'Get Into the Game" Says General Leonard Wood

"Get into the game." This was Major General Leonard This was Major General Leonard Wood's reply when asked the value of athletics as an, aid to inational preparedness. The General favors all-round sports. He does not believe our schools cover sports as fully as they might, and thinks they are lacking to the extent that they tend to turn out comparatively few trained athletes.

"Athletic training," said the General, "is naturally a part of military training, and they go hand in hand. Sound military training involves systematic, careful athletic work, work which tends to turn out a well-balanced ohysical man; one capable of tanding the hard strains of military training the hard strains of military service."

CANADIAN GOVERNMENT ENCOURAGES BOXING TO MAKE GOOD SOLDIERS

This scene shows the regular morning drill outside the armories of the 255th, the Queen's Own Battalion of Canada. Officers of the regiment have learned that boxing is one of the best, if not the best, exercises for the human body. It gives wind, speed, and self-confidence. These qualities are needed in war. Therefore, in making men over to save the British Empire it became necessary to have them take the kind of exercise that would make the most of them physically and mentally. They are not trying in war time in Canada to legislate boxing out of existence but to encourage it.

The great dramatic spectacle, "Everywoman," with all its vast scenic effects and army of people, will be disclosed by Henry W. Savage at the Orpheum, Monday evening, April 23. Everywhere this great spectacle has been Generation as the Generation of the great sensitive witnessed no more moving panoramic pageant than "Everywoman," conceived, as it was, by an inspired brain and executed by a master craftsman without regard to monetary outlay. It represents all that is great, all that is lofty, in spectacle, opera and drama. It is really three great productions merged into one.

"The Naughty Princess," the excellent musical comedy tabloid now appearing at the Majestic Theater, has everything a "two-dollar" traveling combination can offer, and all at popular prices. Scenically, it is a revelation, the Palm Beach setting in particular costing the Friedlander firm quite a sum of money. The headliner booked for the last half of the current week is "The Miracle," a remarkable demonstration of thought transference—one of the most novel offerings in vaudeville. Grouped around this attraction are: La France and Kennedy, in comedy blackface; Edf Esmond and Company, presenting a comedy-dramatic sketch; Chase and La Tour, in a comedy singing and talking skit, and Sutton, McIntyre and Sutton, novelty acrobats.

Manager George Cockill came back to town yesterday. He arranged for some improvements at Island Park. The local leader reported prospects encouraging on the circuit. He expects to have two good backstops signed up by Saturday. The players report at Lewsland of the Camp Hill Girls' basket ball team for next season. Miss Fry played a fast game during the season just closed and is very popular at the 'cross river schools.
