following finance committee has been appointed: Charles Eberly, S. F. Hauck, A. E. Sieber and Dr. J. Nelson Clark. F. K. Ployer is chairman of the committee of co-operation. The successful work of the chapter was the means of bringing a letter from the Central Committee of the American Red Cross at Washington, D. C., congratulating them on the excellent work accomplished.

New District Superintendent Preaches at Mechanicsburg

Mechanicsburg, Pa., April 9.—Yesterday morning the newly-appointed superintendent of the Harrisburg District, the Rev. Dr. Morris E. Swartz, delivered the sermon at the Methodist Episcopal Church in the evening of the Rev. Joseph H. Price, pastor of the Allison Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, in Carlisle, filled the pulpit. Under the direction of Mrs. H. A. Surface the Easter music was a feature of the services. The Rev. N. L. Ewver, acting president of Irving College, gave an able address at the Easter service in the Sunday school. There were songs by several classes and Miss Ida Weber sang a beautiful solo. An enjoyable part of the program was the march by the children of the primary department when each one was presented with a pot of flowers and basket of Easter eggs.

SERIES OF ACCIDENTS

Lowstown, Pa., April 9.—Jacob Houser had a foot badly injured by a heavy shell falling on it at the Standard Steel Works. Walter Riden suffered severe injury to one foot at the Standard Steel works, caused by a tire falling on it. Fred Hornsby, a mechanical expert employed at the Keystone garage here, is suffering with a badly mashed foot by being run over by an auto. C. L. Weyder of Lowstown, was the victim of an auto accident on the roadway near Altoona on Saturday when the machine skidded and ran into a big rock. Weyder was thrown against the windshield suffering painful cuts about the face and an injured thigh.

SUBURBAN PERSONALS

DUNCANNON
Mrs. George P. Thayer, of Altoona, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sieg.
Dr. B. F. Beale made a visit to Harrisburg.
Miss Kathryn Kochenderfer, of Altoona, is spending several days here as the guest of Miss Stella Hench.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunkel and little son, of Altoona, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dunkel.
Mrs. Margaret Dressler has returned to Altoona, after a several weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Johnston.
Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Smith announce the birth of a son Thursday, March 29.
Mr. and Mrs. Max B. Lightner announce the birth of a daughter, Saturday, March 31.

DAUPHIN
John Bricker has returned home from Decatur, Ill., where he spent the winter with his daughter, Mrs. David Lewis.
Mrs. Charles Shaffer and Miss Anne Shaffer left on Friday for a trip to Washington and Philadelphia.
James Lewis Gross, a student at Lehigh University, is spending the Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bell Gross.
Miss Mary Garman, of Halifax, was the week-end guest of Miss Alice Minsker.
Miss Emma Keener, of Harrisburg, spent several days with Miss Ethel R. Forney.

HALIFAX
Prof. W. Leroy Brooke, of State College, is spending several days as the guest of Miss Carrie Shop.
Frank Meader and son, of Altoona, spent Friday visiting his mother, Mrs. Mattie Meader.
Miss William Cooper, of Royersford, is spending the Easter vacation with his parents Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Cooker.
Miss Bowman, of Harrisburg, is home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bowman, for the Easter vacation.
Miss Margaret Snyder, English teacher in the High school, is spending several days with her parents at Mechanicsburg.
Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Still and children.

Stone From Blast Hits Man Quarter Mile Away

Marietta, Pa., April 9.—Henry Daveler, employed at the rebuilding of the Vesta furnace made a narrow escape from being killed on Saturday, while putting off a blast a large piece of ore fell on his head, he being a quarter of a mile away. A large gash was cut in his head and it was at first thought he was dead. He was revived with difficulty, and will be unable to work for some time.

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS
Dillsburg, Pa., April 9.—George Stokes, a well-known resident of Carroll township, was stricken with paralysis on Friday at his home. Mr. Stokes had made arrangements to take a Western trip this spring and visit his sons, but became ill before the time set to start. His condition is serious.

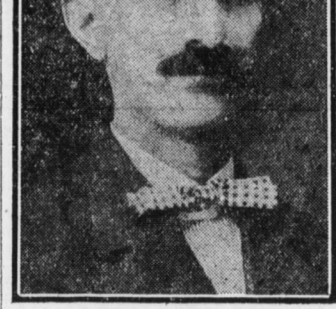

COLONEL BAIN'S LECTURE
Dillsburg, Pa., April 9.—Colonel George W. Bain, of Lexington, Ky., gave his lecture, "Searchlights of the Twentieth Century," in the Dillsburg Opera House Thursday night. This was the last of a series of entertainments. Colonel Bain is 76 years old and this was probably his last trip to Dillsburg.

Postmaster at Rheems, Lancaster County, Dies

Marietta, Pa., April 9.—Phares W. Kraybill, one of the best known men in Lancaster county, who served several terms as postmaster at Rheems, died Saturday night from a complication of diseases. He was a Republican and among the few who were reappointed postmaster under a Democratic administration. He was a merchant and conducted a large store. He leaves his wife, parents and two sisters. He was a member of the Odd Fellows and Golden Eagles.

WORK READY FOR FIREMEN'S UNION

West Shore Organization Will Consider Various Subjects at West Fairview Tonight
West Fairview, Pa., April 9.—The cause of a raise of seventy-five per cent in the water rates of the River Consolidated Water Company to consumers along the West Shore; discussion of the deplorable state of the Cumberland Valley Railroad bridge entering Lemoyne, and passing resolutions commending the work of the Wormleysburg and West Fairview councils in their recent efforts to give these towns adequate fire protection, is scheduled for action of the West Shore Firemen's Union in monthly session in the Good Will Fire Company hall tonight.

PHARES W. KRAYBILL

Marietta, Pa., April 9.—Phares W. Kraybill, one of the best known men in Lancaster county, who served several terms as postmaster at Rheems, died Saturday night from a complication of diseases. He was a Republican and among the few who were reappointed postmaster under a Democratic administration. He was a merchant and conducted a large store. He leaves his wife, parents and two sisters. He was a member of the Odd Fellows and Golden Eagles.

EGGS FOR HOSPITAL
Hummelstown, Pa., April 9.—Hummelstown school children contributed thirty-five dozen of eggs on Thursday for the Harrisburg Hospital. This was three dozen of an increase over their last year's contribution.

Four Easter Weddings of Young Millersburg Couples

Millersburg, Pa., April 9.—Herbert L. Hoffman, of Millersburg, and Miss Kathryn Rothermal, of Urban, were married on Friday at Grace Lutheran Church, Sunbury, by the Rev. Mr. Hartman. The young couple left on a trip to Buffalo and Niagara Falls. They will live in West Pine street.
H. Lambert Franke and Miss Katharine Pottelger were married on Friday night at the Lutheran parsonage by the Rev. Mr. Musselman.
On Saturday night John H. Snyder and Miss Florence Miller were married by the Rev. Mr. Musselman also at the parsonage. Both young couples are enjoying their honeymoon at Atlantic City.
On Saturday night the Rev. Mr. Haesler, of the United Brethren Church, united in marriage Russell H. Dressler and Mrs. Sadie Reed. They will live in Pine street.

Young Men of Millersburg Enlist in U. S. Service

Millersburg, Pa., April 9.—Claude Polk, Berley Frank, James Hartman, and Frank Lawley passed the preliminary examination for entrance to the United States army at the Harrisburg recruiting station on Saturday. They are all fine young men of Millersburg and left for Fort Slocum, N. Y., today. Polk and Frank will join the aviation corps and Hartman and Lawley the signal corps of the army. It is said that possibly 15 more young men of Millersburg will leave this week to enlist.

SUCCESSFUL EASTER SALE
Dauphin, Pa., April 9.—A successful Easter sale was held on Saturday afternoon by the sewing class taught by Miss Margaret Brooks, at her home in Erie street. The proceeds went towards the Easter offering of the Presbyterian Church as did the proceeds of the social held by the Bible class, taught by Charles Shaffer at the home of Mrs. Blanch Robinson, South Erie street, on Saturday evening. The entire Easter offering of the church amounted to almost two hundred dollars, a record amount.

EPIDEMIC OF MEASLES
Dillsburg, Pa., April 9.—A number of persons in along Beavertown R. D. 1 are afflicted with measles, so that the attendance at Arnold's School has been affected. Mrs. William Gimble, of Dillsburg, is also ill with the disease.

OLD GLORY WAVES 1,000 FEET HIGH

Patriotic Citizen of Dauphin Places Flag on Tip of Kittatinny Mountain
Dauphin, Pa., April 6.—Fired with patriotic spirit and enthusiasm, one of Dauphin's prominent citizens, William Bell Gross, climbed to the top of Kittatinny Mountain yesterday afternoon, in spite of the cold weather, and in the midst of the furries of snowflakes, unrolled the American flag and placed it on the very top of the mountain. All last night during the storm the stars and stripes waved in triumph, and now the emblem remains there where all can see—a fitting display of the patriotic loyalty of Dauphin, the town over which it stands guard. Now "Old Glory" waves on the heights of Kittatinny, 1,000 feet above the sea.

EASTER DANCE AT DAUPHIN
Dauphin, Pa., April 9.—A delightful Easter dance was held on Saturday evening, in the dance hall, which was artistically decorated for the occasion with bluebirds, a color scheme of blue and yellow prevailing. In attendance were the Misses Ora Biebel, Susan Jackson, Ethel Forney, Christine Long, Helen Miller, Helen DeVille, of Dayton, Ohio; Eleanor Leonard, Helen Louise Wallis, Martha Louise Cresswell, of Harrisburg; Carrie Elizabeth Gerberich, Ruth Shaffer, Esther Shaffer, and Sabra Clark; William Shanney, Max Long, Charles S. Gerberich, Tom Kinter, Bion C. Welker, James Lewis Gross, Richard C. Alden, of Steelton; Ira C. Kinder, Harry Leonard, Fred Kammerer, Paul Porter and Raymond Long, of Harrisburg.

George Stoke, Civil War Veteran, Dies From Stroke

Dillsburg, Pa., April 9.—George Stoke died at his home on Saturday after an illness of only two days. Mr. Stoke enjoyed his usual health during the winter and spring and had been making arrangements to make a trip through the West, visiting his four sons, all of whom live in the western states. On Thursday morning about 3 o'clock he was stricken with paralysis, and Dr. Crawford was summoned. Mr. Stoke was well known in this section of the county, having been a farmer in Franklin township for a number of years. A week ago he celebrated his eighty-third birthday. He was a veteran of the Civil War, and was an active member of the Evangelical church at Beavertown. He is survived by four sons, George A., of Fairmont, Minnesota; Samuel J., of Iron Mountain, Michigan; William and Albert, of Paw Paw, Illinois. The funeral will be held to-morrow at 12.30. Services will be held in Gardner's church, near Latimore, and burial made in the cemetery adjoining. Rev. Crabb, of Dillsburg will have charge.

GOOD SCHOOL RECORDS
Hummelstown, Pa., April 9.—On Thursday the public schools ended the sixth month. In the High School the average per cent. of attendance during the month for the boys was 96 and 97 for the girls. Thirteen pupils were present every day of the month, nine during term to date; sixteen were reported sick and ten visits were paid. The following pupils attended the entire month: Betty Muth, Catharine Rhoads, Caroline Schaffner, Ethel Stauffer, Sylvia Cassell, Alice Suggert, Miriam Cassel, Mary Grill, Ethel Lehman, Sara Shenk, Reba Keller, Margaret Cassel, Sara Cassel, Edith Eberole, Rachel Sutcliffe, Leta Hitz, Anna Webner, George Horner, Frank Shope, Ralph Eiter, Robert Kefler, Frank Muth, Russell Seaman, Russell Zenters, George Hartwell, Edward Balsbaugh, Aldus Yungst, Robert Spie, William Grill, Claud Metzger, Paul Landis.

BIBLE CLASS TESTIMONIALS
West Fairview, Pa., April 9.—J. Groff Sheaffer, superintendent of the St. Mark's Lutheran Sunday school, and the Rev. A. G. Wolf, pastor of the church, were presented with envelopes containing money by the Willing Workers Bible Class at the morning session of the Sunday school yesterday. Mrs. A. G. Wolf, teacher of the class, made the presentation speech to the superintendent, while Mrs. William Bell presented the pastor with his testimonial.

CHILD HAS BRIGHT'S DISEASE
Waynesboro, Pa., April 9.—Catherine King, 7-year-old daughter of Ernest King, is ill with acute Bright's disease at her home in Shady Grove. Mr. King's family experienced much sickness recently. Last fall Mr. King himself was threatened with typhoid fever and his wife and only son were in the Chambersburg Hospital at the time with typhoid fever.

NEW PASTOR RECEIVED
Waynesboro, April 9.—The Rev. Dr. W. P. Shriner, the new pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, succeeding the Rev. Dr. George F. Boggs, has arrived in Waynesboro, accompanied by Mrs. Shriner. They were tendered a rousing reception by the several hundred members of the church, and a supper was served them in the parsonage by the Ladies' Aid Society.

MISS HOFFMAN HOSTESS
Dauphin, Pa., April 9.—The Aid Society of the Lutheran Church was entertained by Miss Anna Hoffman at her home in East street. After the regular business meeting refreshments and a social time were enjoyed by Mrs. Harry B. Greenwalt, Mrs. A. C. Coble, Mrs. William F. Reed, Mrs. Harry Miller, Mrs. H. I. Gerberich, Mrs. Daniel Seiler, Mrs. Himmelreich, Mrs. David Hoffman and Miss Hoffman.

MERCERSBURG 131 YEARS OLD
Waynesboro, Pa., April 9.—Just 131 years ago last week the town of Mercersburg was laid out by William Smith, who was a son of William (Squire) Smith, an early settler. Previous to this the settlement was known as Black's town and later as Squire Smith's town.

PARENT-TEACHERS' MEETING
Dauphin, Pa., April 9.—The Parent-Teachers' meeting will be held on Wednesday evening, April 11, at the Stony Creek schoolhouse. The meeting was not held on Wednesday evening, April 4, on account of the inclement weather.

Bayer-Tablets Aspirin
One name—BAYER—additionally safeguards the user of Aspirin. The "Bayer Cross" is on every package and tablet of the genuine. Substitutes may be ineffective and often harmful.
"The Bayer Cross—Your Guarantee of Purity"
Tablets in boxes of 12, bottles of 24, bottles of 100, Capsules in sealed packages of 12 and 24.
The trade-mark "Aspirin" (Reg. U.S. Pat. Office) is a guarantee that the monoacetic acid of the reliable Bayer manufacture.

Sentanel Kidney Pills
Put life into lame backs
Every box makes good. 50c any druggist.
The Sentanel Remedies Co., Inc.
Cincinnati, Ohio

Break That Cold!
Genuine
Sentanel Cold Tablets
remove the cause and get results quickly. No quinine. No habit forming drugs. 25c any druggist.
The Sentanel Remedies Co., Inc.
Cincinnati, Ohio

Victor
"HIS MASTER'S VOICE"
REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.
Punch through circle with thumb nail
Victor
Tungs-tone Stylus
Full Tone 4 for 10c
To insure Victor quality, always look for the famous trademark, "His Master's Voice." It is on every Victrola and every Victor Record. It is the identifying label on all genuine Victorolas and Victor Records.

Play Victor Records with Victor Tungs-tone Stylus
Will play 100 to 300 records without changing
Packages of four, 10c

If used with proper care, four Tungs-tone Styli (one 10c package) should play 1,000 records.

When playing Victor Records, carefully lower the sound box and place the stylus or needle upon the smooth outside rim of the record and gently push into the record groove.

Manufactured exclusively by the Victor Talking Machine Company, Camden, N. J.

New Victor Records demonstrated at all dealers on the 28th of each month.

Victrola

"Victrola" is the Registered Trade-mark of the Victor Talking Machine Company designating the products of this Company only.
Warning: The use of the word Victrola upon or in the promotion of sale of any other Talking Machine or Phonograph products is misleading and illegal.