

NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS

MINISTER WILL SERVE UNCLE SAM

Member of Carlisle Presbytery Gives Services and Motorboat to Government

Mechanicsburg, Pa., April 11.—The Rev. R. M. Ramsey, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Newport, was granted a release from present duties yesterday afternoon at the spring stated meeting of the presbytery of Carlisle, now in session here, to serve Uncle Sam. The Rev. Mr. Ramsey offered his services and motorboat to the government for patrol and defense, which was accepted. When his petition for release from congregation and presbytery was presented, the latter body passed the same by a standing vote, since, as the moderator stated, they were giving a member to fight in a righteous cause. The scene was an affecting one, when the Rev. Dr. L. M. Mudge, pastor of Pine Street Presbyterian Church, Harrisburg, offered a fervent prayer for the President and nation in the present crisis. The Rev. Mr. Ramsey received word to rejoin his services at New York and left last evening for that city.

About eighty members answered to rollcall yesterday, with the moderator-elect, the Rev. Thomas Ferguson, in the chair. Among other business transacted, F. P. MacKenzie was elected temporary clerk for one year and Professor F. T. Magill, of Penn Hall, Chambersburg, reading clerk for one year.

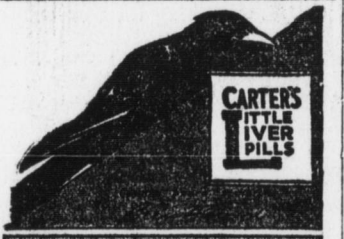

The Rev. Albert Bruchhaus was received as a candidate for the gospel ministry, examined and licensed. The time of ordination to be in May, in Hunterstown, Adams county.

The following committees were appointed by the moderator: On bills and overtures, the Rev. Harvey Klaier, the Rev. D. I. Camp, the Rev. J. M. Rutherford, Elders T. A. Carothers and S. F. Barbour; judicial, the Rev. Dr. T. C. McCarroll, the Rev. J. L. Hynson and the Rev. Dr. L. M. Mudge; Elders, Professor R. F. Fair and W. C. Creamer; the committee on synodical minutes consists of twelve men who were commissioners to the last synod; committee on presbyterial minutes, the Rev. F. T. Wheeler, the Rev. R. M. Ramsey and Elder F. K. Plyer; sessional record, the Rev. J. H. Wolf and Elder W. J. Melly; committee on treasury report, the Rev. C. B. Segelken and J. W. McKee; leave of absence, Elders F. E. Taylor and M. F. Robinson; committee on revision of manual, the Rev. R. F. McClean and the Rev. George Fulton; to serve on executive session, the Rev. J. G. Rose, the Rev. H. B. King and Elder S. B. Eby.

Last evening the sermon was delivered by the retiring moderator, the Rev. Harvey Klaier, and an address by the Rev. Dr. E. D. Warfield, L.L.D., president of Wilson College, on "The Biblical Chairs of Our Colleges."

The presbytery will close its sessions this evening following an address by Professor Charles Scanlon, L.L.D., of Pittsburgh, secretary of the Board of Temperance of the Presbyterian Church.

MOTORCYCLE RESERVES
Lewistown, Pa., April 11.—A company of motorcycle reserves, known as No. 3 Company of Lewistown, has been organized and have made their first run, to Huntingdon and Mt. Union. The following riders entered the run: Joseph Bridson, Vincent McClenahan, Guy Bailey, Fearn Harper, W. L. Arnold, Elder Stimpel, Donald Dippery, Frank Duncan, Russell Reikle, Randall Markley, Wilson Weikel, James Fish, Elder Masery, Walter Yocom, Charles Mattern, Lloyd Beason, Harry Lindenbarger, Wilfrid Couty and J. Ralph McCook.

The Best Habit In The World

is the habit of health. The way to get it is to train your bowels, through the liver, to act naturally, at a fixed time, every day.

Take one pill regularly (more only if necessary) until you succeed. Then you can stop taking them, without trouble or annoyance.

This has been the good-health-rale for 50 years.

Genuine bears Signature

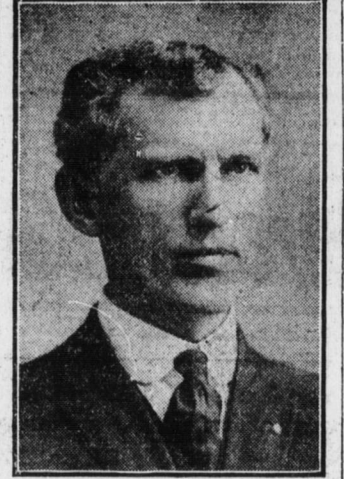

Colorless faces often show the absence of iron in the blood. Carter's Iron Pills will help this condition.

Miller's Antiseptic Oil, Known as Snake Oil

Accomplishing Most Wonderful Results

I want to thank you for your wonderful oil, states Mr. J. C. Gibson, of Jonesboro, Ark. My little girl was very low with diphtheria. I had given her two doses of medicine which cost me $20, with no results. I bought a 25c bottle of your oil and one application relieved her. Now she is well. It is the greatest remedy I ever saw. Mr. Gibson made this statement before hundreds of people. Mrs. Florence Meager, 234 Whitney street, Hartford, Conn., writes: I have used your Antiseptic Oil for neuralgia with good effects. Only thing I have ever tried that stopped the pain immediately. Mrs. Williams, Gadsden, Ala., writes: I have used your great pain oil for neuralgia, rheumatism, and also for sore throat, and I want to say that it is the greatest remedy I ever tried. I recommend it to all sufferers. Many cures reported daily from thousands of grateful users of this wonderful oil. Every bottle guaranteed. 25c to 50c a bottle, or money refunded. Mailed to any address, prepaid, on receipt of 50c. A leading druggist: George A. Gargas Drug Store.—Advertisement.

Industrial Development of Columbia Outlined

JAMES A. CONSTANTINE
Columbia, Pa., April 11.—In an address before the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association recently, J. A. Constantine of the Colonial Foundry and Machine Company, of which he is the head, aroused considerable enthusiasm among the members, who he described the possibilities of industrial development in the borough and showed how the organization had been a factor in the recent progress along that line. His address was greeted with applause. Mr. Constantine is one of the leaders in the industrial life of the town and an active member of the association.

ODD FELLOWS NEW OFFICERS

New Bloomfield, Pa., April 11.—At a meeting of Mackinaw Lodge No. 380 O. O. F. with P. G. Warren K. Clouser acting as district deputy grand master, the following officers were installed: Noble grand, Emmet A. Clouser; vice-grand, Daniel H. Bower; warden, Linton Stephens; conductor, Charles H. Smiley, Jr.; chaplain, Homer C. Knox; right scene supporter, John W. Sheffer; left scene supporter, Paul E. McKeehan; right supporter, noble grand, W. K. Clouser; left supporter to noble grand, David H. Fressler; outside guardian, S. Beck Wallace; inside guardian, John Holman. Installed during term, 18; reinstated, 2; total membership, 108.

TRINITY CHURCH OFFICERS

New Bloomfield, Pa., April 11.—Officers were elected last Sunday by Trinity Reformed Church and Sunday school as follows: Church officers, W. H. Darlington and W. H. F. Gorler, elders, and H. Mech and John T. Myers, deacons. Sunday school officers, superintendent, Samuel J. Garlin; secretary, Joseph Darlington; assistant secretary, Miss Olive Meek; treasurer, Mrs. S. H. Bernheisel; Organist, Miss Helen Fox; assistant organist, Paul G. Swartz; librarian, Paul E. McKeehan; assistant librarian, Frank McGuire.

JOHN CRISWELL DIES

Dauphin, Pa., April 11.—John Criswell, aged 69 years, formerly of Dauphin, died at Harrisburg on Tuesday. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Vera Long, of Harrisburg, and five grandchildren. The body will be brought to Dauphin to-morrow morning and funeral services will be held at 9 o'clock from Zion's Evangelical Church, at Zionsville. The Rev. J. M. Shoop will officiate and burial will be made in Dauphin Cemetery.

LANCASTER COUNTY DEATHS

Marietta, Pa., April 11.—Daniel Steeley, aged 65, a prominent resident of Stevens, and a member of the Brethren Church, died after a long illness. His wife, six children, ten grandchildren, a brother and two sisters survive.

Henry Steffy, aged 92, the oldest man in Lower Lancaster county, died at Denver. He was one of the first members of the Rheems Memorial Church. Four children, ten grandchildren, four great-grandchildren and a brother, Jacob, 88 years old, survive.

EXAMINATION FOR HIGH SCHOOL

Blain, Pa., April 11.—The eighth grade examination for entrance to the High school will be held in the borough schoolbuilding, on Saturday morning, beginning at 8 o'clock. The board of examiners are: Professor Newton Kerstetter, Professor Alton J. Shumaker, Miss Grace Zimmerman, Mrs. Ella Phenicle and Miles Bower.

PARTNER BUYS BUSINESS

New Bloomfield, Pa., April 11.—Wilson H. Darlington has bought out the interest of his partner, Harry E. Clouser, in the New Bloomfield Hosiery Mills and will conduct the business.

SUBURBAN NOTES

WILLIAMSTOWN
Clarence Waters, of South Bethlehem, spent several days with his mother Mrs. Cora Waters.

George Durbin, a student at Jefferson College, Philadelphia, spent a brief vacation with his uncle, Dr. H. A. Shaffer.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ebersole, of Harrisburg, are guests of Mrs. Ebersole's mother, Mrs. Samuel Dewalt.

John Dinger was on a trip to Harrisburg.

George Budd, employed at South Bethlehem, spent Easter with his mother, Mrs. Mary Budd.

Wesley Griffith, of Baltimore, and John Wilson, of Harrisburg, were recent visitors at the home of John Griffith.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield James and children have returned to their home at Minersville after spending the week with Mrs. James' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Bowman.

Edward Wallace, of Philadelphia, and Ray Wallace, of South Bethlehem, were Easter guests of their sister, Mrs. H. A. Shaffer.

Chester Kriener, employed at Bethlehem, spent several days with his family.

Jacob Mellon has resumed his studies at the University of Pennsylvania after spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Mellon.

Miss Blanche Myers is home from a visit at York Springs.

Misses Eva Ralph and Alice Flynn called on Miss Margaret Walsh at Tower City Monday evening.

HALIFAX
Edward Lebo, of Lyons, Kansas, is paying a visit to his mother, Mrs. William H. Lebo, in Market street.

Miss Rose Luderbach has returned home from a visit to Philadelphia.

Secretary McAdoo Looks For Cottage at Blue Ridge

Waynesboro, Pa., April 11.—Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, accompanied by Mrs. McAdoo, motored to Blue Ridge Summit on Sunday and spent the day looking over the cottages in the vicinity, with the intention of leasing one for the summer. It is the intention of Secretary McAdoo, it is said, to occupy a cottage in the Blue Ridge Mountains this summer, in order that he may be close to Washington.

THREE HAVE APPENDICITIS

Waynesboro, Pa., April 11.—Two bank cashiers of Waynesboro have been stricken with appendicitis within the past ten days. Jacob H. Stoner, cashier of the People's Bank, was seized with the disease ten days ago and was taken to the German Hospital at Philadelphia, where he was operated on. Last night William H. Gelbach, cashier of the Citizens' National Bank, was stricken with appendicitis, and was removed to the Washington County Hospital, at Hagerstown, where he was operated on.

Mrs. E. Starr Houck has been taken to the hospital in York, where she was operated on for appendicitis.

MRS. ZETTEMAYER DIES

Dauphin, Pa., April 11.—Mrs. Beulah Knapp Zettemayer died at her home in Fishing Creek Valley on Sunday. She is survived by her husband and two children, also by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mathias Knapp, three sisters, and ten brothers, of Clark's Valley.

Campaign to Raise $75,000 For Linden Hall Seminary

Lititz, Pa., April 11.—"Educate a boy and you educate an individual; educate a girl and you educate a family."

A campaign to raise a fund of $75,000 to pay off the debt against Linden Hall Seminary here, and establish the nucleus of an endowment was started actively on Monday morning of this week, and the first day's collections amounted to well over $2,000. The men and women of Lititz are putting their whole hearts into the work, and it is not doubted that the entire $75,000 will be raised during the two weeks.

Linden Hall Seminary is the second oldest boarding school for girls in the United States, and ranks with the best preparatory schools in the country. It has the enviable record of one hundred and seventy-one years of continuous service to its credit, being established as a day school in 1746. It has kept pace with modern progress and the school today is up-to-date in its equipment and methods.

All of Lancaster county is asked to join in this praiseworthy movement. The business committee in charge of the campaign expects a large number of moderate-sized gifts, instead of a few large ones. The school has seven hundred living alumnae, and they are scattered in all parts of the civilized world.

SCHOOL GARDENS FOR MT. UNION

Parent-Teachers Association and Woman's Club Unite to Fight High Cost of Living

Mount Union, Pa., April 11.—This borough is falling in line with larger cities of the nation in making preparations to combat the high cost of living during the war. Last night the Parent-Teachers Association held a joint meeting with the Woman's Club, a new and progressive organization, and after studying the cost problem, the two organizations united upon the issue of school gardens. A committee was appointed, consisting of Mrs. Charles Baldwin, Mrs. Agnew and Mrs. Longacre, to draw up plans, secure grounds and procure a person to take charge of the work. Each organization will pay half of the expense.

UP TO WAR STRENGTH

Lewistown, Pa., April 11.—P. O. S. of A. Camp of Lewistown is recruited almost to full war strength and is in readiness to take up the duties of an active soldier's life. There are seven and one-half enlisted men of the organization. C. L. Kerstetter is captain and Howard W. Aikens holds the commission of major in the State organization.

One true Aspirin Only One

Bayer-Tablets of Aspirin

Beware of Substitutes

The sole makers of genuine Aspirin brand every tablet and every package with the Bayer Cross.

Tablets in Pocket Boxes of 12—Bottles of 24 and 100 Capsules in Sealed Packages of 12 and 24

"The Bayer Cross—Your Guarantee of Purity"

Do you like good toast?

YOU do. Fresh bread, over hot coals, made with a toasting fork; crisp, delicious, hot, plenty of butter. Sure you like good toast.

Did you ever smoke toasted tobacco? Try it; to-day; try Lucky Strike, the real Burley cigarette.

We discovered that toasting Burley holds the flavor, and helps it. Not only that—it keeps the flavor fresh, just right—the cigarette doesn't get dry.

It's toasted

LUCKY STRIKE the real Burley Cigarette

You'll be absolutely delighted with the Lucky Strike cigarette. Remember—it's toasted! Like hot buttered toast.

20 for 10c

If your dealer does not carry them, send $1 for a carton of 10 packages to The American Tobacco Co., New York City

LUCKY STRIKE CIGARETTES

OUR men will demonstrate to you how the tobacco is toasted—at many stores

Guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co.

Copyright by The American Tobacco Co., Inc., 1917 INCORPORATED