

VARIED PROGRAM AT BLIND FETE

Sergt.-Major Middlemiss, Mme. Larreynne and Movies at Benefit

All social leaders of Harrisburg are enthusiastically working to make a complete artistic and financial success of to-night's elaborate entertainment for the A. B. F. B. Permanent Blind Relief War fund at the Orpheum theater.

Fox Weiss, Carl B. Ely and William E. Bailey. All money received from the entertainment will be applied to aid the fund in giving permanent relief of the many blinded soldiers and sailors of Great Britain, France and Belgium.

Lancaster Fair Is Getting Ready For Big Exhibit

A meeting of the board of directors of the Lancaster Fair Association was recently held and important business transacted. A resolution of interest was passed which provides for the issuing of passes to stockholders, another was to the effect that no entry fee will be charged to exhibit in the ladies' fancy work, agricultural, horticultural and home and dairy products departments.

Heretofore all wishing to exhibit in these departments were required to buy an exhibitor's ticket costing $1 which gave one free admission each day of the fair. This year no charge of this sort will be made and all entries can be made free.

ARMENIAN BANK PLANNED

Petrograd, April 13. — A project is under way for the formation in Russia of an Armenian-American bank with a capital of 150,000,000 rubles. The plan has been under discussion for some time between Armenian capitalists in Russia and the Armenian bankers in America.

GERMANS AFTER TRADE Berlin, April 13. — Despite recent events in Russia, German trade associations which were interested in Russian trade before the war are pushing their plans for capturing their share of the after-war trade.

CHAMELEONS' ANTICS

Alexander, Egypt, April 13. — A few score chameleons are an indispensable part of the equipment of every military hospital in Egypt. Although they are on duty in the wards chiefly because of their insatiable appetite for flies, they also serve to amuse the patients, who never tire of watching the strange variations of tint assumed by the strange animals.
