

RECRUITS POUR INTO U. S. ARMY

Sixty-Two Enlist Here, Breaking All Previous Marks

Sixty-two men were enlisted at the local army recruiting station yesterday. A good percentage of this number were from this city. This was the largest number to enlist in the Harrisburg district during any single day, according to Lieutenant-Leaher and indications this morning pointed toward equalling the record of yesterday.

President Pays Tribute to College Patriotism

New Haven, Conn., April 12.—President Wilson in an interview in the Yale News to-day pays a tribute to the spirit of American colleges in the present national emergency. He says: "The patriotic spirit of the American college man of to-day has never been surpassed in any other age. Our American universities are the sources of production of efficient and well-trained men for all branches of national service in times of peace or war. Upon such men as Yale has given to the country has been based the strength of the American nation."

U. S. SCHOONER SUNK

New York, April 12.—The American schooner M. D. Cressy which left here April 7 for Havre with general cargo, was sunk during a gale last Monday when about 300 miles southeast of Sandy Hook. Second Officer George Smith and two seamen were drowned in launching a lifeboat and later the ship's cook died from exposure.

CALL FOR FILIPINOS

Manila, April 12.—Governor General Harrison issued a call to-day for the immediate formation of three militia regiments, with a total of about 4,000 men. Members of the British colony in Manila are offering their services for insular defense duty.

PATRIOTISM RUNS THROUGH MEETING

Pastmaster's Night of Perseverance Lodge Observed With Many Speeches

Several hundred members of the Masonic Fraternity gathered at the Masonic Temple last night to enjoy the annual Past Masters' night of old Perseverance lodge. These occasions are always fraught with unusual interest for members of the craft and last night was no exception, many guests coming from considerable distances to attend the exercises. Several past masters of Perseverance and sister lodges were present. A note of patriotism ran through all that occurred during the evening and reference was made in the numerous addresses to the participation of Masons in the war in the wars of this country as well as in the achievements of peace. Arrangements for the event were in the hands of Charles H. Hoffman, Dr. J. M. J. Raunick, Clyde P. Love, W. Harry Musser, Charles L. Sheaffer and Lodge, W. M. Perego. The master of the lodge, W. M. Perego, presided over the evening. During the evening a Masonic orchestra rendered patriotic music and all present joined in the singing.

Discusses Spirit of Country

At the banquet which followed the regular exercises of the evening W. Harry Musser was the toastmaster and discussed briefly in his introductory remarks the spirit of the country in the present world war. He first called upon one of the most popular members of the Masonic fraternity in this city, W. S. Snyder, the District Deputy Grand Master, who responded in his usual happy vein. Notable among the speeches was that by William M. Donaldson, who is one of the pillars of Masonry in Pennsylvania, having been identified with the Grand Lodge and also in the constructive work of the Masonic Homes at Elizabethtown. Mr. Donaldson was at his best last night and delivered a most earnest and interesting address upon the principles of the fraternity and upon the underlying spirit which should animate all its members. Senator Scott S. Leiby eloquently discussed the relation of the fraternity to the war and dwelt upon the great brotherhood which means so much to the state and the nation.

Charles S. Duncan, of the Gettysburg lodge, graphically described some incidents which occurred during the famous battle of the Civil War in which the Gettysburg Masons had demonstrated the tenets which have made the Masonic body a power for good in the world. Altogether it was a delightful evening and will go down in the annals of old Perseverance as one of its red letter nights.

DISCUSS PLANS FOR BIG MEETING

During his visit to Harrisburg yesterday Superintendent N. W. Smith of the Middle Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, conferred with the local committee on plans for the next meeting of the Friendship and Co-operative Club for Railroad Men. The meeting will be held in Eagle's Hall, Sixth and Cumberland streets, Thursday night, April 26. There will be three speakers. Plans will be discussed for the organization of branches in other cities. After the meeting there will be some special features introduced by the committee on entertainment.

COL. C. C. ALLEN RESIGNS

Acceptance of the resignation of Col. Charles C. Allen, commanding the First Pennsylvania Infantry, was announced to-day by Adjutant General Stewart.

15,000 TO MARCH IN GREAT PARADE

PARADE POINTERS

The general committee in charge of the "Everybody's Patriotic Demonstration" to be held in Harrisburg has authorized its proclamation: Saturday, April 21, will be "Everybody's Patriotic Day" in Harrisburg. A parade will be held in the afternoon at an hour to be decided upon by Captain E. Laubenstein, who has been elected chief marshal. All organizations and the general public of Harrisburg and vicinity are invited to participate in this parade. Employers of labor are requested to close their establishments during the afternoon from 12 to 6 o'clock. Laborers are requested to appear with a band, if possible, and in respective uniform. Where uniforms are not worn, paraders are requested to wear their own transparencies, bearing patriotic slogans. No business advertising, however, will be permitted in line. For information address William I. Laubenstein, secretary, 2510 North Sixth street.

Captain Henry M. Stine, the chairman selected by the Spanish-American War Veterans with whom the movement started, presided last night and included among those present were ladies representing the Daughters of the American Revolution and other patriotic organizations.

Captain E. Laubenstein was the unanimous choice of the committee for chief marshal of the parade and William Laubenstein was selected as secretary to the chief marshal. Secretary Laubenstein resides at 2510 North Sixth street and to him all communications with regard to the parade should be sent.

Parade on Saturday

The date of the parade had been fixed for Monday, April 23 in the evening but so many people desired to participate that it was decided to hold it Saturday afternoon, April 21 at an hour to be selected by the chief marshal.

This suggestion was made by H. M. Brooks, president of the Harrisburg Central Labor Union, who said that the union men of Harrisburg desired to have a division of their own, that Saturday was a half holiday for most of them and that they would turn out in large numbers if the demonstration was fixed for that day. In case of rain the parade will be held one week later.

Practically the whole Capitol Hill force will march in a body. The Boy Scouts will be in line. So will the Rotary Club and numerous patriotic and secret societies. After the parade there will be big patriotic open air mass meetings at which Col. A. B. Demming, representing the G. A. R., and other speakers will address the people.

Chairman Stine to-day announced patriotic hoisting committee appointments. The committee is headed by William I. Laubenstein, which will serve until he forms his permanent organization, as follows: David E. Tracy, Frank C. Sites, E. L. McCole, W. B. McCaleb, George Kunkel, W. J. McCaleb, George W. Brooks, Francis H. Hoy, Jr., Mayor A. M. Porter, Mercer B. Tate, Sergeant Major Drueses, Charles E. Pass and Captain Henry M. Stine.

Organizations seeking information and who wish to take part in the "Everybody's Patriotic Parade" will address all communications to William I. Laubenstein, 2510 North Sixth street, phone 4336-J.

William I. Laubenstein is a son of Captain E. Laubenstein and is secretary of the "Everybody's Patriotic Parade" committee. This was adopted and some question arising as to how the business men of the city would look upon a Saturday parade, Henderson Gilbert, former president of the Chamber of Commerce, recommended that stores, business houses and other places of all kinds where labor is employed be closed from 12 o'clock until 6 o'clock on that day. This was put into the form of a motion by Mercer B. Tate and unanimously carried.

The chief marshal, Captain Stine, Commander Dapp and Thomas P. Moran, will meet to-night in Mr. Laubenstein's home and set the parade hour. The Grand Army has named these delegates to arrange for the veterans' division: F. H. Hoy, Sr., A. Wilson Black, E. B. Hoffman, Thomas Numbers, N. A. Wolner, Harry Newman, George W. Rhoads, H. S. Watson and Colonel James W. Auler. Leo C. Galnor, representing the United Catholic Societies of Dauphin county, made an enthusiastic address and announced that this society will have at least 1,000 paraders, accompanied by a band. This number may be increased to 2,000 after an organization is effected, Mr. Galnor said. The chief marshal has chosen Mr. Gainer to head this division. Capitol City Nest, No. 1729, Order of Owls, also promises to have more than 1,000 marchers in line. At its meeting last night, a committee of three was selected to secure a band and this committee will meet Sunday afternoon to complete arrangements. E. E. Abbott, R. F. Webster and A. H. DeSivey, members of the committee, will meet at the home of Mr. Abbott, 357 South Fourteenth street. The Ladies' Nest of Owls will also be invited.

Among the other organizations represented at last night's meeting and which promise to appear in the parade include: The Harrisburg Military Association, Harrisburg Rifle Club, General Hartranft Camp Sons of Veterans, with guards and drum corps; Harrisburg Republican Club, with 150 men and band; the Italian Independent Social Beneficial Society, under command of Joseph J. Parialo, with 100 men, accompanied by the Italian Republican Musicians' Club, of which C. Gaeta is the leader and manager; Harrisburg Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose; all labor organizations of city; B. P. O. E., which, it was reported will have its own marshal and will be accompanied by a band.

Commander Dapp has arranged with City Commissioner Gross to have the firemen, accompanied by apparatus, in line. INSPECT PIKE County Commissioners H. C. Wells and C. C. Cumber returned late yesterday from an inspection trip over the Horseshoe pike connecting Hummelstown and Campbelltown. A report of conditions along the roadway will be given to-morrow at the regular meeting of County Commissioners. Repairs will probably be ordered at once.
