AN INVITATION TO WOMEN

AN INVITATION TO WOMEN

Women are invited to visit the laboratory of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., at Lynn, Mass., and see for themselves with what accuracy, skill and cleanliness this wonderful remedy for women's aliments is prepared. Over 350,009 pounds of roots and herbs are used annually in making this famous medicine. The great bins of herbs, the huge tanks filled with the medicine ready to be bottled, and the bottling room where it is put up and labelled for the market, cannot help but impress them with the reliability of this good, old-fashioned root and herb remedy, which for the past forty years has been so successful in the home treatment of female ills.—Advertisement.

Gardening As a Most Important War Measure

Washington, D. C., April 10.—That the planting of food gardens through-out the country is being urged by the co-operation of the National Emergen-cy Food Garden Commission, of Wash-ington, is one of the most important preparedness measures now before the public, was voiced by Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War, to-day, when he wrote the following letter to the com-mission:

mission:

"This seems to me to be a real contribution to the strength of the nation, and, incidentally, teaches a valuable lesson of thrift and of value of the soil, which it will be very good for our people to learn in these times of stress and to practice in times of peace."

Central Pennsylvania Cardinal O'Connell Calls on Americans to Act

on Americans to Act

Boston, April 10.—Cardinal O'Connell has issued a statement calling upon the nation to get up from its knees, bended during Holy Week, and "hasten now to act. We have spoken enough."

"There is but one sentiment permissible to-day—that sentiment is absolute unity," he said. "Our country is at war—our nation, therefore, needs us all, every man, woman and child of us, to strengthen her, to hearten her, and to stand faithfully by her until her hour of trial has passed and her hour of glorious triumph shall arrive.

"So up from our knees! Our souls have gathered strength of sacrifice from the sight of Calvary. 'God and our nation' Let us lift up that cry to heaven."
