An Army of Men Is Being Outfitted With Spring Suits

Men and young men, tired of their old winter clothes, have been trooping for new suits. Now, when an army moves, it has directness of purpose to guide it. The same holds true of the civilian army that is coming here for its Spring clothing. It is prompted by personal experience in the past in the wear and style service of our suits, for it knows how well other fellows are pleased with clothes bought here.

For Young Men--The Great Variety of Smart Styles Bespeaks Our Preparedness

$15.00 $18.00 $20.00 $25.00

A "Selective Conscript" of America's best clothing stocks brought in for our service to the particular young fellows of hereabouts.

Scotch tweeds. Neat herringbone stripes. Blue unfinished worsteds. Rich grey cassimeres. Soft grey flannels. Handsome Scotch plaids. Homespun. Wool crash. Blue serges. Blue flannels.

The newest coats in single and double-breasted styles. Some have three-quarter loose belt — some have half belts. Pockets in slashed, slanting and patch effects. One, two and three buttons. Quarter silk and half silk linings — quarter, eighth and skeleton mohair linings.

And For Men--Suits From $10.00 to $35.00

Distinctive styles of a more conservative character but possessing many clever touches. Worsteds, cassimeres and unfinished worsteds in blue and black and light, medium and dark checks, plaids, stripes and mixtures. All sizes including sizes for stouts, regulars, longs and shorts.

Boys' Suits With Extra Pair of Trousers

$5.00 $6.50 $7.50

An unusually varied stock in sizes from 7 to 18 years. Pinch-back and Norfolk models, in single and double-breasted styles. A host of Scotch mixtures and fancy patterns. Other styles in Boys' Suits, $3.95 to $15.00
Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart, Second Floor, Rear.
