Friday the 13th Brings With it Colder Weather and Shivers to Superstitions

Friday the 13th, the very worst possible combination for unfortunate happenings, according to superstitious people, is being observed today. The people who considered themselves the most unfortunate were those who had made a point to start their spring gardening to-day or planned an outing. The weather man started the day with regular winter time temperature. Rain or snow is forecasted for to-night with freezing temperature, possibly as low as 23 degrees.

Berlin Vorwaerts Would Like to See a Separate Peace With Russ Empire

Amsterdam, April 13, via London.—The Berlin Vorwaerts, commenting on the program of the Russian provisional government urging support of the war, says:

"The account between Austria and Germany on the one hand and Russia on the other can be settled on the basis of the program drafted by the Russian government, without shedding more blood. Nevertheless, Germany nor Austria intend to humiliate Russia or to retain for themselves any portion of the occupied territory. The Russian manifesto shows the strength of Russian currents running in the same direction to be very great. To meet them is the duty of the German government."

Jitney men Conclude Their Testimony in Hearings

After two days of testimony the hearing of the jitney men of Harrisburg before the Public Service Commission was brought to a close late yesterday. Testimony of seventy-six jitneyurs was heard and it was all virtually the same. In cross examining the jitney men, Attorney Bailey, for the Harrisburg Railways Company, learned that the majority of them were property owners and some were worth as high as $25,000.

The testimony taken will be transcribed and will be thoroughly gone over by the commission. The jitney men have fifteen days to file a brief with the commission after which the commission will file its reply. The case will then be argued by law and it will then be decided whether or not the jitney men will be granted a certificate of public convenience.
